DEDICATED POSTHUMOUSLY
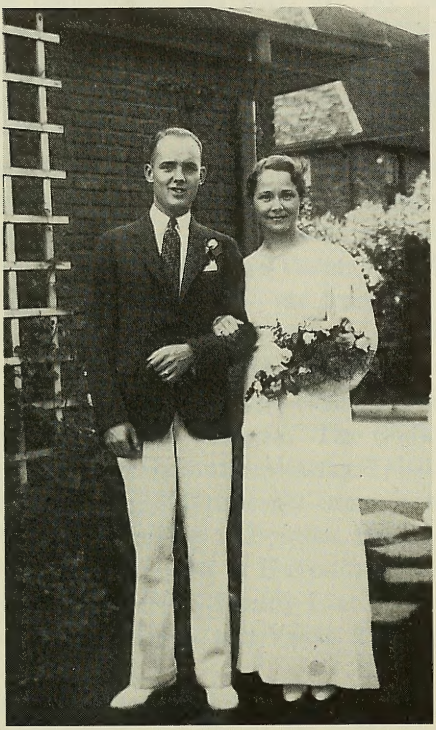
for
"Milt" and Marie Pascoe



For my mother in law, Marie "Maiyu" Sophia Maunus Pascoe who showered me with love, showed me the beauty of the roses and made my world a better place by sharing her's with mine. I have picked up all the pieces you gave, 'cast my bread upon the waters' believing one day it would return to me. For my father in law, Milton "Milt" Charles Scheid Pascoe, whom I never had the privilege of knowing as he died too soon, but have been told by many, 'Patty, a man you would have loved and he you.' As you both read in heaven and know of this work, the closing of this book is but a passage in time and a beginning until I am reunited with you both. With much love and respect,

Patty

PREFACE

In writing this volume, I am completing what was given to me in trust many years ago, by my mother in law, Marie Maunus Pascoe. This manuscript has been my joy and pleasure to combine, research, edit and publish so that all living members of our families will know of their ancestors and descendants.

I believe a family heritage is worth preserving as it should relate family life in such a way that it can be an inspiration for youth, a comfort in old age and a faithful record for those generations which follow. Many of us now living may never meet except within these pages, but at least, we now "know" our family! The style and organization varies with the amount and character of material available to me from the various family lines. Where documentation was known, credit was given in quotes and/or foot notes as to those resources.

Our PASCOE Family Line (1589-present) came from Wales, to London, Ontario Canada. The family then went to Detroit, Michigan to Fremont/Sandusky/Toledo, Ohio. Our SCHEID Family Line (1800-present) came from Heistenbach, near Dietz, Nassau, Germany to Pontiac, Huron County, Ohio. Some family members moved to Huron/Milan/Sandusky, Erie County, Ohio.Our MAUNUS Family Line (1851-present) came from Isokyro/Tampere/Turku and Vaasa, Finland to Ashtabula, Ohio.

To relative, friend, stranger and volunteers at libraries and courthouses, who assisted with this volume, I can only say, "thank you." Your decision to assist has brought closure to the project begun by Marie Maunus Pascoe and I have been the mere catalyst to bring her ancestral project to publication in time for Christmas 2000!

This "gift of love" involves all of us - not just me, not just my mother in law, Marie Maunus Pascoe. Enjoy and pass on the knowledge of your family to others and generations which will come after us that we may never know. I trust that others will carry on the quest and continue where I have ended.

As it has been said, "We can finish nothing in this life, but we can make a beginning, and bequeath a noble example."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

No one writes or publishes without the assistance of others! Marie Maunus Pascoe has been my guiding light and the angel on my shoulder more than once. I feel and have felt her presence throughout the years of completing this project for her. Thank you for trusting me with your "family" - and the many treasures you left for me to discover, your handwritten notes, love letters, diaries, all those little clues which generated more research and contacting more people all over the United States and Finland.

Judy Muhn, Billy Myers and Patty Van Barg have been my resident artists with creative talents to reproduce with pen and ink sketches of homesteads, tombstones, drawings. Brian Rhoad, a former student of mine, has been my editor in chief with his scanning equipment and computer skills, who with the patience of Job made all those necessary changes and saved all information on a compact disc. Nor can I forget to very dear friends, Brian and Nora Michaels who convinced me to take up genealogy as a hobby many, many years ago. As a gift they gave to me the essentials back in 1968 when all three of us were teaching in Gainesville, Florida.

Last but by no means least, my spouse, J. Thomas Pascoe, who has been my "project coordinator." Whatever task needed to be done - finding and photographing a stone in a cemetery, researching for me in libraries and courthouses, reading microfilm for hours and hours at a time, driving all over to meet and talk with relatives in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and Canada - he did it! He was always there for me and gave me the time and space to be addicted to typing on the computer to finish this history of his families! Te amo!

For all who have contributed and corroborated information in order to see this manuscript in print, I can only say, thank you from my heart.

In spite of the assistance of many, proof reading over and over and over, and spell checks on the computer, typographical errors and/or human errors in fact or conception are mine and mine alone for which I assume responsibility and ask that you understand the undertaking a project of this magnitude.

THE PASCOE FAMILY

To understand from whence we came, a map of England and Wales preceded these pages, along with a detailed map of Cornwall identifying those cities of our ancestors: Truro, Kenwyn, Gerrans, Madron. Cornwall is located in the southern tip of England bordered by the Atlantic Ocean and the English Channel.

The people are descendants of Celts and have maintained much of their own culture. Jack Schnedler of the Chicago Daily News wrote of his trip in January 1973 "...like most travelers we relished in the natural beauty of the coastlines and fantastic rock formations...this region has provided less than easy living for local inhabitants...we were intrigued by the tour of the old mines. The Celtic miners of Cornwall sold their tin and copper long ago to ancient Greeks and Phoenicians, but during the 19th century, competition from South American and Far Eastern fields brought the closing of most mines..result was massive employment, some starvation and emigration to America and South Africa...chief industry now is pottery made from a special clay...tourism is popular and encouraged...and the first spring flowers delivered to London markets come from Cornwall...."

ST. PIRAN, THE PATRON SAINT OF CORNWALL

During a period of time known as "The Age of Saints", a number of holy people traveled between the Celtic countries. Many of Cornwall's present day churches were founded by missionaries from Ireland, Brittany and Wales. Among the most popular and the one creating the most interest today, was St. Piran who is the Patron Saint of the tin miners. He is generally accepted today as the Patron Saint of Cornwall as well, although St. Michael and St. Petroc are also popular.

The legend of St. Piran says that he was born in Ireland where he is known for having performed a number of miracles including the feeding of ten kings and their armies for ten days with only three cows; raising slain soldiers from the dead on the battlefield; and, restoring life hounds that had been killed while hunting deer and wild boar. Even though his miracles helped the kings, they grew afraid of his powers and jealous of his influence among the people and so he was condemned to be thrown into the sea. St. Piran was placed in bonds and taken to a high cliff where a heavy millstone had been rolled up. He was chained to the millstone and it was cast over the edge into the waters below. A terrible storm had developed prior to this; but, as St. Piran was launched to his death, the sun broke through the clouds and beamed down on Piran sitting on the millstone in the water which had become as smooth as glass. At that moment, it is said that hundreds of the people in the crowd on the cliff converted to Christianity.

The winds and the weather stayed favorable for the reluctant sailor and after may days the floating millstone landed him safely on the beach that today bears his name Perranporth. The date was the fifth of March which is today observed as St. Piran's Day. He lived amongst the Cornish men until he reached the age of 206 years, whereupon he died in a state of drunkenness. At the time he still possessed all of his teeth and perfect eyesight and showed no sign of age.

On the beach where he had landed, St. Piran established a little church where he attended to his devotions and the converting of the Cornish. Piran had a liking for natural objects and decorated his altar with fine flowers and the crystals which he collected as he traveled the countryside. One day as he was using a cooking fire of some intensity, he noticed a stream of beautiful white metal was flowing out from the side of a large black rock. He contacted another holy man, St. Chewideen, and the two of them devised a way to extract large quantities of the metal, tin, from the local rocks. They shared this knowledge with the people and showed them how to dig for the rock from the ground and how, by means of fire, to extract the white metal and put it to use.

There were formerly a large number of tin miners in the area around Perranporth who established the tradition of a parish feast at which friends and neighbors from the surrounding district came to share in the ample food and drink provided. It is said that the Colorado Folklore Society in the mining belt of the U. S. A., where many Cornishmen emigrated in vast numbers, still holds a supper of traditional food on St. Piran's Feast, March 5th. Does anyone know if this still takes place?

More and more there is evidence that the Cornish people acknowledge St. Piran as the Patron Saint of Cornwall and the St. Piran flag as the National banner of the country. A white cross on a black background is said to represent the white tin flowing from the black rock or alternatively, good overcoming evil.[1]

Among the possessions of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe was this coat of arms. Where she obtained it or when, this author knows not, only that she would not have kept it, were it not important to her research. In faint pencil was written what looks like the following words: "...d'azur a un agneau pascal d'arg, prtant un guidon de gu et pass sur une terrasse de sin..."

Considerable time has been spend with professional genealogists in Canada, England and Wales to establish our Pascoe Family Heritage. That which follows is such documentation; and, this author is indeed indebted to those individuals for their professional expertise. Correspondence from Mrs. Anita Coderre, Genealogical Recorder Searcher on January 18, 1978, of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, revealed to me five pages of information on our Pascoe Family:

524 Alesther Street,
Ottawa, Ontario, Canada
K1K 1J3

January 18th, 1978.

Dear Mrs. Pascoe:

Thank you for your letter of December 28th, 1977.

I have since completed the ten hours research authorized by that letter, and I am pleased to report appreciable success.

I first searched the census records of 1851 for the Town of Woodstock, Oxford County, Ontario and found several persons with the surname Pascoe, including one male child, no name given who was born in 1851 to Richard and Harriet Pascoe. (See census extract at Appendix "A"). As this child had a sister, Susannah, I felt that I was on the right track, and a search of the 1861 census of the same place, confirmed this assumption. Here I found this child, now identified as Charles Pascoe, aged 10 years. (See census extract at Appendix "B").

From these censuses, which identify this Charles as the son of a Richard and a Harriet Pascoe, it would also appear that the Richard Pascoe (aged 55 in 1851) is the grandfather of this Charles.

I then commenced a search of the Upper Canada (Ontario) Land Records and found four petitions in the name of Pascoe. At Appendix "C" I have included brief extracts for two of these land petitions. One is for an Edward Pascoe, who could very well be a brother to Richard Pascoe Senior, as he served in the same regiment and came to Canada at approximately the same time. I had photocopies made of the other two petitions, as I thought you would find them of interest, especially as they contain the signature of Richard Pascoe, Senior. You will note that in Richard Pascoe's petition dated 1837, that a James Thompson was a co-petitioner with Richard Pascoe, Senior.

At Appendix "D" you will find the results of a search of the "Marriages of the Home District" and "Marriages of the Brock District". As you can see, I was fortunate enough to discover the record of the marriage of Charles Pascoe's parents, Richard Pascoe and Harriet Greenaway (Greenway). Unfortunately these marriage registers do not give the names of the parents of the bride and groom. I list all the marriages for the names Pascoe and Greenaway that were recorded in the Brock District Marriages at Appendix "D".

It may be possible through further census and land record searches to find out more information on the Greenaway family. I would also recommend a search of the 1871 census for Woodstock for both the Pascoe and Greenaway families. It should be noted that the 1871 census is the latest one available for public searches, as the 1881 and later Canadian censuses are still classified as Confidential documents.

The research to date is fully covered by your advance payment. I hope that you have found the report and the enclosed information as interesting as I found the researching of your ancestors.

yours sincerely,

Anita Coderre

..... Correspondence from W. H. Pascoe at "The Cottage" in Exmouth, Devon, England, on January 18, 1978, reveals for us a genealogical line

The Cottage,
18 Keverel Road,
EXMOUTH, DEVON, ENGLAND.

18 January 1978.

Dear Mrs Thomas,

Your letter of 3rd Jan received this morning and I hasten to reply as one who is interested in the Pascoe family over the whole world.

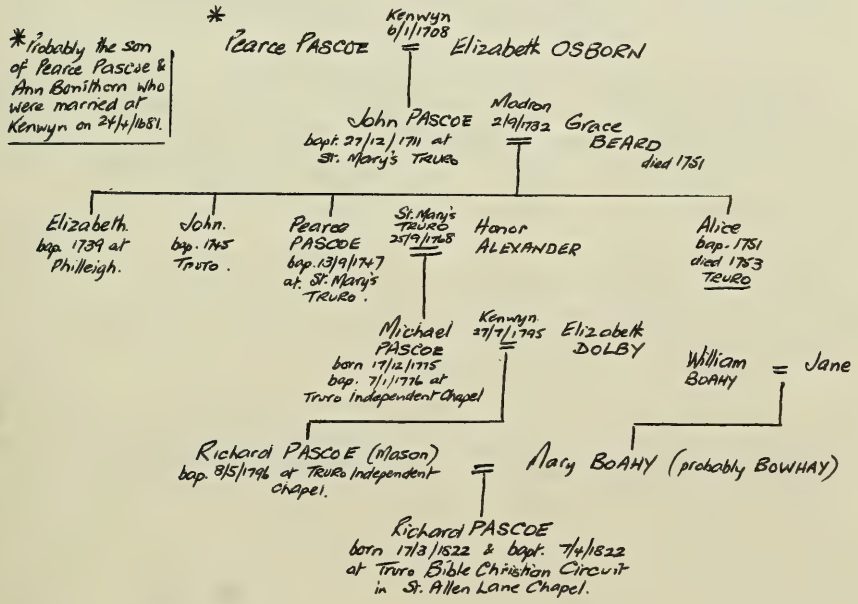
There are some omissions in your letter - you no doubt know the parents of Charles James Pascoe if you know his birth date. Also what makes you suppose that his grandfather or great grandfather was a Minister in Wales and why Wales when the family is predominantly Cornish ?

I have a very large collection of Pascoe records up to 1812 but little after that date.So if the family history could be established from 19th century records then I most probably can assist to trace it before then.

Is it possible to tackle the Canadian source via their official records towards the time of emigration from the U.K.?

Yours sincerely,

(W.H.PASCOE)



On March 8, 1978, I again received several pages of information from Mrs. Anita Coderre ....

524 Alesther Street,
Ottawa, Ontario, Canada
K1K 1J3

March 8th, 1978.

Dear Mrs. Pascoe:

Thank you for your letter of February 7th, and the kind words about my research. It really does give me a lift too, when I can find so much for a client. Research in Canadian records is very difficult because so much data is unindexed.

I have proceeded with your search, and I include at Appendix "A" the results of a search of the 1871 census for the Town of Woodstock. It would appear that by this time your Richard Pascoe, Jr. had moved and that possibly his father had died. I did not find any families by the name Greenaway in this census.

A search of the 1861 census for Woodstock did not reveal any persons by the name Greenaway either. However, in the census of 1851 for the Town of Woodstock, I did find a family for James and Susan Greenaway, whom I believe are the parents of Harriet (Greenaway) Pascoe. (See Census extract at Appendix "B").

The facts that they are the only Greenaway in the area, that the mother was named Susan and that Harriet named her first daughter Susanna, and that James & Susan and Harriet were all of English birth, are all good reasons supporting my belief.

Unfortunately, as Harriet was apparently born around 1830, a few years before England began keeping centralized records, it will not be immediately possible to write to England for her birth certificate. However, Wellington Greenaway, born around 1838/39 and Ann Greenaway, born around 1840/41, should appear in the centralized birth records of England. If you can obtain birth certificates for either of these children, you may find out where the Greenaways lived in England, and may eventually be able to get a baptismal record for Harriet from a local church.

The place to write for birth records after 1 Sep 1837 in England, is The General Register Office, St. Catharine's House, 10 Kingsway, LONDON, W.C. 2B-6JP. England. I wish I could tell you how much it would cost, but all I can say for sure is that it is in the neighborhood of three pounds per certificate. This includes a three-year search of their indexes, so be sure to specify the three-year period you wish them to search.

I suppose you have noticed that I always preface a persons age the word "around". I know from long experience that people did not always know their exact ages, and told the census enumerator whatever they wished. There is not typographical error in my last report concerning the age of Richard Pascoe according to the 1851 and 1861 censuses, just a matter of human errors of those times.

As for your questions re Woodstock, I checked several local histories of the area, and found that there were at least two Methodist Churches in the Town of Woodstock by 1860. However, early Methodist parish registers, have to an extent, been centralized in the United Church Archives in Toronto, Ontario. A researcher in Toronto could possibly check these records for you, as you know approximately the time of birth for Richard & Harriet's children, and also within ten years the time of death of his parents. Toronto, (The Provincial Archives of Ontario), also holds some early Wills for various counties, and it is possibly that a will exists for Richard Pascoe, Sr. I still believe that you would be further ahead to pursue the leads in England for the Pascoe's and Greenaway's first. However, I can recommend the services of Mrs. Elizabeth Hancocks, 172 King Henry Boulevard, Agincourt, Ontario M1T 2V6. as a local Toronto researcher.

I did find a few more things for you here in the Public Archives of Canada. I checked the Illustrated Historical Atlas for Oxford County and found that a few Pascoe families were still living in Oxford in 1876. I also found one person by the name Elton but as Susan married in London, it would be far-fetched to assume that this is her husband. (See Atlas extracts at Appendix "C").

I also conducted a search of the indexed Quebec records as George Pascoe indicated he had been born in Quebec in the censuses. I found a record of a Richard Pascoe who had deserted the British Army in Canada in 1843. (See Appendix "D"). It does not, however, appear likely that this Richard Pascoe could be either of your Richards, who were firmly established in Woodstock, Upper Canada, by that time.

From the census records and the Land Petition for Richard Pascoe Senior (sent in my last report) it would appear that this family emigrated from England shortly before the birth of their son George, i.e. around 1830/31. It also appears that the family spent a year or two in Lower Canada (Quebec Province) before moving to the Province of Ontario. Similarly it can be deduced that the Greenaways arrived in Canada around 1842/43.

The above research took the full period authorized and my fee is completely covered by your advance check.

Good hunting,

Anita Coderre

Mrs. John E. Coderre, GRS

Census records for Ontario Province, 1871, no longer show either Richard Pascoe; and the 1851 census for the same province show a Greenaway Family...

Dear Mrs Pascoe,

PASCOE FAMILY.

I must apologise for the delay in replying to your letter of 20 Nov. last but I must confess that I was at first just a little annoyed that you had addressed a precisely similar request to a colleague and friend of over 20 years standing. One task for one agent is our motto in the UK.

However I did decide to take up your request on the 8th Dec. and have since spent several hours on the chase. To receive only the information that the place of birth was "England" seemed to present an almost formidable task and if I had not specialised in the Pascoe family for a very long period a substantial amount of time would have been taken in just the search for origins.

Pascoe is an almost 100% Cornish-name as I have myself done a research into the name itself which was published a few years ago. My own records have therefore saved me quite a lot of time. After going through my lists of Baptisms (over 3000) I finally found the two Richards (father & son) that fitted. The father is a Mason baptised in May 1796 which fits with an age of 55 at the Feb, 1852 Census. His wife is called Mary but not Mary A. I have not yet found the actual marriage but to save time have pressed on with the Pascoe line.

The son Richard was however born in 1822 thus making him 29 at the Census date and not 27. Both were members of Nonconformist sects as you will see from the attached tree.

The elder Richard's father Michael Pascoe was also a Nonconformist as his parents Pearce and Honor must have been to have had him baptised in Truro Independent Chapel. Pearce's baptism was traced comparatively quickly but the marriage of his parents John & Grace took some time to find as it occurred some 30 miles away at Madron, the mother church of Penzance. Presumably John worked there for a while.He then moved for Elizabeth was born in Philleigh parish which is just south of Truro and then he was back home in Truro for the baptism of his next two children in St.Mary's the parish church. There too I found his baptism as the son of Pearce and Elizabeth Pascoe.

I have not been able to find the baptism of Pearce, which was probably about 1680, but you will see my note about his probable parents.

I have then been reasonably successful in a short time in establishing a further four generations on your husbands family tree and I will now leave it to you to decide whether or not to pursue the main Pascoe line or that of any of the female sides. No doubt you will let me know in due course.

Meanwhile my charges amount to:-

6½ hours research at £2 per hour	=	£13-00
Local travelling (48+53)	=	1-01
Total:-		£14-01

and I shall be grateful for your remittance as soon as possible,

Yours sincerely

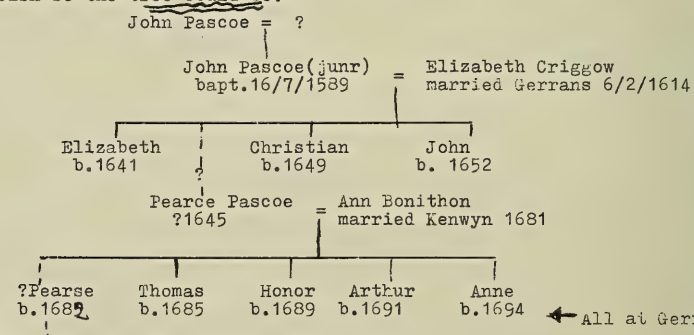
Dear Mrs Pascoe,

I must apologise for the delay in writing to you following your letter of 31 January last. The work has however continued despite breaks and interruptions for various reasons. Your $50-00 cheque was converted into £23-65 sterling so after satisfying the £14-01 mentioned in my letter of 11th Jan there was remaining £9-64. Since then I have spent 6 hours going through all the parishes that I had not previously searched for "PASCOE'S". I have not finished as several are not in the Exeter library but I have not yet had an opportunity of going to Truro. Instead I decided to put in the Cornwall Family History Journal an item under the "Can You Help?" section for the tracing of the two Pascoe's whose Christian name was Pearse. This request will be in the Journal to be published this month and I am hoping that someone can help.

I should mention that I did find an earlier Pearse in Gerrans parish so the tree could be:-



The one who married Eliz.Osborn.
The total cash outstanding for work & travel is £4-96 and I shall be glad to hear from you,

yours sincerely,

Dear Mrs Pascoe,

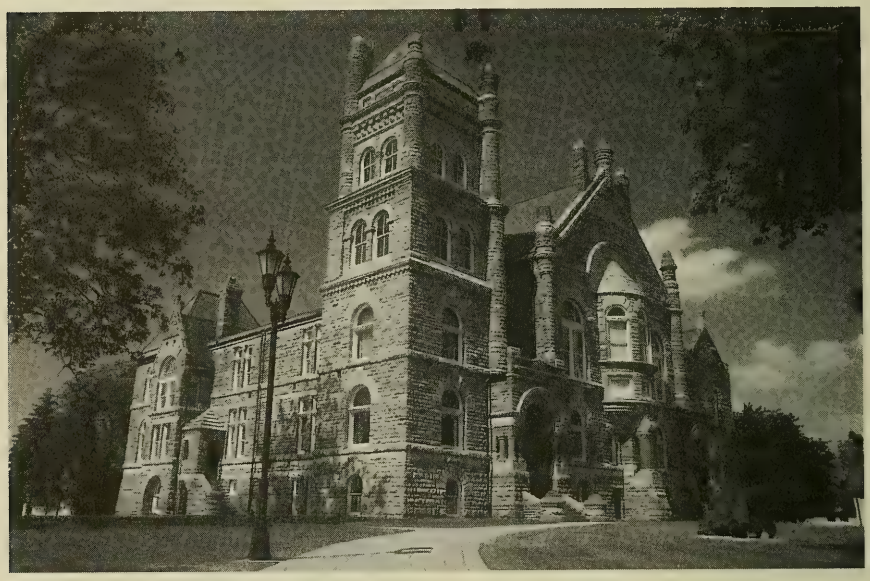
I felt that after this long period I should report to you on progress this end. Unfortunately I have not been able to get the Pascoe line back any further as yet. To date I have covered approx. two-thirds of the total of 208 parishes in Cornwall for Pascoe baptisms and also put an enquiry in the Journal of the Cornish Family History Society from which I received no replies whatsoever.

You will remember that we were attempting to trace the baptism of a Pearse Pascoe c.1645 and the baptism of another Pearse Pascoe in 1682. Now Pearse is a rather uncommon name and all of those I have found are within a few miles of Truro;the latest being in St. Mary's Truro itself in the late 18th century when there were two married men called Pearse Pascoe. The earliest is a Pearse Pascoe whose wife Jane had a baby called John who was baptised on 5th April 1584. As I indicated in my previous letter to get at the remainder of the parishes would mean a trip to Truro where the County Record Office lies in which Registers are being deposited. I do not however,hold out much hope.The earlier baptism comes in the period of the Civil War in this country when the keeping of most Parish Registers was suspended and it is possible that the delay in getting them started again could affect the second Pearse in 1682. I have a friend in Cornwall who does keep his eye open for anything in the Pascoe Line so that is one possibility.Otherwise I would stop the chase. Your £ 30-00 cheque fetched only £11-78 and this is all exhausted now. Unless you would like me to search the female lines ie Osborn,Bonithon and Criggow I would now give up any more work for you at this time. If you are prepared to accept this then I can only promise to let you know if any Paarse's come my way,

yours sincerely,

(W.H.PASCOE)

So we found out a great deal about the PASCOE family from two professional genealogists. We know that they came from Cornwall, Wales and came to Woodstock, Ontario, Canada. Our travels took us to Woodstock many times over the years and the courthouse there is a beautiful edifice.



Assisting us with our research in Woodstock, were two individuals: (1) Ms. Susan Start at the Woodstock Public Library and (2) Ms. Mary Liley, a volunteer at the local historical society, The Ontario Genealogical Society. She informed us that "...Richard Pascoe and his wife, were Petworth Emigrants and settled in a section of Woodstock, called Brighton in 1836...."

The following two pages about the Petworth Emigrants of 1832 she graciously duplicated for us although the resource of said information was not given....

PETWORTH EMIGRANTS OF 1832

MARCH 1,1832:
SUSSEX, ENGLAND AND ADJACENT COUNTIES.

England was in a depression and increasing number of persons were dependent on the parishes for financial support. The Earl of Egremont of Petworth, Sussex offered to defray the expenses of those who might wish to emigrate from England to Canada. Thomas Sockett who was rector of Petworth agreed to organize the journey in the sincere belief that Canada would provide a better future for the emigrants.

The first order of business was to charter two ships, the Eveline and the Lord Melville. Charles Barclay of Bury Hill Estate assisted 75 emigrants from the area of Dorking in Surrey who had responded favourably to the notice from the Earl of Egremont.

The ships sailed from Portsmouth, England on April 11,1832 for Quebec with York in Upper Canada being the eventual destination from which the emigrants could then make their way to new homes. The Eveline arrived at Quebec on May 28,1832 and the Lord Melville on June 2,1832. A total of 603 persons made the journey on the two ships; 491 organized by the Petworth Committee, 103 from Dorking. The emigrants were mostly agricultural labourers but also included 13 bricklayers, 3 bricksmakers, 9 sawyers, 8shoemakers, 7 carpenters, 2 wheelwrights, 2 farmers, 2 blacksmiths, and 1 artist and 1 landscape painter.

The total number of emigrants assisted by the Petworth scheme came to approximately 1800 sent over the period 1832-1837. Many parishes other than Petworth itself were involved, including some in Hamsphire and Surrey and even one in Cambridgeshire. The scheme provided passage to York only and from there the settlers scattered. There were concentrations of them at Kettle Creek (Port Stanley) and in Adelaide Townships. There were others near Dundas, Ancaster, Guelph and Galt.

Town of York, Upper Canada is known today as Toronto.

FROM PORTSMOUTH, ENGLAND, TO CANADA IN 1834

From Portsmouth, England, the British Tar sailed under the command of Captain Crawford and with the support of an emigration scheme of the Church of England. Many of the passengers suffered from Sea-Sickness one of whom was a Henry Hammond.

The first ship of the season arrived at Grosse Ile on the 5th May,1834. Three hundred ships have now arrived with 11,564 passengers, 645 of these Cabin passengers. Three ships Isabella & Jane of Worthinton and the Moon of Sunderland were wrecked on the Island of St. Pauls, May 8th 1834. A boat comming off with passengers from Grosse Ile on the 26th of May was upset and one man drowned and luggage was lost.

GROSSE ILE TO BECOME NATIONAL HISTORIC PARK

Grosse Ile, on the St. Lawrence River forty-eight kilometres east of Quebec City, served as a quarantine station from 1832 to 1937 and was the first point of entry for hundreds of thousands of European immigrants. It will become a National Historic Park administered by the Canadian Parks Service. The new park will commemorate immigration to Canada. Environment Minister Tom McMillan said the historical character and identity of Grosse Ile will be preserved. "Our first priority will be to protect and conserve all the existings heritage resources, specifically the buildings and structres identified with the quarantine period."

Beginning in 1832, immigrants arriving on vessels carrying contaqious diseases were kept in quarantine and treated before proceeding to Quebec City. Grosse Ile is the burial place of several thousand immigrants who succumbed to typhus or cholera epidemics and the harsh conditions of the Atlantic crossing. Many buried there are Irish immigrants who fled their homeland in droves during the potato famine of 1847.

For several years there have been tours on the island; the creation of the national park will result in greater tourist possibilities, so that many will be able to visit the site of their ancestors' arrival. More than thirty structures representative of the quarantine period are still standing on Grosse Ile. Most date from the 1800s and early 1900s. They include a hospital, two churches, staff residences, hotels for immigrants, service buildings, a telegraph station, a guardhouse and a gun battery.

Those with a greater interest in Grosse Ile are referred to GROSSE ILE: GATEWAY TO CANADA, by Sister Marianna O'Gallagher.

On May 26, 1999, the Oxford Historical Society, Oxford Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society, announced that the speaker would be Wendy Cameron of Toronto, whose subject would be Brighton - Petworth Emigration Scheme. The "flyer" sent out by OGS stated...

Oxford Historical Society
Oxford Branch, O.G.S.

May 26, 1999. General Meeting

Fred Freeman, President of the Oxford Historical Society presiding.

Speaker - Wendy Cameron of Toronto
Topic - Brighton. Petworth Emigration Scheme.

The Petworth Emigration Scheme took place between 1834 and 1837. The settlers came from the south of England around Sussex and Isle of Wight. They sailed from Portsmouth. They were mostly labourers and artisans and consisted of either large families or single men.

The Atlantic crossing was passable. They came by way of the St. Lawrence River because it was cheaper than by way of New York, Albany and the Erie Canal to Lake Ontario. After landing at Montreal they either had to travel up the Ottawa River and then down the Rideau Canal or ride the rapids and portages on the St. Lawrence River. Either way it was not pleasant. From Kingston they travelled by steam boat to Hamilton From here they hired wagons to get to Woodstock, Upper Canada. Anthony Hawke was the agent in Toronto that made arrangements for them.

On arrival in Woodstock they got 5 acre lots in the north west section of what is now the city of Woodstock. Here they built log shanties immediately. The emigrants in Woodstock found work almost immediately partly because Admiral Henry Vansittart had arrived just previously and was looking for labourers and artisans. The scheme in Woodstock, sometimes listed as Blandford was very successful. Many descendants of original settlers still live in Oxford county. John Hatch was the contact man here and he did well by them. By 1842, 11 families had petitioned for their land. Most of these were of the Church of England. and attended Old St. Paul's Church in the east end of Woodstock.

In conclusion the Petworth people that settled in Woodstock were valuable settlers and worth every penny spent on getting them settled.

Wendy Cameron and her partner are publishing a book soon giving the list of names of all these people. Wendy Cameron is an historian, author and partner with Mary McDougall Maude in Wordforce. She is co-author of the forthcoming book "Assisting Emigration to Upper Canada: the Petworth Project 1832-1837". And co-editor of "English Immigrant Voices: Labourer's letters from Upper Canada in the 1830's" an edition of letters sent by Petworth emigrants to family and friends in England.

Promises of jobs and land drew emigrants to our area

for The Daily Sentinel-Review

The stories of Vice-Admiral Henry Vansittart and Captain Andrew Drew and their arrival in Woodstock are well known. They left a lasting influence on Woodstock through their money and way of life.

Less known is the account of the 'Petworth Emigration Scheme' by Lord Egremont.

It began with the agricultural depression in England in the 1830s. Historian Wendy Cameron describes, emigration as a means of "helping the poor help themselves and of relieving unemployment in England."

The Earl of Egremont of Petworth, Sussex, one of the wealthiest landowners in England, agreed to lend his name and money to a program to sponsor emigrants of his area to Canada. Rev. Thomas Sockett, Rector of Petworth was organizer; the Petworth Committee was formed in 1832.

From 1832-37 the committee chartered ships to carry 1,800 passengers from Portsmouth, England, to Upper Canada. The emigrants came mostly from Sussex but also from Surrey and Hampshire, Cambridgeshire and Wiltshire. In total 50 parishes were involved.

Those who made the journey landed at Montreal and from there travelled to Toronto by Durham boats pulled by oxen. If they did not get jobs at Toronto, they proceeded on to Hamilton, Dundas, Guelph, Blandford (Woodstock), Kettle Creek, Adelaide Township and Sarnia.

By 1834, Admiral Vansittart had arrived in Blandford Township, and word reached Lord Egremont that jobs were plentiful and assured in this district. In 1834 surveyor Peter Carroll laid out three- and five-acre plots in the government reservation at Blandford for Petworth emigrants.

The Earl of Egremont

UPPER CANADA.

The COMMITTEE will therefore engage a vessel to sail from PORTSMOUTH, early in April next, under similar arrangements as those of 1832 and 1833.

Applications for Passages should be made as early as possible to

J. PHILLIPS,
LIBRARY, PETWORTH.

Petworth, Feb. 14th. 1834.

Phillips, Printer, Petworth

Some Petworth emigrants to Blandford were from Brighton, England, hence the name of the community. Some of the names of emigrants included: Buton, Coleman, Ditton, Gamblin, Green, Harwood, Kemp, Martin, Perrin, Snelling, Voice and West.

Brighton in Woodstock covered about 100 acres. The community was on the north side of Barwick Street (Ingersoll Ave.) to Con. 2 of Blandford and eastward from the Thames River to Riddell Street. English, Irish and Scottish families moved onto the plots, and built humble homes. The distinctly English gentry, were men of influence and wealth, lived in stately homes. Many were retired officers of the Napoleonic Wars who came to Canada to give their sons a better future.

A search for descendants of the Brighton emigrants is being conducted. If readers have ancestors in this group, the Oxford Genealogical Society would like to know.

Visitors are invited to come and see if they have ancestors among the group who emigrated here at the historical society's meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. at Woodstock's Huron Park Secondary School.

Wendy Cameron of Toronto will speak on the Petworth Emigration Scheme and bring copies of letters sent by the families of Brighton to those left behind in Sussex. Admission is free.

THE VILLAGE OF BRIGHTON

Brighton in Woodstock, in Blandford Township, covered about 100 acres. This community was north of Dundas or Governer's Raod as it was known. To be specific it was on the north side of Barwick Street, (Ingersoll Ave.) to Concession 2 of Blandford and eastward from the Thames River to Riddell Street. In this area was a very pretty valley and stream. It was laid out into ranges of park lots of 3 to 5 acres each. The 3 acre lots were only on Barwick St. These lots were opened for sale in 1834, price payable to the Canada West government in York (Toronto) They were quickly bought by 14 English families (Petworth emigrants) Soon after 5 Scotch and 2 Irish families joined them, In 1836 and 1837 a few other Petworth people arrived. They were grocers, carpenters, shoemakers, weavers, gardeners and labourers. There were 113 people, including 71 children.

The homes of these folk were humble, a cabin or a shanty, but warm and comfortable. There was one door, 2 windows, 6 to 12 panes sometimes there was a window at the back, a chimney and a stone hearth. They all enjoyed their three meals "square" and a "spare" a day. Their food was nourishing without frills. Bread was baked 2 or 3 times a week. Wild game was plentiful, fish could be readily caught in the Thames River, and most had a cow. The weather in its ever revolving seasons sometimes presented problems, especially if illness struck in the winter but the good housewives were well versed in herbal medicine. They all enjoyed simple pleasures.

In comparison the Gentry in Woodstock were distinctly English. Cultured men of influence and wealth. Many were connected with the British Army and Navy. IN the years following the Napoleonic Wars many officers resigned their commissions and emigrated to Canada and especially Woodstock. Their purpose was to give their sons a better future. This area attracted these military men because of natural beauty and because of congenial companionship.

They erected stately homes, most of them large square houses built of white brick. Some had extensions such as gun rooms, coach houses and ballrooms.

The Gentry kept most of the Brighton folk employed. The Gentry were half-pay Officers on pensions from England. They spent their money freely and by doing so furnished employment year round.

A continuing search for descendants of these families will be conducted.

Do you have an ancestor in this group? If so, Please write us.

For instance, we have a little story on -

LANAWAY, James, "English to the Bone", early settler in Brighton, 3 children, Joseph, George and Mrs. Lyons. Died 1890. He was a native of England, night coachman for Earl of Egremont, who sent and settled a number of his servants in Blandford. He had a picturesque log cabin at the head of Light Street, Woodstock.

We have photographs of some of the Brighton settlers and more stories.

We do thank Wendy Cameron, Sheila Haines and Father Edward Jackman for alerting us to this special history of our area.

- Mary Evans.

Ms. Mary Liley sends to us, the following excerpt from the Book Brighton about our Richard Pascoe, "...Richard Pascoe and Mrs. Pascoe were of English stock. Mr. Pascoe was a well built man, straight, about 5 feet 8 inches, and well proportioned and soldier like; sharp featured, light complexioned and clean shaven. Mrs. Pascoe was a person of fine figure, genteel and intelligent. They were good citizens and always took an interest in the welfare of their neighbors. Their family included Matilda, a pretty girl, Richard, George and John Pascoe, a successful business man of the east end of the town...."

She also sends: (1) from the log of the general postmaster, H. C. Barwick, in 1845, the following excerpt, "...Pascoe, Richard Sr. (& Harriett) had a letter waiting from him at the Woodstock Post Office May, 1, 1845...."; (2) Richard Pascoe Sr., married Harriet Grenaway(both Blandford)26 July 1845 (OCM&D, page 133); (3) from the 1852 Gazetteer-Laborer in Woodstock, there is a picture of R. Pascoe and the rest of the Woodstock Hockey Team Champions C. O. H. A., 1899 in the volume "From Forest to City."

She also shared with us that the Pascoe's are buried in the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada and to that she added, "..The First Baptist Church is outstanding in that it is the oldest congregation in Woodstock, having been established in 1822. Through many trials and tribulations, it has remained the leading Baptist Church of the city and was for decades the church home of thousands of the students at Woodstock College..."

In the volume, Oxford County Excerpts 1793-1858 for Marriages and Deaths, she found in the Brock District: (1) "...Richard Pascoe was witness for marriage of James Greenaway and Mary Elseworth in Woodstock on December 10, 1853, page 179...."

She also found in a Woodstock Social Register, that "...Mrs. __. S. Pascoe at 58 Victoria Street, South gave a 'social' on the 3rd Thursday and Mrs. William Pascoe at 527 Mary Street, gave a 'social' on the 1st and 3 Friday...."

A final piece of corroboration from Ms. Liley regarding our Richard Pascoe is the following page from an atlas of Woodstock from 1834-1868....

Compiling together all professional research done on our behalf, we believe the House of Pascoe from Cornwall, Wales, to be as follows:
John Pascoe, Sr.
John Pascoe, Jr., baptized July 16, 1589, married Elizabeth Criggow at Gerrans, Cornwall, on February 6, 1614
Pearce Pascoe born circa 1645 married Ann Bonithon at Kenwyn, Cornwall circa 1681
Pearce Pascoe born circa 1682 at Gerrans, Cornwall, married Elizabeth Osborne
John Pascoe born January 06, 1708, baptized December 27, 1711 at St. Mary's, Truro, Cornwall, married Grace Beard September 2, 1732; Pearce Pascoe baptized September 13, 1747 at St. Mary's Truro, Cornwall; married December 25, 1768 at St. Mary's, Truro, Cornwall, to Honor Alexander.
Michael Pascoe born December 17, 1775 and christened on January 17,1776 at Independent Chapel, Truro, Cornwall, married July 27, 1795 at Kenwyn, Cornwall to Elizabeth Dolby.

Known issue of the marriage of Michael Pascoe and his wife, Elizabeth (nee Dolby) Pascoe were two sons: Richard Pascoe and Edward Pascoe. Descendants of these two children follow:

In the newspaper, The Fremont Democratic Messenger, date June 6, 1878, we find this sketch a Charles James Pascoe also known as C. J. Pascoe.....

A SHORT SKETCH OF SOME OF THE LEADING ONES.

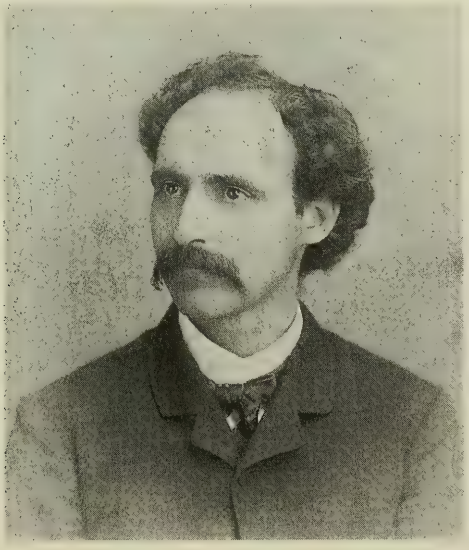
C. J. Pascoe.

Admirers of fine arts will be interested in visiting C. J. Pascoe's Photograph Gallery, over the Bank of Fremont, Front street. This gallery is the oldest establishment of this kind in the city. Mr. Pascoe took possession of it about six years since, and has given universal satisfaction. He keeps up with all the improvements of the times in his art, and is an artist of no mean merit. We visited his rooms and found some fine specimens of work, in all of which we noticed signs of a skilful operator. We saw some cabinet and card pictures which would be hard to excel. This work receives special attention, and the artist invariably gives tone and expression to each production. Each tone is clearly defined, and the easy position and arranging of drapery is noticeable in each picture. All his pictures are retouched, and he is offering card pictures at the low price of $2 per dozen. This price is much less than the work can be had for in other places. He copies and enlarges old or faded pictures, and makes all sizes of pictures in India ink. In groupings he has no superior, and we had the pleasure of seeing some of this work just finished by him, which was executed in the highest style of the art. He also makes gem pictures. Mr. Pascoe has a faculty of pleasing all, and his increasing custom is a guarantee of his ability. We are confident that those who favor him with a call will be satisfied with the work he performs. Fremont has in Mr. Pascoe an artist that she may feel proud of. His rooms are pleasantly located, and he has the finest light of any gallery in town, while he has the best and most improved facilities for doing first-class work. A look through his rooms will convince any one that our assertions are true.

In the Fremont, Ohio City Directory for the years 1879-80 on page 58, we find: "Pascoe, Charles J., photographer, n e cor Front and Croghan, res 98 Bidwell Avenue...."

The 1880 Census for Sandusky County, Fremont, Ohio, lists on the west side of Bidwell Ave., Charles J. Pascoe, White Male, 28 years of age, photographer, born in Ontario, parents born in England; Mary J. Pascoe, Wife, White Female, 29 years of age, keeping house, born in Michigan, parents born in Ireland; Margaret P. Pascoe, White Female, Daughter, 7 years, Allenberg School, born Ohio, parents of Ontario and Michigan; Gilbert V. Pascoe, Son 5 years and George Pascoe, Son 4 years.

Known occupation of Charles James Pascoe was that of a photographer having a studio at one time in Fremont, Sandusky and Toledo, Ohio. He was in Toledo, according to his obit as a photographer for the last thirteen years [which would be appx. 1920-1933]. We know he was in Fremont, Ohio approximately 1870's and his last entry in City Directory for Fremont, Ohio was 1878. So this author will make an assumption, that his studio in Sandusky was approximately between 1878-1920.



(Photograph of Charles James Pascoe)

Charles James Pascoe was a noted photographer in Sandusky, Ohio and the inside of his studio, known to family and friends as the "Cottage Gallery" was located in the Kingsbury Block on Columbus Avenue, as it appeared in this photograph.

(Photograph of Charles James Pascoe, later in life)

He enjoyed playing chess and this photograph shows our ancestor, Charles James Pascoe, (with the hat on) and John Marquart, father of Natalie and Doris Marquart.

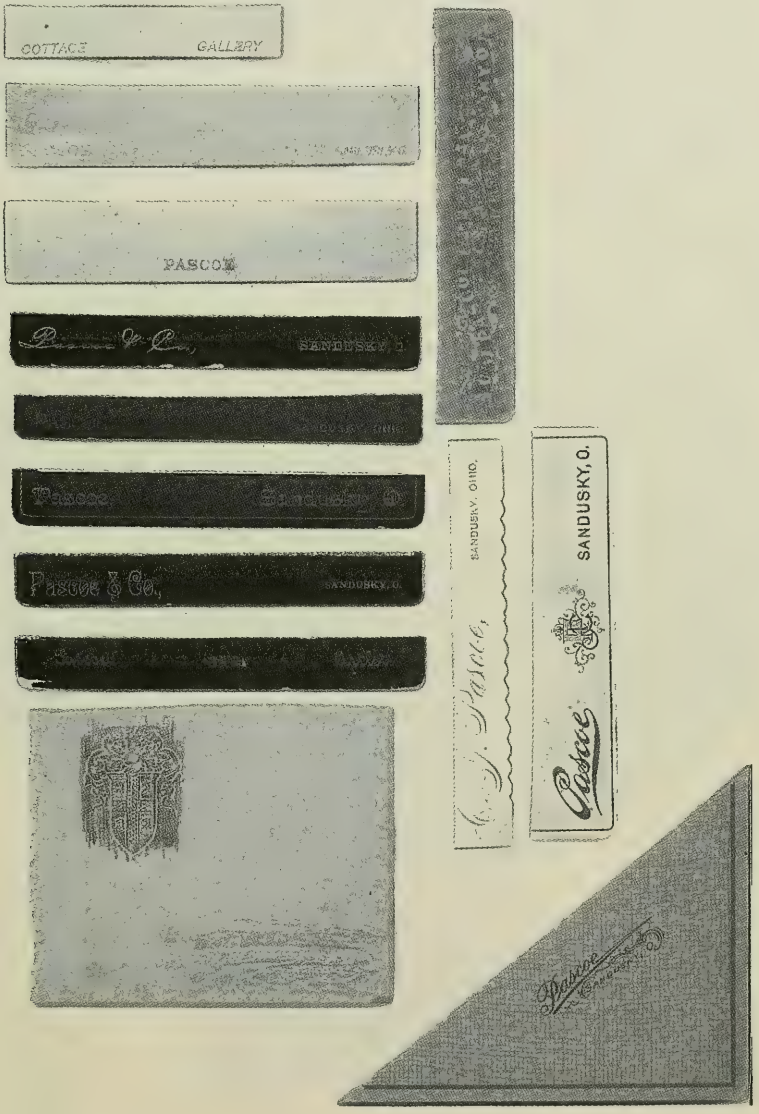
The back of his portraits usually depicted a "water scene" as shown by the following three examples from the Pascoe Family Collection.

With the first, notice in the top right hand corner, his three initials, CJP; sailing scene at the bottom, the urn with the palm, his name and address.

With the second, notice again his name, different address, again a water scene with a sailboat (possibly in Sandusky Bay, Sandusky, Ohio), the rose and thorns, woman of justice and an unknown symbol in the upper left hand corner.

With the third, notice again his name, address, and again a water scene within the "circle" as if on an easel of canvas...

The "fronts" to his photographs were also numerous and varied with an artistic style all their own. From the Pascoe Family Collection we have many samples of his creativity, but do not know which was depicted the beginning of his career here in Sandusky and which was toward the end of that career. Of particular interest to this author, is the coat of arms with the Pascoe signature, Kingsbury Block, Sandusky, Ohio.....



Charles James Pascoe born in Woodstock, Ontario, Canada married in Detroit , Wayne County, Michigan to Mary Jane Gilbert. Children of their marriage were born in Fremont, Ohio.

This photograph of Charles James Pascoe and his wife, Mary Jane Gilbert Pascoe appears to have been taken in the middle years of their life. The original is from the Pascoe Family collection.

Charles James Pascoe is seated on the left in this photograph and unknown is the gentleman next to him. Pat Kosky, believes it was taken circa 1929-30 in Palm Beach, Florida where the Pascoe's used to "winter".

Margaret Pearl Pascoe married Elmer William Johnson in 1899. Known is the fact that Elmer William Johnson was an orphan raised by aunts and uncles. Marie Maunus Pascoe wrote that he [Elmer W. Johnson] was born September 12, 1866 in Busci, New York. The direct descendant of "Pearl" (Pat Kosky) always was told that Elmer was born in Jamestown, New York and that he had a sister who lived around Lake Chataugua, New York. Pat remembers going to visit there taking Grandma and Grandpa Johnson with them!

Their issue were daughters: (1) Florence Alta Johnson and (2) Marion Elsie Johnson.

(Photograph of Marion Elsie Johnson as a baby)

Florence Alta Johnson was born September 11, 1900 in Sandusky, Erie County, Ohio. She married twice: first to Albert Oeschler (born December 20, 1898 and died June 11, 1941) on August 14, 1922; and second to John Joseph Suchocki (born October 5, 1897-died June 16, 1991) on April 15, 1963. Florence died on September 2, 1974.

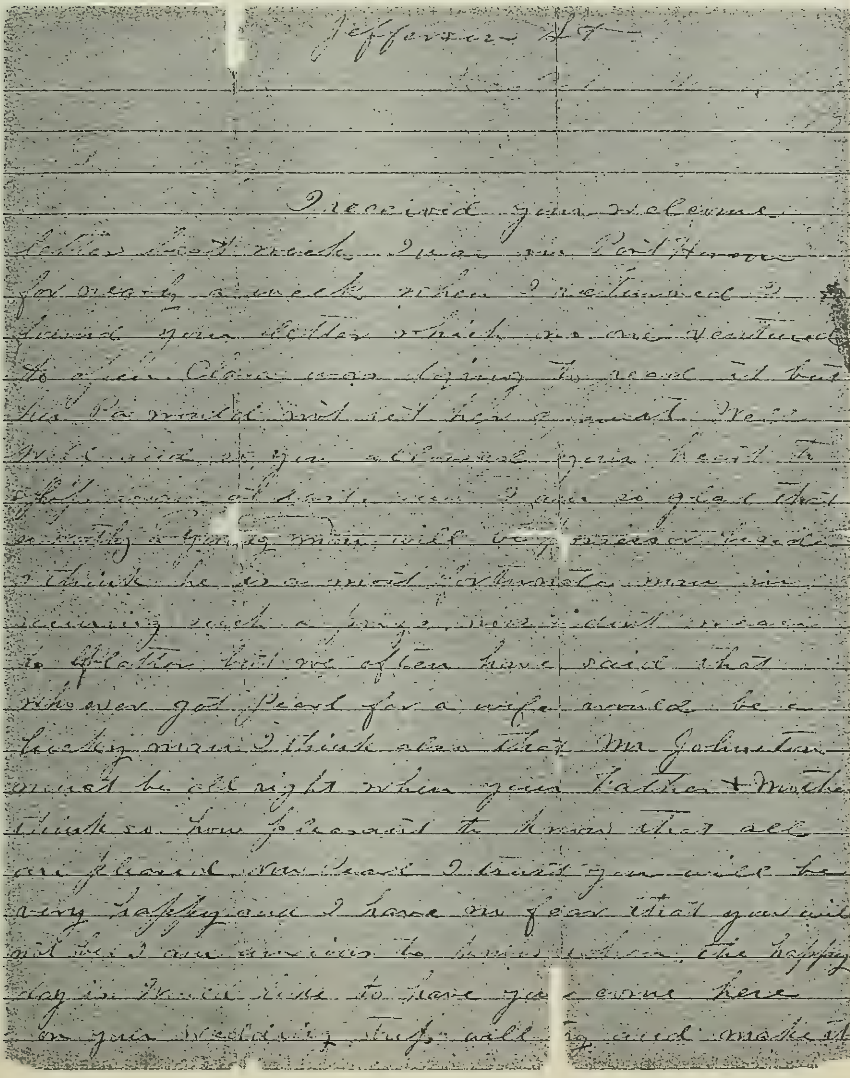
Again, among the possessions of Pat Kosky is a letter postmarked, March 29, 1897 8 am at Bay City, Michigan from Aunt Maggie Gilbert to her niece, Pearl Pascoe at the corner of Madison and Perry Street, in Sandusky, Ohio before her marriage to Elmer Johnson...



Jefferson St

I received your welcome letter last week. I was in Port Huron for nearly a week. When I returned I found your letter which no one ventured to open. Clara was dying to read it but her Pa would not let her read it. Well well so you allowed your heart to [illegible] at last, well I am so glad that so worthy a young man will be your [illegible] I think he is a most fortunate man in securing such a prize. I don't mean to flatter but we often have said that whoever got Pearl for a wife would be a lucky man. I think also that Mr Johnson must be all right when your Father + Mother think so. How pleasant to know that all are pleased. Now Pearl I trust you will be very happy and I have no fear that you will not be. I am anxious to know when the happy day is. I would like to have you come here on your wedding trip. will try and make it

Although much is missing from the "center" of the letter, the love of the aunt for her niece is very much evident.....

Clara Bippus Pascoe, wife of George Pascoe, with her nieces: Florence (bow in her hair) and Marian Johnson; and baby nephew on her lap is Milton Charles Pascoe.

Over the years there has been much correspondence between this author and Pat Kosky. Graciously she has shared with me, photographs, remembrances, letters and prized possessions of the PASCOE family she knew. For assisting in this 'labor of love' I owe much to her, te amo, Pat! The following "tid bits of information" were shared with me on phone, by mail and in person on various visits and occasions when we got together...

"..when Grandpa Elmer Johnson was a young man, he worked on a freighter sailing the Great Lakes as a cook..he and Captain Goodsite were good friends...I suppose that is the reason he did most of the cooking at home..one of his poplar dishes was chicken and dumplings...The Johnson's, Elmer and Pearl had a large home on Collingwood (for a short time) and they rented out apartments...one time there was a box of jewelry and rings stolen and grandma always said, she believed, one of the roomers did it....when you spoke of Aunt Alta Pascoe Leser, no one called her that she was always known as "Altie" and Pearl was always called "Pearlie"...I do remember as a little girl, all the women getting together and quilting in the attic at Pearlie's home...I remember grandmother saying that President Hayes in Fremont, had given them a ride home in a buggy, one time, and I always thought that was really interesting....Pearlie was a good natured person, she had a kind of Irish wit about her, nothing bothered her at all, she kept up with things even when she got old, always wanted to know what was going on in the world, reading newspapers and all, never saw her mad .. liked to put her feet up on the davenport, she didn't work too hard in her life, she had an easy life, grandfather did the work, Elmer did much of the housework, he paid the bills, and did a lot of cooking...Elmer was the one always rushing around and doing things...grandma was an excellent painter..remember specifically a painting she did of a bouquet of pansies, a still life, perhaps this is where my artistic talent comes from... later in life she did needlepoint and knitting almost all the time....Marion was an avid gardener and everyone always joked about mother's talking..she was never at a loss for words ..she could come up with a conversation anytime..always very active, busy person interested in her house and making it more attractive and making everything nice for her family..she met my father I believe in Sunday School at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Toledo...She was the tag along, tagging behind her big sister all the time and that's how she met dad...Marian's sister, Florence, was a lot of fun and she liked children..she didn't have any of her own and that's too bad because she would have made a good mother, but she really spoiled me, always getting nice things for me...we had lots of fun on the boat, Uncle Bert had a boat and we had great times on the water..now, Pearlie Pascoe Johnson had a brother, George who married Clara Bippus and they were wonderful people too...what always interested me is that they were very close and devoted to each other, openingly, very happy..they didn't have a car and any traveling they did either someone would take them or they didn't go...as a young family they went to Florida and how they ever managed that, I don't know..I believe they used to go to Palm Beach and they camped on the way down..how long it took them, I don't know because at that time the roads were not that good, can you imagine?..cars averaging maybe twenty five miles per hour, flat tires all the time..what a way to travel...Clara's maiden name was Bippus and they were a very nice family who lived on the east side of Toledo, Ohio..I remember that they were a people of means..they had money..remember that she rode horseback when a young girl..that always seemed strange to think of Clara riding a horse but she enjoyed it ....Pearlie and George had a brother, Vergn, Gilbert Vergn who was a good natured fellow..laughed a lot, smiled a lot and he was a collector of antiques..I remember going there and looking at all the beautiful pieces of furniture and pretty colored glass..don't remember too much about Julia, his wife, she seemed a nice person but we weren't with them that much.....now, Pearlie and George and Vergn had a sister, Alta... "Altie" was a nice person, we were always welcome to go to Long Beach and visit which is near Oak Harbor and the Davis Besse Nuclear Power Plant now..there were a lot of family gatherings there..Aunt Clara and Uncle George had a cottage there and we had so much fun in the summertime...George and Clara didn't have any children, Carl and Altie didn't have any children, but they did have a wonderful pet cat called "Mr. Rooster" who would leap up on Uncle Carl's shoulder [trick that Carl taught him to do] ...so the only grandchildren came from Pearl and Elmer, which was me and Julia and Vergn which was Milton and John....just remember something else, Great Grandpa Pascoe, Charles James Pascoe, was quite a photographer..and he was friends and knew well, George Eastman from Eastman Kodak and Company...just remembered something else, Uncle George Pascoe and Uncle Carl Leser were into real estate...when Uncle Carl and Aunt Altie visited Palm Beach many years ago, he wanted to buy land there as an investment and she wouldn't hear of it, she didn't want to move so far from "home" and her family..can you imagine what could have been had he gotten his way?...Grandma Pearlie liked to ice skate and she was quite good at it and I understand that Aunt Altie was quite the runner, with her long legs and how they talked about her running like the wind....."

This author's curiosity was peeked about Long Beach so she sent J. Thomas Pascoe on a sojourn one day to the Ottawa County Courthouse and he found that the Pascoe's and the Bippus's were all large land owners there [at Long Beach] at one time and sold and swapped land between and among each other. The recorders' office is full of grantee and grantor transfers throughout the years. A person by the name of Gabe Cooper was President of the Long Beach Association at one time as was, George Pascoe and Alfred Bippus with most deeds being signed in the presence of C.S. Leser and Orion Nelson. So the association was being kept in the family pretty much. George and Clara were listed as major land owners as was Charles and Alta Leser beginning in the 1920's and the last transfer was in 1959. Today, the homes are very expensive, but oh the view of the lake and the beautiful sunrises and sunsets..very different to summer cottages of long ago. Abstracting from the deeds, we found, "... Each land owner, in their deed had stipulated, "..that the lands were part of a residence and a means to access Lake Erie and for no other purposes..the properties are to be used for a single residence, no intoxicating liquors are to be manufactured or sold on the premises..only one house to be built on one lot...plans for building had to be approved by the Long Beach Association..no garages could be erected could to serve as a residence, except for servants quarters..properties shall not be owned or occupied by other than persons of the Caucasian race..no sand or gravel shall be removed from the beach..no farm animals or poultry of any kind shall be kept or raised on lots...." These restrictions certainly would not apply in this day and age!

Gilbert Vergn Pascoe was the second child of Charles James Pascoe and his wife, Mary Jane Gilbert Pascoe. Born January 05, 1875, we believe in Fremont, Ohio although we were unsuccessful in finding a civil record for the event. His career path took him many directions and afforded him many opportunities in helping his family and his community. He began selling fuel oil from the back of a horse drawn wagon, he was in the grocery business and then started his own business, THE PASCOE INSURANCE AGENCY.

(Photograph of Gilbert "Vergn" Pascoe and his wife to be, Julia Scheid)

Since the beginning of time, people meet and fall in love; and, with each generation there are always the "love letters" sent to one another. Those which follow are love letters written by Gilbert Vergn Pascoe to his beloved, Julia Scheid .....

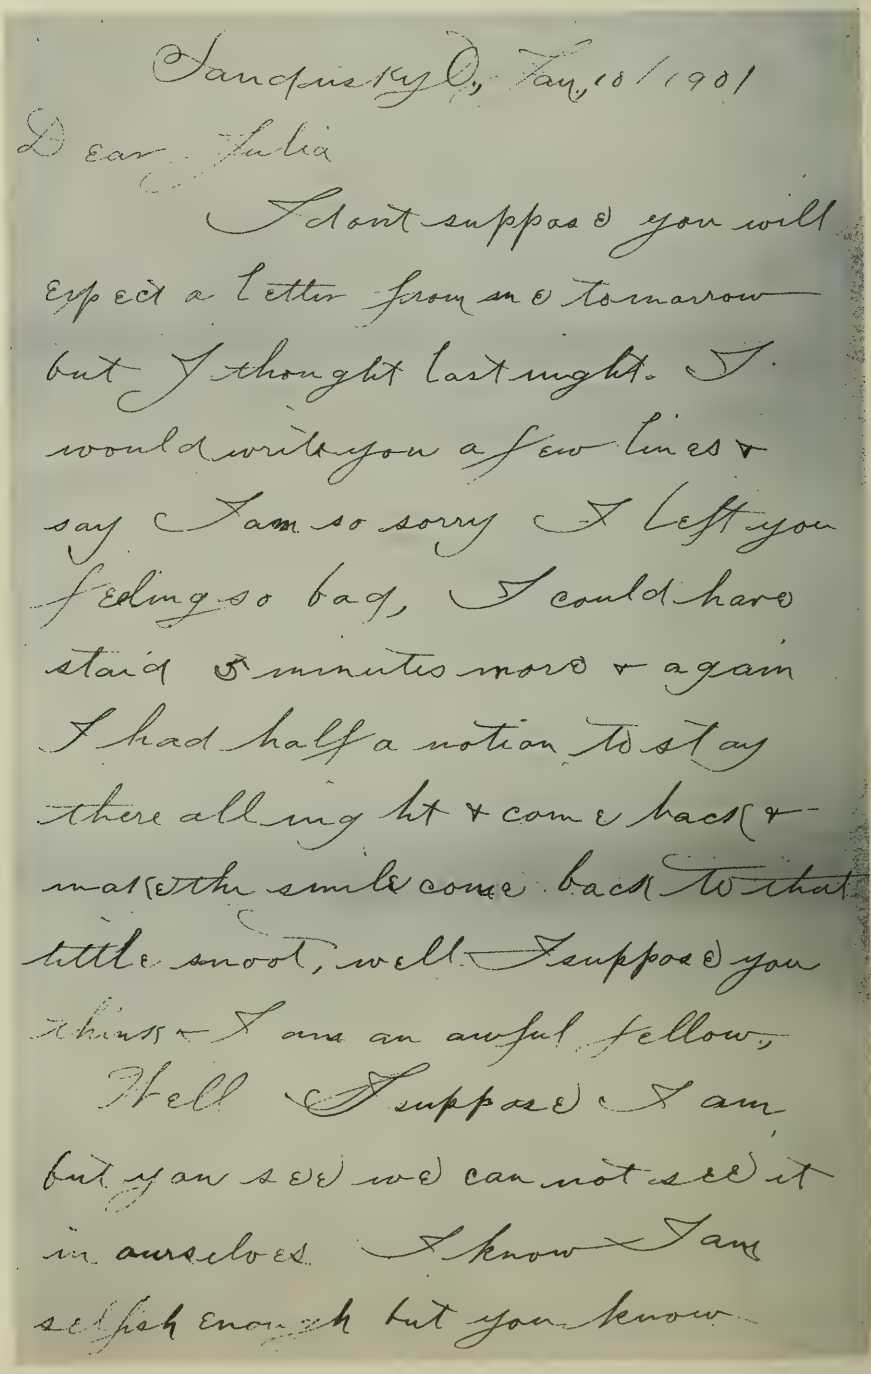
A love letter dated January 10, 1901 consisting of four pages



Sandusky O., Jan. 10/1901

Dear Julia

I dont suppose you will expect a letter from me tomorrow but I thought last night I would write you a few lines & say I am so sorry I left you feeling so bad, I could have staid 5 minutes more & again I had half a notion to stay there all night & come back & make the smile come back to that little snoot, well I suppose you think I am an awful fellow,

Well I suppose I am, but you see we can not see it in ourselves I know I am selfish enough but you know we all have our faults if one another don't know them.

I was almost crying last night myself but, well I didn't.

I was wishing tonight that I had'nt gone over ~~then~~ last tonight so I could have seen you tonight but as you say, I cant always have my way, well I dont want it only once in a while & the rest of the time you can have yours how is that. I think that would suit you.

I got your note & of course I have to send it & accept the opportunity of writing. I feel like it tonight more so than I generally do.

And - I dont want to scare you to death with 3 sheets but I cant help it.

I wish I knew whether you were going to be in Mo. to-morrow night Friday or not because I would like to see you it would be but 2 days but if you were living in Sandusky I would have seen you tonight.

What do you think I went to church to night was'nt I good I dont suppose I could find a better place, but I could have found a more enjoyable one.

I dont know of anything else only - I do hope your folks wont send for you until I can spare you & I hope that will be never" I mean "spare you"

Forgive me if I brought the blues back on you & made you feel bad for I couldn't help it but ~~it~~ my selfishness will not prompt itself to venture ~~forth~~ beyond its limit again & all hoping this will find you happy & thinking of the future I remain yours
Most Effectionate
Friend & Lover

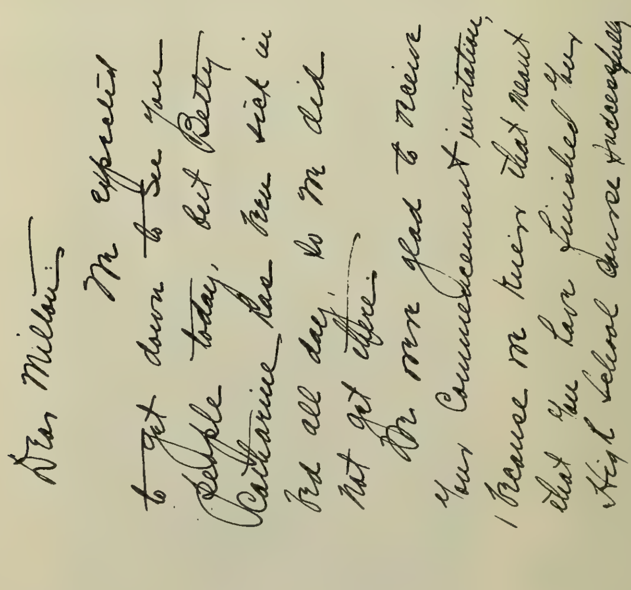
"How the women all pursue me!"

A letter written to "Milton Pascoe" on his graduation from high school from his Aunt Alta "Altie" Pascoe Leser speaking of life and respect for one's mother.....



Dear Milton:

We expected to get down to see you Sandusky today, but Betty Catharine has been sick in bed all day, so we did not get there.

We were glad to receive your Commencement invitation, because we knew that meant that you have finished your High School course successfully

Accept the enclosed with congratulations and most kindly wishes for a successful future!

I thought & thought and wondered what you would like. Decided that I'd send you the money with which you may buy some little thing you have wanted very much, or better still if you are planning on going to college - you will find use for it then.

I surely hope you are planning on going to college - also to make the most of your opportunity while there in [illegible] Milton, for Education is something no one can ever take from you — something you need never be ashamed, but very proud of. To get this education will mean a great deal of hard work on your part you will find, but once equipped with it and a good clean character, you will be fitted to associate with men, enjoy the best people of any community in which you may happen to be.

I heard someone say something very nice about you the other day & I'm going to tell you. "Milton is a nice young man; I like him especially because he is so nice to his mother!" The finest thing could be said of any young man, and the older you get the more you will appreciate it, I hope. Mothers make mistakes like all the rest — but in all the wide world no young man or woman can find a truer or better friend than a good Christian Mother. So long as she lives I hope you will take her advice, and that people will continue to say of you "I like him because you are nice to your mother."

Affectionately, Your Aunt Alda

Milton Charles Pascoe returned to Sandusky, Ohio and joined his father with the family business, the PASCOE INSURANCE AGENCY. While at Dennison, he fell in love and fortunately for him that woman had accepted a teaching position with the Sandusky City Schools. He chose as his wife, Marie Sophia Maunus, of Finnish descent, on June 30, 1934. They were married in Shaker Heights, Ohio with Rev. Theodore Stellhorn of Zion Lutheran Church, Sandusky, Ohio, officiating. Fortunately, or unfortunately, the certificate of marriage, lists his name as Charles Milton Pascoe, yet his birth record indicates Milton Charles Pascoe....

Maunus-Pascoe Wedding Took Place Saturday Afternoon At Shaker Heights at Four O'clock

Rev. T. J. C. Stellhorn, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church officiated at a most charming wedding Saturday afternoon in Cleveland when Miss Marie Maunus and Milton Pascoe of this city were united in marriage.

The ceremony took place at four o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. W. Lovell at 2945 Eaton-rd, Shaker Heights before an improvised altar of palms and rambler roses. Just the immediate friends and relatives of the young couple were present.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gorgeous frock of heavy white crepe, a princess model, fashioned with a cowl neck line. The long sleeves, which were full to the elbow and very tight at the wrist were trimmed with heirloom lace, which fell over the hands in points. Her other accessories were of white and she carried an arrangement of Gardenias.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Pascoe left upon an eastern motor trip. Upon their return they will reside on Wayne-st, this city.

The bride, who is the daughter of J. C. Maunus of Ashtabula is a graduate of Denison university and for the past several years has taught in the commercial department of the Sandusky High school.

Mr. Pascoe, who is also a graduate of Denison university is a graduate of Sandusky High and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Pascoe of E. Washington-st. He is associated with his father in the insurance business.

Among the Sandusky guests who were present were Mr. and Mrs. Pascoe, John Pascoe, Miss Ruby Barrett and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dorn and daughter.

Marie Maunus, of Ashtabula, was the daughter of Jacob Maunus and Sanna E. Minni. A graduate Ashtabula Harbour High School, Ashtabula, Ohio and Dennison University, Granville, Ohio, where she was a member of the May Day Court, she was a teacher in the commercial department of Sandusky High School. A favorite poem found among her personal possessions from "the Hawaii Educational Review" reads:

The Teacher

To a child thrust into a strange world a good teacher is the best thing that can possibly happen. A teacher is Courage with Kleenex, in a pocket, sympathy struggling with snowsuits and Patience with papers to grade.

Teachers spend twelve hours a day searching for truth and the other twelve hours searching for errors.

They are incorruptible, indispensable, infallible, invincible and nearly inexhaustible.

A teacher really does not mind sniffles, squirmings, stomach aches, spills, sloth and sauciness. Neither does she disintegrate before tears, trifles, fights, futility, excuses, parents who spout, little boys who shout and little girls who pout.

Most of all a teacher is somebody who loves somebody else's children.

Marie was active in community and civic affairs including President of College Women's Club, member of the Board of Directors of the Sandusky Library Association.

An avocation were her radio talk shows on WLEC, Sandusky, Ohio, where she was known as "Nancy Lake." She interviewed college presidents, local civic leaders, governors, state representative, Ethel G. Swanbeck, and the treasurer of the United States of America: Georgia Neese Clark. The radio station and the "Nancy Lake Program" won national recognition. Her original typed script, her hand written notes, "music" that was to be incorporated for the listeners in the WLEC audience combined with the perfect timing to make it another "take" for the radio show.

What is the origin of New Year's Observance and Celebration?

We have as our guest this a.m. ~~[struck out] Public Relation for Cedar Point~~ Bill Evans, Director of Public Relation for Cedar Point (1)

Q. What is origin of New Year's observanse or celebration?

A. Nancy, the date we celebrate as New Year's, like the date of Christmas, is an inheritance from the Romans.

Most ancient nations celebrated the new year with the coming of spring. And the early Romans, too, welcomed the new year early in March, close to the spring equinox.

But Julius Caesar changed the Roman New Year's Day from March to January, in honor of Janus.......

Q. Pardon me, Bill, but who was Janus?

A. Janus, Nancy, was the Roman god of all beginnings, the god of agriculture, and the keeper of the gates of heaven and earth. The first month of the year was named after Janus. And Julius Caeser decreed that the first day of the month be dedicated to the Festival of Janus, and mark the beginning of the new year.

Janus was represented among the Roman gods as having two faces. He was called Janus Bifors, meaning, "Janus with the two faces." Almost every school child will recall, I am sure, Nancy, the pictures of the old Roman coins and the one of Janus with the two heads with curly hair, the staring eyes and the curly beards. One face always looked back to the old year, and the other always looked forward to the new. In his right hand Janus held a key, ~~which~~ with which he closed the old year and opened the new.

There was great rejoicing before the gates of the Temple of Janus on New Year's Day when the people gathered to do homage to the god of all beginnings. Gifts were exchanged among friends. Resolutions to be friendly and good to each other were made...just as we will do in the next day...Nancy. And the entire day was given to festivities.

When the Romans under Constantine accepted Christianity as their new faith, they retained the Festival of Janus as their New Year's Day, but they turned the feast into a fast and a day of prayer. It was decreed that the day should be spent in solemn meditation, in repentance, and in the making of good resolutions. It was a day for every Christian to turn over a new leaf. Incidentally, Nancy, many Chinese pay off their debts to one another on New Year's Day.

Not all Christians observed the Roman celebration. As late as the 17th century the Puritans of New England refused to observe New Year's Day because, said they, it reminded them too much of the wicked heathen god Janus. Some even went so far as never to mention January among the months of the year. They just called it First Month and nothing more--so hateful was the heathen god Janus to them!

He read faster when he turned it

I can leave out the record.

Q. That's extremely interesting, Bill. I'd like to know, and I'm sure our radio audience would too, when our present day form of New Year's celebration began to take form. Would you know that?

A. Yes, Nancy. About 3 or 4 hundred years ago New Year's Day began to change slowly from a fast into a feast. In different countries throughout the Christian world there arose beliefs, superstitions and customs about New Year's Day. In England it became the custom to ring church bells to welcome the new year. First...the old year was rung out with muffled bells and sorrowfully; then the new year was rung in loudly and joyfully. In England, too, began the custom of opening the doors at midnight on New Year's Eve to permit the spirit of the old year to depart and to let the spirit of the new year come in out of the cold.

In many countries the custom arose of giving or exchanging gifts on New Year's Day. This custom persists in France and other European countries. In England the king or queen had the right to make it known that he or she would welcome gifts on this day. Many subjects took it as a command.

Queen Elizabeth of England...that is, Queen Elizabeth the First...according to record often found her royal warehouse bulging with gifts of every kind after the first of January.

The Dutch who came to settle in New York introduced the custom of making calls on New Year's Day. Usually the unmarried men called on the unmarried women. It was a good day for young men with thoughts of marriage to meet many eligible girls.

Slowly the first day of the new year became a holiday of great rejoicing... and more particularly New Year's Eve. You know the modern observance, Nancy. There'll be parties tomorrow night and people coming and going and wishing Happy New Year to all and sundry. There'll be singing and dancing and then will come a moment when all will watch the creeping minute hand of the clock. There will be embraces, hand shaking and kissing. For a moment spirits will rise to the highest human level.

Radio will take us over the country, letting us hear how the great moment is being celebrated. Cynosure of all ears will be little old New York and Times Square...the focal point of hilarity and celebration...the mecca for mm thousands of merrymakers. It's a wonderful, wonderful place to be when the hour strikes 12 midnight)

Nancy: Have you ever been there, Bill?

Bill : Yes, Nancy, Mrs. Evans and I were there several times and once we were in a taxi and caught in the tremendous throng...right in the heart and thick of it all.

Nancy: That must have been un unforgettable experience, Bill.

Bill: It was, Nancy. And it sounds something like this:

Tape-Times Square

Bill: In a small way, the Sandusky community will celebrate with the nation, Nancy, with church bells, factory whistles, firing of guns and beating of pots and pans and with other noise makers...all a cacophany of happiness. We'll probably hear a whistle from a New York Central train and hear a few blasts from one of George Johnson's tugs in xxxxxx Sandusky Bay. The disconcert of noise will echo to the top of Perry's Monument and over the graves of the Confederate dead on Johnson's Island...out over the last bivouack of the heroes that sleep the last sleep at Soldiers and Sailors cemetery. If they know what we do, they will rejoice that we are, this New Year's Eve, at peace in Korea.

But, Nancy, to herald the birth of the New Year we have, in this Sandusky community, one noise maker that no other spot in the country possesses, I believe. Times Square, with all its noisemakers doesn't have it. Only Sandusky has it xxxxx and it is with us almost every day of the year. Its strident intonations start the work day for many and awaken others...in homes and hotels. It calls us to lunch and sends us back to work following the lunch hour. And, then, at 5 p.m., when hundreds are hurrying with mail to the post office, when store clerks are getting ready to close for the day, when other workers are either already home or on their way, when housewives are getting ready for dinner, when the starlings are chorusing in the trees in the park, then comes the final whistle of the day that can be heard as far as the wind will carry it.

Nancy: Goodness, Bill, what is it?

Bill: It's the Hinde and Dauch up and down the scale whistle, Nancy, a whistle that is as Sandusky as Sandusky itself. Since 1918 it has been, so to speak, regulating the life of Sanduskians. In fact, according to our good friend Charlie Held, plant manager at the Hinde and Dauch plant on Water street, the whistle joyously if raucously heralded the Armistice of World War 1 on November 11, 1918. Before that, the whistle sherpherded the lives of Sanduskians in the old Hinde and Dauch plant across the street. Charlie thinks the whistle might have been serving the Hinde and Dauch employees and the entire community since before the turn of the century.

Charlie Held says he understands that the founders of the internationally known firm wanted a whistle that was different. Well, everyone agrees that they got what they wanted. The first time a visitor hears the whistle, he is, to say the least, startled. It's a steam whistle, you know, Nancy, and the notes of the xxxxx scale, up and down, are made by pulling one cord that opens the air or steam vent gradually and another one that closes the vent. The more steam, the higher the pitch or note.

Yes, Nancy, no New Year's Eve celebration and noise-making xxx would ever be complete without the famous (at least to us) Hinde and Dauch whistle. Despite all other noises, its shrill up the scale and down the scale will mean that 1953 is gone forever and that 1954 has arrived.

Of course no New Years Celebration would be complete without Auld Lang Syne. Hal, would you sing it for us?

Incidentally, one of the very first sounds one hears on the very first day of the new year, is the sound of the milk man as he delivers Esmond Dairy products to the doors around town. It's a reasuring sound, a good and wholesome sound. These days, the horse-drawn milk wagon has given away to the more efficiant and faster Esmond Dairy especially designed truck. But, in the old days, one would hear this sound, the sound of the faithful old horse, as the milkman made his rounds in fading starlight:

.... Sound of horse clop...

Tennyson, "In Memoriam

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light:
The year is dying in the night,
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
Ring, happy bells, across the snow:
The year is going, let him go;
Ring out the false, ring in the true.

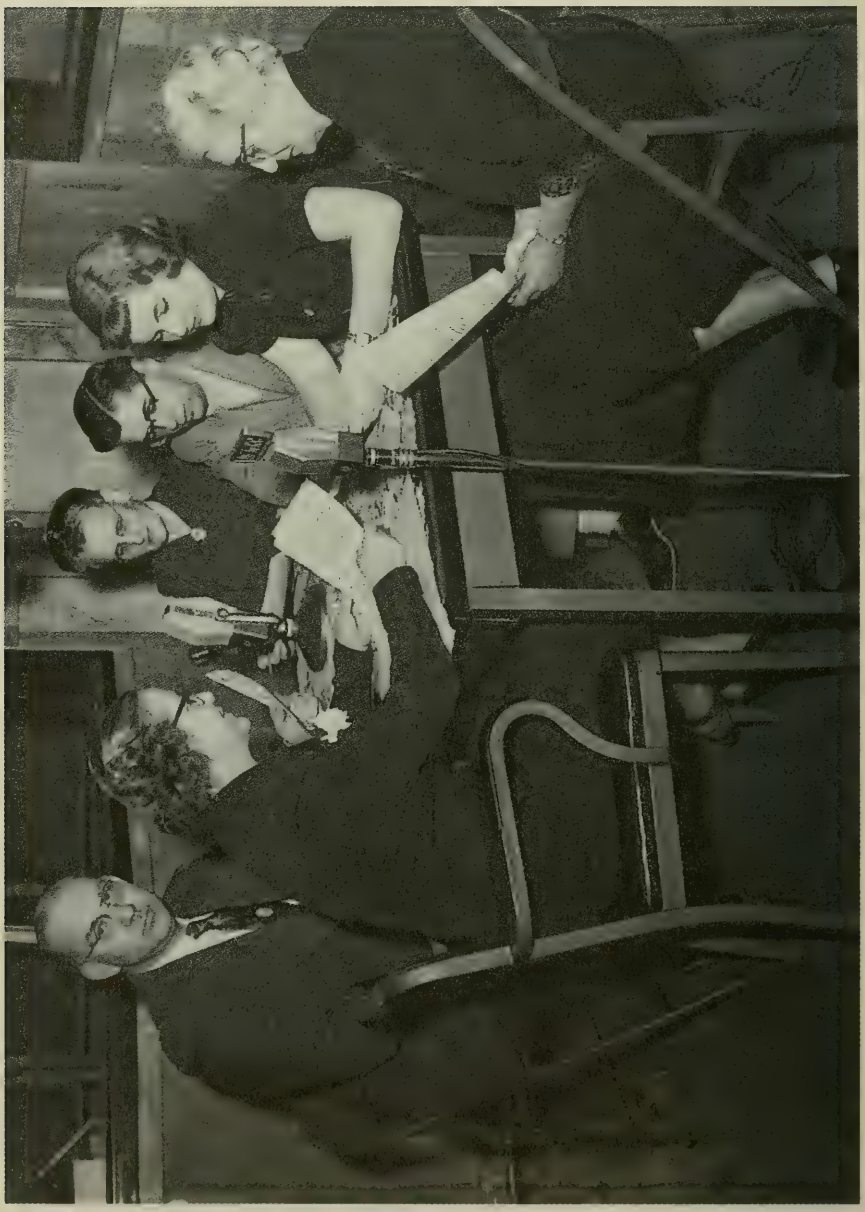
The last photograph among her possessions was dated Tuesday, March 3, 1953 of which we know not the significance.



Marie was so proud of her Finnish ancestry and enjoyed speaking of her native land and sharing that culture with her community.... .

Junior Leaguers Hear Talk On Finland By Mrs. Pascoe

"A NEW day can change everything." This quotation characterizing the stalwart philosophy of the Finnish people was used by Mrs. Milton Pascoe when she spoke before members of Grace Church Junior League at the regular monthly social meeting of the group in the church guild room last night.

Colorful incidents from her childhood in the Finnish colony of Ashtabula Harbor were related by Mrs. Pascoe in her informal talk. She displayed many beautiful examples of Finnish handcraft and artware to illustrate her narrative.

At the social hour which followed the meeting, Mrs. H. A. Frutig and her committee served refreshments from a table decorated with miniature Finnish flags surrounding a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and Japanese iris. Blue candles in milk glass candlesticks repeated the color scheme of the flags.

Assisting Mrs. Frutig on the hostess committee were Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. M. F. Yenney, Mrs. William Till and Mrs. Wilbert Schwer.

Mrs. George Johnson presided at the business meeting and introduced Mrs. James Carter as a new member.

Present at the affair were Mrs. Ray Schaefer, Mrs. Don Thomas, Mrs. Daniel Triplett, Mrs. Walter Bailey, Mrs. Carl Neiding, Mrs. Ray Mischler, Mrs. Portia F. Clark, Mrs. Wells Samson, Mrs. Malcolm Boylan, Mrs. Helen Andres, Mrs. Leroy Hotchkiss, Mrs. Karl Rinderle, Mrs. Herman Goebel, Mary Louise Thierry, Marie Sprau, Mrs. Irvin Schweinfurth, Mrs. Edward Scheid, Mrs. William Asher, Mrs. Mary Scott, Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips and Mrs. Carter.

Water is definitely part of a "Finns"life and water certainly was a part of the PASCOE Family! So the marriage of Milt and Marie was not only one of love, but one of sailing as well. Charles James Pascoe, named all his boats, PEARL, after his beloved first daughter, Margaret Pearl Pascoe. CJ Pascoe taught well his family the love of the water and respect for it as well.

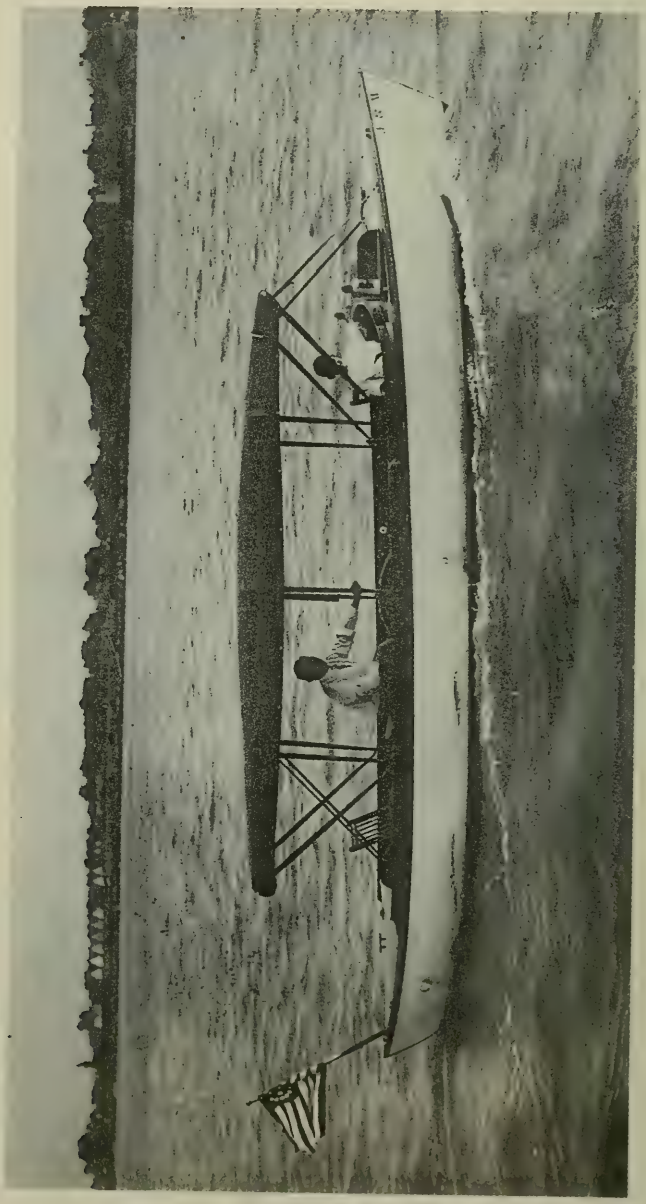
"Vergn" Pascoe, son of Charles James Pascoe, loved the water as well, having been taught that love from the time he was a little boy. He is behind the wheel of his motorboat, Pearl, with his oldest son, Milton at the bow. The vessel was wrecked in the tornado that hit Sandusky, Ohio in 1924.....



Gilbert Vergn Pascoe, known to his community as "Vergn" Pascoe passed to generations he would never know, his love of the water, especially his beloved, Lake Erie . Milt and Marie Pascoe for a lifetime were members of the Sandusky Sailing Club. They owned a Lyman Cat #4, an Interlake #90 named "SISU" which in Finnish means fortitude, guts. In 1961, Milt and Marie bought a 25foot wooden Lyman, which the Pascoe Family has donated to the Sandusky Bay Maritime Museum. Also passed was the family business, Pascoe Agency Inc., to his two sons, Milton and John.

Over the years Pascoe Agency was located in the Sloane Block, which was West Washington Row; then 301 Washington Building on East Washington Row; then moved to 167 E Washington Row; and then in 1973, Charles and Tom, (along with Patty signing the purchase agreement) bought the historic home from Mr. Mrs. Clarence Noftz at 610 West Washington Street and relocated their offices, where there are still located today! This home is on the National Register of Historic Places by the United States Government.

The Pascoe Family has maintained the preservation of the home with the beautiful oak wood work, the leaded glass windows, leaded glass book cases, hand painted bathroom tiles. Although the ivy is no longer on the brick walls, the character and charm of this beautiful home built in 1904 remains among the finest examples of architecture in Sandusky, Ohio. One can only guess of the activities during the seasons and what secrets the walls kept when this was a private residence. Many homes nearby have been sold to private individuals and converted into various offices and a funeral home.

Vergn Pascoe, Milton and John Pascoe, knew of the "legacy"they would pass to the next generation, in Charles and Tom with the family business. The business grew and so did the respect for the name in the community. Clients would always receive the personal service and care begun by the ancestor who began selling insurance and fuel oil out of the back of a horse drawn wagon!

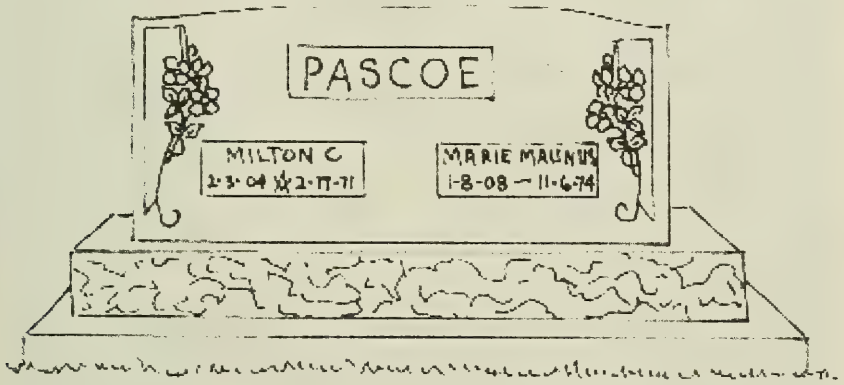
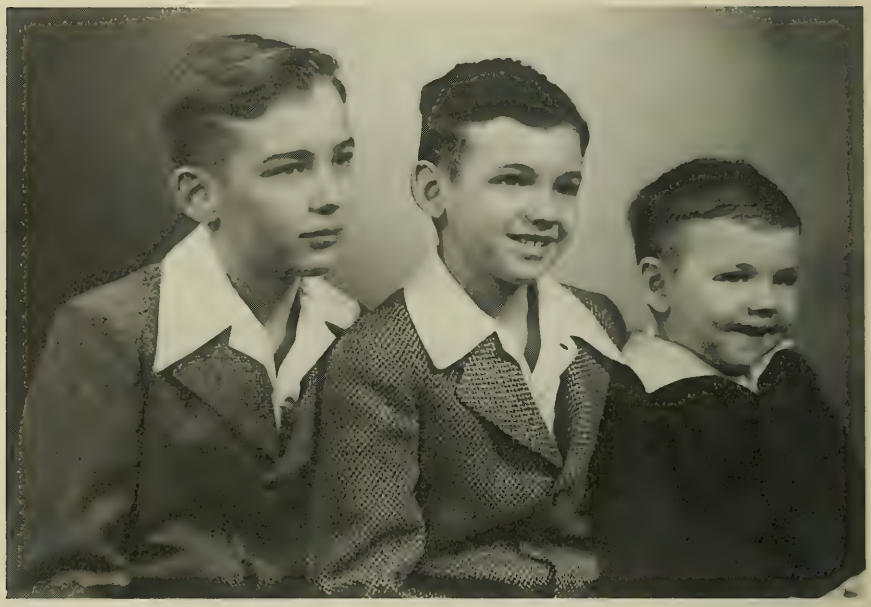
Milton C. "Milt" & Marie (nee Maunus) Pascoe are buried at the Milan Cemetery, Milan, Ohio.



A part of this author's life for such a short period of time (Tom and I were married December 23, 1972) and she died November 6, 1974, Sandusky, Ohio. My life is so much richer because of her and the brief amount of time we had to spend together! We had so much quality time to spend together and she welcomed me into the family as if she had known me all my life. Though paralyzed on the left side of her body because of a debilitating stroke, her Finnish complexion was that of "peaches and cream", her laughter warmed your heart and her smile was electric. Through her to me passed many blessings and she renewed my faith in God. She was my mentor. She entrusted me with all her family history, maternal and paternal, and I promised, to care and compile and finish what she had begun. How do you say good bye to someone who has touched your heart and soul, and showered you with blessings within such a short period of time ? I haven't.

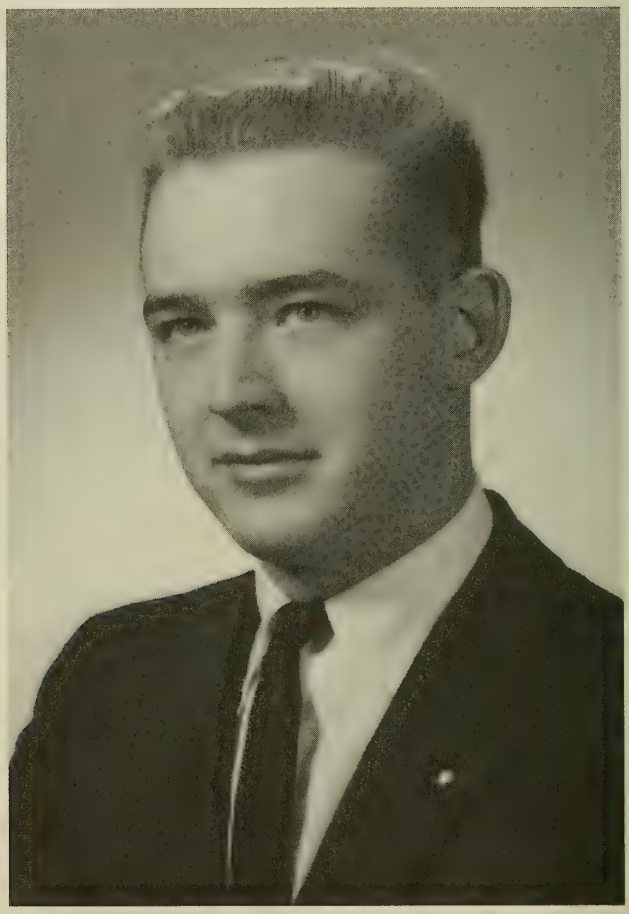
"My 3 Sons" - children of Milton and Marie Pascoe: Charles "Charlie" Milton Pascoe, James "Jim" Edward Pascoe and John Thomas "Tom" Pascoe.....



Issue of Milton Charles Pascoe and his wife, Marie Maunus Pascoe were three: Charles Milton Pascoe, James Edward Pascoe and John Thomas Pascoe.

Graduating from Hobart College, Geneva, New York in June, 1958, he was a member of Sigma Chi social fraternity and Pi Gamma Mu, honorary fraternity; and served as Lieutenant Colonel in the cadet corps of the Air Force reserve officer training program. Affiliations and honors also included: Singing Statesman, School Cantorum (choir), the distinguished cadet award in the Air Force ROTC and the trustee scholarship throughout his four years at Hobart. He served his county with the United States National Guard, How Battery, 107 Armed Calvary for six years rising to the rank of lieutenant. He joined his father, Milton C. On February 2, 1963, First Presbyterian Church, Sandusky, Ohio he married Caroline Joy Cummings, daughter of Roy and Opal Cummings. Marie Pascoe wrote, "...William Scheid, relative was at the organ playing traditional airs and other selections. Charles' brother, John Thomas Pascoe, a freshman at Hobart College, Geneva, New York, was home to fulfill the duties of best man for his brother. James E. Pascoe, came from New York City where he is a law student to serve as head usher at the wedding for his brother...."

Their honeymoon took them to Florida, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands before returning to Sandusky and beginning their life as a married couple.



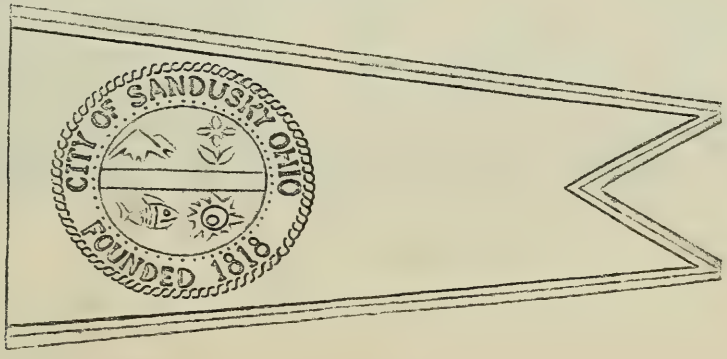
(Charles Milton Pascoe)

In 1964, Charles M. Pascoe was the first director for the Miss Ohio Pageant in Sandusky, Ohio and was judges' chairman for approximately 8-9 years.

Active in Jaycees, he has held the offices of president and vice president, was elected to be an International Senator, is a life member of the organization and a member of the committee responsible for bringing about the Sandusky, Ohio Flag.

In November 1967, the Sandusky Jaycees were looking for a project and wanted to get the community involved, particularly with Sandusky's Sesquicentennial coming up next year! Charles M. Pascoe presented the idea to the city commission on behalf of the Jaycees, asking "..on behalf of the Sandusky Jaycees I am asking for the necessary authorization to conduct a contest throughout the city which will result in the selection of a flag suitable to become the official flag of our city...." Received with an enthusiastic response from Harold Schaeffer, John LeFene, William K. Steuk, Paul Flynn. Sandusky citizens and school children were encouraged to participate through public and parochial schools. Entries had to be on 9 x 12 piece of paper and design should be significant to Sandusky. Selection committee was: Charles Pascoe, Frank Smith, Mrs. Donald Maddrell, Paul Strickfaden, Ed Hanlon, and Wilbert Schwerer.

Patricia Bettridge, described by her teachers who knew her at Sandusky High School as "a marvelously talented artist",surpassed more than 250 competitors to named the winner of the contest. The banner was dovetailed pennant featuring a white field framed in blue edging. Emblazoned on its face will be a circle quartered into distinct symbols: a mountain represents the city's educational facilities, a high mark of learning; a floral design representing the city's nationwide reputation for beautiful parks; a fish indicative of the city's tradition as a leading fresh water port and hub of the midwest sport fishing mecca; and, the sun symbolizing Sandusky's position as the 'gateway to Ohio's vacationland'. Overlaying the quadrants will be the words "City of Sandusky" and the numerals 1818-1968 to represent this Sandusky's Sesquicentennial year.



In 1965, he earned his Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) Designation from the Insurance Industry.

He has served the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) in many capacities: board member from 1968-present, vice president, member of the building committee to construct the new building on Perkins Avenue.

Lee beard, Halo beard....

Lanning Porterfield and Charles M. Pascoe co chaired the March of Dimes Drive in 1968 in a war against birth defects.

Main Street Meditations

Cleveland Plain Dealer 12 June 1949

TOMMY, four-year-old son of Milt and Marie Pascoe of Sandusky (and I'm grateful to Edith Howell for telling me about it) distinguished himself recently by his own and very sincere rendition of the Lord's Prayer.

"Halloween be thy name," murmured Tommy, and before anyone could correct him, he struck at the very heart of the world's troubles.

Earnestly, small Tommy continued, "And deliver us from ego."

The "Pascoe Family" sponsored a sailboat race to honor members of the Pascoe Family. What follows are the dedication pages from the 25th Anniversary Booklet in 1995 .....

Dedication

To All of You Who Participated in Making The Memories for 25 Years (1971-1995)

Sponsoring a sailboat race, much less staring one takes a lot of stamina, a lot of hard work. However, the end result is a lot of family pride.

The Pascoe Cup Race was inaugurated to honor the family who have been very active in sailingcircles, business activities and civic efforts in the community for many decades, tracing their heritage back to the late 1800's. Their love of sailing and boating both on Sandusky Bay and the Great Lakes has continued for four generations.

"The Pascoe Family like so many others in the area, have done a great deal to make Sandusky the noted sailing and boating center it is today," the late Charles Lewis, feature writer for the Sandusky Register said in his column in 1979, "..that deserves a tip of the gold braid..."

The elder Pascoe, Charles James, actually started the sailing tradition in the late 1800's and all of his yachts, sail and power, were named "PEARL" after his oldest daughter.

Charles James Pascoe taught well his sailing and boating skills to his son, Gilbert Vergn Pascoe who married Julia Scheid. "Vergn" Pascoe operated a grocery store at the corner of Huron Avenue and East Jefferson Street in the early 1900's, known as Green and Pascoe Grocers.

It was approximately 1910, that Vergn Pascoe sold fuel oil from a horse drawn wagon and also began selling insurance, door to door, from the same wagon.

Vergn saw to it that his two sons, Milton C. and John G. Pascoe, inherited the sailing and boating skills he loved so well and his vocation of personal customer service with the insurance business.

Milton and John continued the family insurance business and their shares of stock were purchased by Milton's two sons: Charles M. and J. Thomas Pascoe, who own and operate Pascoe Agency, Inc., today.

The younger Pascoe's along with their brother, James, began sailing with their mom and dad, Milt and Marie Pascoe on the family Lyman Cat, #4 named " MAIYU" which is Finnish for Marie. From their the family sailed an Interlake, #90, named "SISU" which is Finnish for guts or chutzpah.

Tom then switched to larger offshore boating when he was sixteen and has been active in racing boats on the Great Lakes and in SORC (Southern Ocean Racing Circuit) in years past. He sails little now, would like to see SSC, have an Interlake Over the Hill Racing Event i.e., qualifications being chronological age over 50 years, member of SSC, jib and main only.

Tom and Charlie both enjoy the family power boat: Lyman built in 1961 named "MAIYU" for their mother, Marie.

Tom's love for Lake Erie continues as a member of the Waterway Safety Council for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources having been appointed by the governor.

Sailing and boating in the family has always remained that of the sportsman, the competitive sailor, never was or has it been a profession.

In 1977, the late Charles Lewis, feature writer for the Sandusky Register, wrote, "...what Old Mother Lake Erie has in store for any Pascoe Cup Race is any sailors guess. You can bet your bottom reef knot, it will be one of three moods the lake likes to challenge the racing sailors with: a wild and suffering ride, an easy day in the sun, or a roving drifter...there has never been any in-be-twext for the early June event..."

When the 25th sailing of the Pascoe Cup Race is finished the family is turning over the running of the race to the Sandusky Sailing Club. After twenty five years, doing all the "trimmings" for such a successful event, the family is tired; and, has been assured by the Sandusky Sailing Club the Pasoce Cup Race will never be supported by outside interests.

To all of you who participated in making the memories, to those of you who will make the memories of the future, "thank you for sharing your love of the sport of sailing." We as family were proud to part of these memories.

Jeffrey Pascoes Are To Reside In Chicago

Attendants gowned in blue linen and white lace preceded Miss Nancy Fairchild down the aisle of the First Methodist Church of Champaign for her marriage to Jeffrey Pascoe Saturday evening.

Miss Fairchild, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Fairchild, 1114 W. Springfield, C, and Mr. Pascoe, the son of the John Pascoes, 5401 Columbus Ave., Sandusky, Ohio, exchanged vows in a pretty spring ceremony at 7 p.m.

Rev. Oscar C. Plumb performed the double ring vows before an altar decked with two bouquets of white carnations and blue daisies, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Betty Fredrickson, Champaign, was organist, and Wesley Schwengel, Champaign, was soloist.

An off-white gown of silk linen styled with tea cup sleeves and an Empire waistline was chosen by the attractive bride. The floor length A-line skirt was accented by appliques of Swiss lace as was the detachable chapel train. Her veil of silk illusion was secured by a pillbox headpiece of silk linen appliqued with Swiss lace.

Five gardenias made up the bridal bouquet. Cultured pearl earrings and a single pearl necklace were worn by the bride.

Mrs. Robert Schmisseur, 310 Briar Lane, C, was her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Schmisseur is the former Judith Fairchild. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Eldon Gould, Elburn, sister of the bride and the former Sandra Fairchild, and Mrs. Mark Dray, Williamsburg, Va., sister of the bridegroom.

Floor length gowns of blue linen with white lace accenting the front of an A-line skirt were worn by the attendants. The bodice was styled with short sleeves. Their veils of blue illusion were secured by blue linen pillbox headpieces. They carried blue and white tinted carnations.

David L. Miller, 25 N. Menard, Chicago, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Eldon Gould, Elburn, brother-in-law of the bride, and Burdell Schwartz, Sandusky, Ohio, a high school friend of the bridegroom.

Melonie Sue Schmisseur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmisseur and neice of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed identically to the bridesmaids.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Fairchild, was in an aqua ribbon knit with matching accessories and a corsage of two cymbidium orchids with aqua ribbon. Mrs. Pascoe, mother of the bridegroom, wore an off white dress with light green accessories and a corsage of two light green cymbidium orchids.

A reception in the parlor of the church followed the ceremony.

Attending the wedding from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Emiel Paulson, Windom, Minn., maternal grandparents of the bride.

For traveling, the bride changed to a pink and green print linen suit with a pink knit blouse and matching accessories.

After June 20 the young couple will be at home at 23 N. Menard, Chicago.

Mrs. Pascoe graduated from Champaign High School in 1961 and attended the University of Illinois. She graduated from Presbyterian St. Luke's School of Nursing in 1965 and is employed at the hospital in the department of psychiatry. She also attends the UI in Chicago.

Mr. Pascoe attended Courtland College, N.Y., and is employed in youth work with Duncan YMCA, Chicago, while he attends George Williams College, Chicago.

Director for the YMCA Another newspaper article describes his activities as the "Y" Youth....

New 'Y' Youth Director Named; Plan Diversified Summer Program

A new member has been added to the professional staff of the Gamble-Nippert YMCA in anticipation of the approaching summer program, Clarence Betz, chairman of the Committe of Management, announced this week. He is Jeffrey Pascoe, who has been named as youth director.

Pointing out that this will be the first summer with the full facilities of the new headquarters at Cheviot and Montana avenues available, J. Walter Spilman, executive secretary, stated this week that a diversified family program is being planned for boys, girls, men and women.

Unlike last year, the entire activity will not be centered entirely around the outdoor pools, which were the only facilities ready for use at that time. In addition to Mr. Pascoe, Mr. Spilman will be assisted by Art McCue, program director; Tom Yeaworth, physical and aquatic director, and Miss Beverley Rummel, in charge of women's and girls' program.

Mr. Pascoe will receive his BS degree in group work from George Williams College in June. His class will be the first to graduate from the well-known YMCA college since it was moved from Chicago to Downers Grove, Ill.

A native of Sandusky, Ohio, the new youth director attended Cortland State College in Cortland, N.Y. During the past year, he served as assistant boys' director at Duncan YMCA, Chicago, on a part-time basis. He previously worked at the Sandusky YMCA. He and his wife, Nancy, will locate in the Western Hills and he will begin his duties on June 12.

Jeffrey Pascoe

Also in preparation for the summer program, the outdoor and indoor swimming pools are now being painted. The indoor pool and men's shower room have been closed until May 27. It is presently planned to open the outdoor pools on Memorial Day, May 30, weather permitting, Mr. Spilman said.

Two children were born of this marriage: Wendy Louise Pascoe and David Jonathan Pascoe.

Wendy Louise Pascoe married David Kilbourne. Issue of this marriage was a son, Nigel Kilbourne born March 1994 in Seattle, Washington.

Funeral cards from Patty Leichtweis Kosky for George and Clara (Bippus) Pascoe....

Comfort

The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

The Eternal Goodness

I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.

And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care....

Clara Pascoe

Mrs. Clara E. Pascoe, 87, formerly of 147 Princeton Dr., died yesterday in the Little Forest Nursing Home, Akron.

Mrs. Pascoe was born in New Washington, O., and lived in Toledo most of her life, moving to Akron nine months ago. She was a member of Park Congregational Church and its Mary Martha Circle.

Surviving is a brother, Alfred F. Bippus, Akron.

Services will be Monday at 10:30 a.m. in the Walter Mortuary with burial in Woodlawn Cemetery. The body will be in the mortuary after noon tomorrow.

The tombstone for George James Pascoe, and his beloved wife, Clara . (nee Bippus) Pascoe....

In the Woodlawn Cemetery, Toledo, Ohio, also buried on the same plot with George and Clara Pascoe are Alvin C. Bippus (1874-1945) and Bessie L. Bippus (1876-1957). On back of the large PASCOE marker reads: Vanosdale and grave markers read: Grace E. Vanosdale, wife (1880-1928), Clinton Vanosdale, husband, (1880-1947) and LaVine M. Vanosdale (1897-1944). Obviously, Alvin C. Bippus and Grace Vanosdale are siblings of Clara Bippus Pascoe. In the local history and genealogy department of the Toledo Public Library, there are many entries for the surname, BIPPUS.

Carefully looking at the photograph of Clara's parents, and this photograph of George Pascoe and his wife, Clara (nee Bippus) Pascoe, it is plain to see that it was taken in her parents home. Notice the curtains, carpeting, legs on the marble top table, woodwork, urn with fern etc. etc.

Among the possessions of Patty Leichtweis Kosky was this wedding announcement for another member of the Bippus Family....which included guests - Mr. and Mrs. George Pascoe.

Dear Marie & Milton: -

I am sending clippings from the Toledo Blade that I thot you would be interested in. Florence said you were going to look into the "family tree" of the Pascoe's so here is a little something and the Brunkhorst death (maybe) that Milton would want. I just got back from Toledo last nite. I was there a week as Charlie has been sick with high blood pressure & is still in bed. Marion comes over and will take her to her house as soon as she is well enough to go. Tell Julia I read her nice letter and will answer later. In Toledo it was very hot but when we got here it was lovely and cool only 80. Let me hear from you some time.

Love
Aunt Altie

I think this Pascoe boy might be a great grandson of my father's brother Richard.

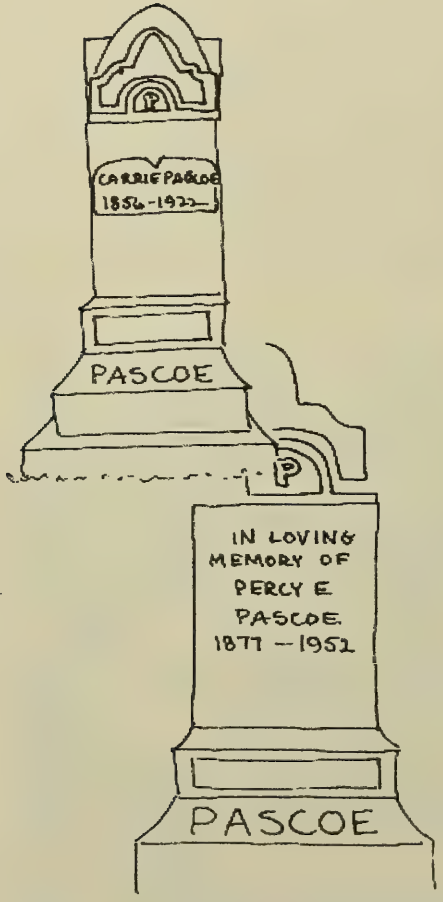
During the summer of 1999, this author and her spouse made one last sojourn to Woodstock,Ontario,Canada. Among the many tidbits of information we found was the stone in the Baptist Cemetery, for George Pascoe, his wife Martha Clifford Pascoe. On the other two sides of the stone were Carrie Pascoe and Percy Pascoe.



George Pascoe , fourth child of Richard Pascoe Sr., and his wife Mary Bowhay/Boahy was born circa 1834, in Canada, listing his age as 47 years in the 1881 census in Canada. George died April 23, 1893 [18] and is buried in the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada. In his will he leaves estate to wife and son, William Henry, also mentioning slaughterhouse on Blanford and homestead on north side of Mary Street. Martha Clifford, his wife, was born circa 1835 listing her age as 46 years in the 1881 census, died October 26, 1906 and is buried alongside her spouse.

They married on December 6, 1853, Baptist Church, Woodstock by Reverend Landonoff [19]. There was one issue, a son, William Henry Pascoe, born September 17, 1855 or 1856 in Woodstock,Ontario, Canada. In the 1881 census he lists his age as twenty-five, making his birth 1856.

Information on the William Henry Pascoe line comes from: Mrs. F. A. Quance (Doris) of 173 Western Avenue, Delhi, Ontario, Canada, N4B 1R9. William Henry Pascoe was 25 years of age in the 1881 census, thus making his birth year to be 1856. For many years he was the organist at Chalmer's Presbyterian Church in Woodstock, Ontario, Canada. He died September 25, 1943 and is buried in the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock, Ontario ,Canada. He chose as his bride at St. Thomas Church, Ontario, Canada, Carrie Maud(e) Barnes, on October 25, 1876. He was the daughter of W. N. Barnes (died April 4, 1902 aged 72 years) and Maria Barnes (died October 9, 1877 aged 41 years). Carrie (nee Barnes) Pascoe died March 15, 1922 at her residence at 527 Mary Street, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada and is buried beside her beloved spouse, William Henry Pascoe in the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock.

THE LATE MRS. PASCOE.

The funeral of Mrs. W. H. Pascoe was held on Friday afternoon from her late residence, 527 Mary street, at 2.30 o'clock. The Rev. R. S. E. Large, of Central Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. D. Wallace Christie, of Chalmers church, officiated, and the service was very impressive. Mrs. R. S. Buckle effectively sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Face to Face." The floral offerings were very profuse, including sympathetic remembrances from scores of friends. Interment was made in the family plot in the Baptist cemetery, and the pall bearers were six sons: Percy, Roy, Mortimer, Arthur, [illegible] Pascoe.

DEATH OF MRS. W. H. PASCOE

Mrs. William H. Pascoe, one of Woodstock's oldest residents, died early this morning at her home, 527 Mary street, following a lingering illness, which developed critically about three weeks ago. Mrs. Pascoe was in her sixty-fifth year. She was formerly Miss Carrie Maude Barnes and was born near St. Thomas, where she spent the early part of her life. Forty-five years ago she married and came to Woodstock to live. She was a member of the Central Methodist church, where she took an active interest in the work of the Women's Missionary Society. Throughout the community she was highly esteemed by reason of her gentle unselfishness and her desire for service for others.

Surviving are her husband, one daughter and six sons: Mrs. Joseph Brooks, Welland, Percy and Roy of Woodstock; Mortimer of Winnipeg; Claude of Toronto; Arthur of Ayr, and Cecil of Welland. Also, there is one brother, Joseph, of

Dear Family Pascoe,

Your letter re Pascoe family - received - we read it gripewise on May 2/79. Ironically, it was the day my Mother, Lela Brooks (nee Pascoe), was being buried. How I wish your letter had fallen in my hands while she was alive, as she had a good memory and of sane mind. She had recently told me that her father (William Pascoe) born Sept 17th 1855 in Woodstock had a cousin Richard who had a meat market in same city. The parents of William Pascoe had come to Canada from England. I am so sorry that I can't tell you another thing about Richard, or his family. Mother had six brothers, all of whom predeceased her, and would you believe there is not a male descendant.

I am just beginning to realize the importance of genealogy - the third largest hobby in North America. I presume you know of the Mormon Church and of their micro film service in that field. An Ontario Genealogical Society was organized in 1961. The address is

Ontario Genealogical Society

They would probably have information for you also to research your past, the new Metro Central Reference Library, the Roberts Library of the University of Toronto, the Archives of Ontario, are all located in Toronto, but I have no addresses. Also, heritage groups such as the United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada has its headquarters in Toronto.

Perhaps this information is of no help to you in Ohio, but I do hope it is. Knowing how important this is to you, I have tried to write as soon as possible & have left much other correspondence that I must do after losing Mother. I am an only child (not much of a child at 61 yrs.), but there is a house to clear out, etc. etc.

Good luck in your pursuance, perhaps it is a good excuse for a trip to England!

Sincerely

Dear Patty,

Received the genealogy charts today - it was such a nicely packed parcel and arrived in excellent condition. Your letter and picture were so welcome, and I can tell you are a very conscientious, clever and competent person - anything you do will be done well. Please find this little check covers some postage & charts - This all must be a great expense to you so at least let me buy a few stamps for you.

The newspaper clippings took me back so many years. I was 5 yrs. old when my Grandmother Carrie Pascoe died. Mother & I were there at the time - Mother assisting in nursing care. She was the first dead person I had ever seen. I wanted to reach down & touch her as Mother held me up to the casket. Mother's reply was "we don't touch dead people." I was shipped across the road to a neighbour the day of the funeral, but watched out the windows. Grandma had lain in the music room. Uncle Percy had built the house at 527 Mary St. for he & his parents. He was an organist & piano teacher. After Grandma died Dad (Jas. Banks) & Mother (Etta) & I went from Welland to 5.27 Main St. in order that Mother & Dad could keep house for Percy. Dad left his job in Welland & got one in Woodstock - clothing store. His trade. No more Saturday A.M. I came to - learning music - lessons being given. I loved that house with its coal cellar & grate & back & fairway. In a few years - my family moved to Tillsonburg but back here I was almost like father's daughter. He would take me to Toronto on the train - we would attend musical things & he would buy me 2 dresses at a time & that was a big thing for me. He had the fun of buying things for his niece that the parents couldn't afford - even - & the few coats! After his health gave out, we built a small home next to ours here - moved out his home in Woodstock - but he was only in his dad's house as he called this one, 1½ yr., then I found him on the floor one A.M. - he had had a stroke & spent 3 yrs in a nursing home before he passed away. The year he died, so did 2 of his brothers. No one else cared about him, but we saw that he was well looked after.

I haven't really had time yet to study all this life. Since Dec. 6/30, I have driven 24 mile round trip daily visit - my husband in hospital - he fell on ice & broke his femur in 2 places. Was in traction for over 2 mos.

now in a splint but getting around the house. (Also use wheel chair & walker.) Next week, I go in hosp. to have another lump removed from same side as mastectomy, then in 3 yrs. a 2nd malignant lump, so here goes another & if it is also malignant I'm in for a hectic time with treatments. But, will take it as it comes. So that is only the early response to your work. I visited the Baptist cemetery in Woodstock last fall. I didn't realize pictures of tombstones were an asset in your work because I could get George, Carrie, Percy & I forget the other - must be William - a 4 sided stone. Will try to do it in the future if I'm still around. Many an hour I spent at the 4-manual organ Percy played in the church - I inherited his love of music & was organist in [illegible] for a few years. Now, health problems keep me from even enjoying my piano - (have spine cancer too & need another bone scan). I inherited Percy's grand piano - kept it for years in our living room but finally could part with it - sold it to the right person - a real concert pianist, & bought a smaller piano that fit our room better.

So, enough of this - thanks so much for all your work & patience - it sure wouldn't be my thing but I do appreciate all your efforts. Good luck. My advice is - "do what you want to do, & what you can, while you can."

Sincerely Doris.

Dear Patty,

You will feel like murdering me, coming up with enclosed papers - just had time alone at the library. After I received all your work, realized what information you needed. I remembered the family Bible stashed away. I had a day off from hospital orientation to attend - to this instead could have saved you so much work in the 1st place.

The Bible went out of family hands for some years. After my Grandmother (Carrie) died, her husband William left Percy's home to live with another woman - a Mrs. Bland, in Woodstock, & he took the Bible with him. His family then had no more to do with him. After he died, Mother (Leta) called on Mrs. Bland requesting the Bible be turned back to the family, & it was. Tho' it has not been kept up.

Will just jot down what I know - This was not a close family & my cousins for the most part got out of touch.

Melville Leroy (we just called him Roy) was married to Hattie.

Offsprings - ① Ruth. married in Woodstock, had a daughter Lorraine, Ruth was widowed, moved to Hamilton & worked in Hamilton General Hospital. (housekeeping, I think) Hattie died - Roy remarried a Mabel who ~~was~~ was not welcome in the family ② Helen - married & lived in Hamilton, had 1 son. Ruth lived with her in later life.

③ Milton married to Mary - an R.C., and worked for the railway in St. Thomas. Both deceased. No family.

You see. I know no last names!

Mortimer was married to "Tiny". She made such good mashed potatoes! They lived in the West at one time, then Winnipeg. No family.

III

Claude married to Edna who turned into an alcoholic.
They divorced, he married his secretary Phyllis.
He had 2 men's wear stores in Toronto & one in Windsor.
No family.

William Luther (Uncle Luffie) married Laura - She was an Aylmer girl - he worked at a shoe plant in Aylmer for years where their son Harold Roger was born. Later, moved to Detroit & worked in Ford car plant. Harold never married.

Cecil was married to Lulu - they always lived in Welland where he had a men's wear store. No family.

I remember all these people, & their spouses, but I was a child when most of our visiting was done, & so was close to Luther, Laura.

So this is what I could find without tearing the house apart. Have things packed away back under eaves & hard to get at. Not that there would be any more info.

Wrote this in a real hurry, but wanted to get it off to you before I pack my suitcase for hospital.

Sincerely
Lois.

Pioneer Athlete Of Woodstock Dead

Special to The Mail and Empire.

Woodstock, Ont., April 12.—John Pascoe, one of the old-time Woodstock athletes and manager of the J. W. Boyle farm at the "Firs," died to-day at the age of 78 years. Death resulted from blood-poisoning which spread from a scratch on the hand.

The late Mr. Pascoe had lived all his life in Woodstock and half a century ago was a noted foot racer, baseball and cricket player, a crack shot and billiard player and owner of thoroughbred horses. He was one of the best catchers on the continent, this work helping to enable the old Young Canadian Baseball Team, of Woodstock, to retain the championship of Canada for about eight years. The late Mr. Pascoe was a true sportsman and a fine type of citizen. A daughter, Mrs. Robt. McKay, lives in Toronto.

JOHN PASCOE DEAD

Passing of a figure Prominent in Athletic Circles in the Old Days of Woodstock.—A Fine Type of Citizen

Deasth has came to one of Woodstock's oldest and most respected citizens in the person of John Pascoe, who passed away at the "Firs" farm during the early hours of Monday morning at the age of 78 years. News of his death caused a feeling of pain and surprise amongst his many friends in the city and county who had hoped that his almost iron constitution would have been successful in throwing off the disease that had fastened itself upon him. A week ago Sunday r. Pascoe was in Hamilton visiting his friends. He returned from that city feeling somewhat unwell. Blood-poisoning, which had started from a scratch in the hand, gradually began to spread and during the past two or three days his condition developed a serious turn. The members of his family were summoned and when the end came early Monday morning, he was surrounded by his children.

LIVED HERE 78 YEARS.

The death of the late John Pascoe removes a man who for all of his 78 years of life resided in or near Woodstock and watched the development of this place from a small village to its present status of cityhood. He was born here, his father being the late Richard Pascoe, who came to Woodstock about the same time that Maurice Egan, who recently celebrated his one hundredth birthday, settled here. Possessing a genial disposition as a young man, and being a true athlete and sportsman, Mr. Pascoe gathered around him many warm friends and not a few of the friends of his earlier days he retained in his later years. As a young man he attended the old East End school and later he engaged in various occupations. For over thirty years he was engaged in business in the East End and when, eight years ago, he was engaged by J. W. Boyle of Dawson City, to manage the "Firs" farm, his removal from the old stand seemed to leave a gap in the East End. It was a pleasure to his many friends, however, to know that he had not gone far away. Although moving onto the farm, just outside the city limits, Mr. Pascoe continued to keep in touch with his old friends in the city and in the curling rink or on the bowling green he was still the enthusiastic John Pascoe, whose skill in various lines of sport had in earlier days brought fame to Woodstock. A most likeable man and one whose genial disposition and sociableness gathered around him scores of friends, he still retained his faculty of making himself a man amongst men and that is one reason why Mr. Pascoe's death will cause deep sorrow in the city generally.

A TRUE SPORTSMAN

The outstanding feature of the late Mr. Pascoe's rather remarkable athletic career is his connection with the Old Young Canadian Baseball Team of the City of Woodstock, which over half a century ago brought considerable fame to the old town. In this organization which for a number of years held the championship of Canada, Mr. Pascoe was the catcher and it was said that he was not only a great catcher but that he was one of the very best on the American continent. J. Henry Brown, one of the few survivors of the old team gave this reminscence to the Sentinel-Review this morning.

"The date of the inception of the Old Young Canadian Baseball Team has passed from my memory, but it was over a half century ago. It was when James Shuttleworth, a member of the Hamilton team came to Woodstock to work as a shoemaker. He had been playing in the Hamilton team. This was before Mr. Pascoe's time. The old team was organized on a lot on Reeve Street, back of the post office. Mr. Pascoe was at the time out of the country. As soon as the club was partially organized, the boys went over to James Clements Wagon Shop back of the present YMCA building and made some baseball bats to play with. David Clyde was the pitcher, Thomas Love was the catcher and Robert McWhinney was the backstop. Later on a man named Wood came to the city and through him the old style game was given up and the regulation American game was adopted. Thomas Love gave up the catcher's position and John Pascoe went behind the bat. From that time on he developed both great skill both as a catcher and as a batter and was the envy of the many teams we played. Baseball began to boom. The citizens of Woodstock took up a subscription and got up a trophy for twelve or fifteen years with one exception and that was one year when Ingersoll lifted it from us. We played Hamilton, London, Ingersoll, Newcastle, Guelph, Dundas and other Canadian teams as well as American teams. And in those days there were very few ball teams that could beat us anywhere on the continent. Mr. Pascoe caught a number of years and later on was put on first base, while I did the catching in his place for sometime. In addition to Isaac Edwards, David Clyde, Thomas Love and Robert McWhinney among the old players, I recall that James Wilson played second base, Samuel Wilson played third base, Josh Hill shortstop, R. Douglas centerfield, John W. Midgley, now of Chicago right field."

Among the players who still survive in Woodstock and have memories of the old days are I. Edwards, J. Henry Brown, Joseph Anderson, S. Bickley and Thomas Love.

While the late Mr. Pascoe shone on the baseball diamond he was a great all round athlete. He was a skillful cricket player, a good shot, a fast footracer, a splendid billard player and a lover of thoroughbreed horses, several of whichhe had entered in the old Queen's Plate.

Besides a widow, who was Miss Burgess, the following family survives: Mrs. A. Windsor, Listowel; Mrs. Robert MacKay, Toronto; Mrs. Alfred C. White and Mrs. Roger MacKay, Hamilton; Mrs. R.H. Walton, Sudbury. One sister Mrs. Foquette of Hamilton also survives. The deceased was a member of the A.O.U.W. Lodge of this city.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock; service at thouse at 2 o'clock.

Dear Mrs. Pascoe,-

I have received a letter, or some mail, from my nephew in Toronto, Robert "Pascoe" Mackay, in regard to the Pascoe family and descendents. It is most interesting, and I shall try to give you as much information as I can from the year "1871".

Richard Pascoe who died in 1875 would be my grandfather, and he lived with my father, who was "John" Pascoe, and my mother until he died in Brockton. There was also a sister of father's whom we called "Aunt Polly". There is no mention of her. She married a Frenchman by name Foquet. There was always, as I remember, some mention of the Isle of Guernsey, in the English Channel, and I have always thought that possibly father's mother came from here.

Aunt Polly had three children. Only knew one of them, the youngest, Flossie by name. She married. I should have said Aunt Polly died in Hamilton, Ont. Flossie married a Hamilton man, and they moved out West and lived in Kerr Robert, Sask. Later he died and Flossie again married a Mr. Simpson and lived in Saskatoon. We used to correspond and she died a few years ago. She never had any children.

21 Index to Marriages III, Rg 8 1-6-1 Brock District 1839-1858

From the preceding resources, (and their line of descent) we know that Edward Pascoe married Mary Osborne. They had a son, Edward Pascoe Jr., who married Mary Ann Walters. They had a son, John Pascoe who married Julia Tordiff. They had a son, Milton C. Pascoe who married Nora ____.

Our line of descent was Richard Pascoe who married Mary Bowhay/ Boahy. They had a son, Richard Pascoe, Jr., who married Harriet Green(a)way. They had a son, Charles James Pascoe who married Mary Jane Gilbert. They had a son, Gilbert Vergn Pascoe who married Julia Scheid. They had a son, Milton C. Pascoe who married Marie Maunus.

Geraldine McIntosh, and John Pascoe, resources for the Edward Pascoe line, confirm that Edward and Richard were brothers.

Question arises, we know that (1) John Pascoe who married Julia Tordiff named his child Milton C. Pascoe and (2) Gilbert Vergn Pascoe who married Julia Scheid named his child Milton C. Pascoe Coincidence? Don't know!

But, the names of Milton and Richard and Charles are common among this family history! Perhaps another generation can fit all the missing pieces together.

That which follows is correspondence from many over the years, in search of the same quest as I, how does all this fit together to form our family? So many unanswered questions, however, as the torch is passed on yet to another generation, perhaps someday somewhere sometime, someone else, will pick up the pieces and continue on to find the answer(s).....

THE [illegible]

Four Young Irishmen Clear Lot 18, Concession 3 of East Whitby Township

(Extracts from a book "Early Days in Oshawa" by Dr. Hogg)
Published by

Early in the eighteen hundreds, four young Irishmen John and William Warren, Lawrence Hayden and Calahan Holmes sailed from Ireland in a Brig, a two masted sailing vessel, to take up land in Canada. They were friends of Robert Baldwin, a well known political leader in Ontario from 1804 to 1858. With his help they obtained a good grant of land on the third concession of Whitby Township, Lot 18.

Shortly after their arrival at their new acreage in 1826, their hired man, Pat Deashy, walked into the forest and was heard shouting, "Oh Master William! Oh Master John! Come here! Come here! " Hastening to Pat's side, they found him looking into a high tree in which there were three bears, a mother bear and two large cubs. Hayden dispatched them with his gun. One landed in the crotch and the tree had to be cut down to retrieve it. The skins made fine warm hats for the four Irishmen.

The young men, in pairs, alternately visited Dr. Baldwin for Christmas, walking the whole way to Toronto.

One day on returning, the two Warrens found their straight razors horribly blunt. On enquiring they found that the two who had been left at home had killed a pig and had shaved it with the razors instead of using the customary method of pouring boiling water over the carcass and scraping the hair off.

Edward Pascoe and family Emigrate to Canada

A few years later, in the year 1842 Edward Pascoe and his wife Mary (Osborne) Pascoe with their three small sons Thomas, Edward and Richard, only six weeks old, left their home in Bradworthy, county of Devonshire, England, saying goodbye to relatives and friends and all that was dear to them, to embark on a sea voyage in a brig (a two masted square-rigged sailing vessel) which would take them to Canada. The voyage lasted twelve weeks and the monotony and hardships of that sea journey with three small children was unbelievable.

After the long exhausting trip they were towed up the St. Lawrence river in Durahm boats drawn by horses, on the bank. They finally landed at Darlington harbour and made their way to the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mumford, just west of Solina. A few months later they were living in a log house north of Zion church. Finally they moved to their new house, on their own grant of land near Solina church.

Here five more children were born: 1. William, 2. Mary Grace, 3.John, 4.Eliza Jane and 5. Eli. They cut the timber, cleared the land of stumps and slash and ploughed their fertile acres. The seed was scattered by hand, the crops were cut and cradled with a scythe, sheaves were bound by hand and threshed with a flail.

Daily morning devotions were held, the Bible was read and prayers for the preservation of the family were given.

One by one the members of the Pascoe family married and set up homes of their own. Edward Jr. bought a farm - Lot 16 on the Third Concession of Whitby Township which had been homesteaded by John and William Warren and Lawrence Hayden in the early eighteen hundreds. The Warren brothers eventually sold out their interest in the farm in 1828 to Lawrence Hayden, and opened a store on Sterrs Hill, one mile east of Whitby on Highway 2, now known as Licks Farm. This was the only store between Port Hope and Toronto, and it was here that mail was delivered periodically for the settlers, having come through from Kingston to Toronto on the back of a mule. In 1842 the first post office was opened at Skeys Corners (Oshawa) then known as the Black Ash swamp area.

In 1869 Edward Peacock purchased the land from Lawrence Heydon, and he and his young wife Mary Ann Walters set up their home there.

It was a home that you would look at twice if you drove by on a June morning many years ago. The long land and surrounding fences were lined with chestnut trees, probably in full bloom. Alfred Noyes the poet must have remembered a similar sight when he wrote the poem "The Barrel Organ"

"And when the Rose begins to pout,
And all the chestnut spires are out,
You'll hear the rest without a doubt,
All chorusing for London."

The farm was appropriately named Chestnut Grove. In memory, I recall the sight of the chestnut trees, the old arch-apple tree bursting with bloom near the drive-shed, the weather-vane rattling its merry song, the mulberry tree with its sweet fruit growing outside the kitchen window, the squeaking wind-mill over by the barn, and the air so sweet with the smell of tinted blossoms from the apple orchard east of the house.

Near the gate two huge black walnut trees with great boughs, reaching to the sky for the early morning sun drew our attention to the old stone culvert bridging the deep ditch along the road-side, leading to the peaceful lane.

In the fall, the apple orchard laden with its colourful fruit made a picture for all to gaze on. It was then that we loved to gather baskets of black walnuts, shiny brown chestnuts, rosy red apples, blue damsel plums and dew laden grapes. A special treat always waited us on the yellow harvest apple tree or the red asterkin apple trees which grew behind the drive-shed.

Nestled among the great shady maple trees at the end of the lane and looking out on that beautiful view stood the old white frame house with dormer windows, and a large front door paralelled with narrow side windows. The door opened into a central hallway from which a long flight of stairs ascended to the second floor. That door always seemed to say,"Welcome! Come on in".

Just behind the house stood an old brick building with two large brick archways, large enough for a team of horses to enter, and always open to the weather. At one side of one of the archways was a smaller room, with a huge iron kettle 4' in diameter, sitting over a brick fireplace. No one seemed to know exactly what the building was used for by the Irish pioneers, probably for making maple syrup or soft soap.

Upstairs in this building were stored many relics of past days, a wicker baby carriage with huge wheels, an old spool bed, a rope bed, some well-worn horse-hair covered chairs, some battered old trunks, old tools and odds and ends of all description.

What a treasure chest if it still stood there to-day!

The old house can recall many happy days and also sorrowful times through its long history.

It must have been a great day when it welcomed Edward Pascoe and his bride in 1869 as there is no mention or record of any of the four Irishmen marrying.

This special day was followed in turn by the births of their four children John, Oliver, Anne and Edgar who was born some years after the other three. They were all born in that old farm house.

The trials and experiences of raising their family must have been many. The older members received their education in the first Thornton school, built about 1833, a log building located on a lot now situated in the centre of the Union Cemetery on Thornton Road. Its furniture consisted of split log seats which lined along the walls, facing tables also made from split logs. Edgar attended the log school for one day then went to the new yellow brick., two roomed school further up Thornton Road which was built about 1875. This school in turn was replaced by a ten roomed Thornton school just off Garrard Road in 1960.

In those good old days there were definite rules set down by the guiding lights in Education in order to make teachers into stone like pillars of the community.

The following are three of the rules for teachers in 1872 in New York and probably applied in that old Thornton log school too.

1. Men teachers may take one evening a week for courting purposes and two evenings if they go to church regularly.

2. After the hours in school the teachers should spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other books.

3. Any teacher who smokes or uses liquor of any kind, frequents poolrooms or public halls, or gets shaved in a barber shop; will give good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.

Most of those early teachers were young Irishmen, and single, who lived in a small log house near the school or lived with the settlers, a different home each month. They paid no board but their children received free education. If the teacher lived in a log house the settlers sent them provisions such as bacon, flour, butter, maple syrup, etc.

The old house had its share of tragedy too, especially the day that Uncle Dick Walter, a man who drank heavily and drove spirited horses, came racing down the road and wheeled his horse into the lane across the stone culvert, over the deep ditch on two wheels upsetting the cart. Uncle Dick was horribly hurt. He was carried to the house. As he lay dying he asked my pregnant mother to hold his hand. She detested drink, especially a drunken man and refused to take that hand. Uncle Dick died. She carried that memory in her superstitious mind and when I was born some months later with one hand missing she thought it must be punishment for refusing to accept the dying man's hand.

Another man died in the old house in a similar way. He was testing one of the first McLaughlin chassis (car frame and wheels only). He came speeding down that same road, the dust flying when the car went out of control, crashing into that same ditch and smashing into the stone culvert. He too died before medical assistance could be brought from Whitby.

Edgar the youngest member of Edward's family met with a severe hunting accident as a young man when a shot gun carried by his farm friend Norman Burns accidently discharged as they climbed over a rail fence leading into a woods south of the old home. The blast ripped into Edgar's side. He was carried home and hovered between life and death for weeks.

It is told that Oliver stood in a buggy with a whip in his hand and galloped the horse all the way to Whitby to bring Dr. to the seriously wounded boy. With a mother's love and care Edgar survived, and married Edith Booth. They took over the farm on the death of his father Edward Pascoe.

Edgar carried black shot pellets under the skin, in his side to his grave when he died at 92 years of age in 1966.

The Pascoe children in turn married and set up homes of their own.

John and his wife Julia Tordiff, after the death of two of their children headed for Saskatchewan with thousands of other Ontario families to homestead prairie land near Regina. Three children Wilfred, Milton and a daughter Velma went with them. Before leaving fate had dealt them a cruel blow. Gazie, a son, had died of diptheria at the age of 7 and May succumbed to severe burns as a lively teen ager, when she fell carrying an oil lamp downstairs. She was one of the first patients admitted to the Oshawa General Hospital.

Oliver bought a farm on Roseland Road near his old home, where he and his wife Nettie Retan raised a family of two girls and seven boys - Lily, Pearl, Cecil, Percy, Clinton, Norman, Luther, Edward and Walter. All in turn set up homes in the Whitby area.

Annie married Elgin Annis and raised three boys - Gordon and Howard of Oshawa and Theo who also went to Saskatchewan to homestead. Edgar and Edith raised a family of two sons and a daughter all born in the old farm house, Eli, Harold and Leta.

Prosperous times and hard times came and went as the old farm house sheltered three generations of Pascoes.

After two world wars and the resultant change in life and industry in Canada, Edgar Pascoe, owner of the farm, began to think seriously about the future of the farm. His two sons and daughter had left home. Eli had gone to Detroit and set up a home of his own where he raised his own family of three boys, Bob, Jim and Richard.

Harold had entered the teaching profession in Oshawa becoming principal of Westmount and later of Adelaide McLaughlin school with 700 pupils, located within one mile of his old farm home. He had married Mildred Lean and was raising a family of three boys Bill, Glenn and Douglas and two daughters, Carolyn and Ruth.

Leta and her husband Bill Pierson had two sons, Jack and Gordon also a daughter, Eleanor, all living in Oshawa.

The era of great combines, bulldozers, tractors, Unions and television had arrived. Oshawa was burdgeoning with life. New cars, new homes and busy highways were everywhere. The boundary of the city had expanded to the old farm's line fence. Sub-divisions were springing up all along Rossland Road.

Good farm labour was impossible to get. Wages and land values had risen out of all proportion to the value of farm produce. Dad (Edgar) was sixty-five years of age. Mother was in poor health. There was no use trying to carry on.

He made a decision to sell the farm, 150 acres plus live stock and implements for what at the time seemed a good price, for $18,000, and in 1949 moved to 66 Gladstone Avenue, Oshawa. Only three years after moving to Oshawa Edith died of a stroke in 1951. Edgar died at Hilldale Manor in 1966, after living with his daughter for four years, at a good old age of ninety-two.

Mrs. J. Thomas Pascoe,

Sandusky, Ohio, U.S.A. 44870

Dear Mrs. Pascoe:

Your letter regarding the Pascoe Family has just reached me, and yes, I can imagine the excitement at seeing a familiar family name! I must admit that my heart also does a few "nip ups" whenever something regarding our family search comes to hand. However, I'm not too sure that this time your sharing will be returned two-fold.

I have just made myself a nice cup of tea and have sat me down to consider what little information I have regarding the Pascoe Family and find so little, but gladly pass along to you what I have so far found. You see, I have been searching for my grandfather Soper and family and only recently found out that his older sister had married a John Pascoe. I have a picture in my possession of Grandfather Soper and a younger man named Milton Pascoe. I would estimate that this picture was taken between 1912 and 1916 (when grandfather died). I didn't know at the time where Milton Pascoe "fitted into the picture" but in corresponding with a new-found relative in Ontario - and whom I have since met - I found this to be the son of Mary Ann Soper Pascoe.

I searched the 1881 Census for Toronto and found a John Pasco, age 32, Born in England, Baptist, Carpenter; his wife, Mary Ann, Age 28, Born in England, Baptist; Harvey, Age 3, born in Ontario and Lilly May, Age 1, born in Ontario. (The age given for Mary Ann is approximately right - she was born in 1851 in Tavistock, Devon.)

I then searched the Toronto City Business Directories from 1882 to 1916. These of course listed only the working male members of the household. John Pascoe, carpenter, appeared at 201 College St., in 1882; 399 College St. 1890; 429 Euclid St., 1895; 119 Grace Street, 1900 and Milton appears at that address also. In 1905 - 1909 Charles M. appears at 15 Bellevue, along with Harvey, John, Milton and Norman. In 1916 Harvery, John and Milton are all at 51 Spruce Hill Rd., and in 1928 John is at 81 Spruce Hill Rd., but Milton no longer appears in the directory. Presumably he had moved elsewhere, died - or was perhaps overseas in W.W. I.

A short while ago I received a letter from a Lorna Bossenberry who is also a member of the Ontario Gen. Soc. and who lives in Griffin, Saskatchewan. She too had read my querie and advised me that:

"Jack & Julia (Tordiff) Pascoe and family, Wilfred, Milton, and Velma, came west from Port Perry, Ontario in 1911. Jack was a carpenter and farmed while here. Velma married Fred White from Oshawa and they operated a grocery store in Oshawa for many years.

"In 1916 the family left Creelman, to take up farming in the Kincaid (Sask.) area. Milton and his wife Nora farmed there until his death in 1965. Their son John is on the farm now.

"Mr & Mrs. Jack Pascoe returned to Oshawa to retire. About 1930, Wilfred, his wife Gladys and family moved to Oshawa and in later years made their home in Port Perry. *At the time of writing (about 1 yr. ago or less) both Wilfred and Gladys are in a nursing home in Port Perry, and Velma White is also a resident of the nursing home.

"If you would like more information you could write to:

" J.M. Pascoe, Box 11, Kincaid,Sask. I think he sent the write up for * the history book." The history book she mentions here is one about Creelman, Sask. and is what she is getting the information from.

Now, it does seem significant that so many of the children of these families bear the same name - and certainly Milton is not a common name for a child and as you say, "there must be some connection!" But where?

Have you gotten back into England from the family roots in Woodstock? When I have checked the census data for Tavistock Devon and also Liskeard Cornwall, there have been Pascoe families. Also, if they were early settlers in Ontario, they possibly had crown grants of land. Our Genealogical Library has microfische records of all the Ontario land grants. Unfortunately it is closed at present due to a strike of civic employees, and since we happen to have space in one of the city owned buildings, we have had to close down. However, at the first opportunity I will go over and check through the land grants and see if I can come up with any Pascoes. Or perhaps you have already done this. Re Stewart"

I'm sorry that I have so little to offer you in the way of 'exchange' information. I do appreciate your sending me the information that you have and perhaps we will find that there is a mutual ancestor in the Pascoe family.

You will note the difference in my address from that in the"Toronto Tree'. Unfortunately they printed the wrong street name and this could account for the lenthy time it took for your letter to reach me. However, our postal code is very good - it even designates the area, city block and even which side of the street the address is on, so delivery should be assured.

Thank you for your courtesy in sending the s.a.s.e. However, I will return to you a Canadian stamp in order that you can "pass it on" another time to someone who may be more in need than I. I am always so happy to receive ANY information regarding families in which we are interested, I feel it is well worth the cost of a postage stamp in reply!

I close with my thanks for your letter and my best wishes for much success in "picking up the pieces" - as you put it - in future. (My husband terms my search "granny digging"!)

All the best, and I'll keep your address at hand in case I come up with more information and will hope you will do the same for me!

Sincerely,

Geraldine M. McIntosh

Dear Patty.

It was with great surprise that I recieved your letter. We have been curious about our family for some time now, my mother was a bit of a historian but passed away before she was able to gather many facts. I'm afraid what information I have will only add to the confusion, but you are certainly welcome to it.

Most of the enclosed information I recieved from my cousin Wilfred Pascoe who has done some geneology work on our side of the tree, and compiled the family tree (copies of which are enclosed). As you can see I had to severely prune the tree in order to get it through the copier but it should give some idea of the early generations in Canada, if you have any questions on any of the branchs not shown don't hesitate to write. I am sure Wilfred will be more than interested in a mutual sharing of information and will include his address at the end of this letter.

From the papers enclosed in your letter and with what I have it would seem as though your Richard and our Edward could have been brothers. My father always maintained that there was a family split (for what reason no one was ever told) and part of the Pascoe "clan" moved to the United States, with some coming back to Canada when the west opened up. (early 1900's). There are Pascoe's in Swift Current and Moose Jaw, (towns about 100 miles in either direction of us), that are not related to our family, and dad believed they had emigrated from the States.

It is curious how the same names keep coming up, my father also was Milton Cliver, and my surviving sister was christened Mildred Clive but changed her name, believe it or not, to Pat. She is now Pat Morrison and is living in Victoria, B.C.

Hope this information will be of some help to you. Would be most interested to learn the connection between our families and some of the succeeding generations.

Yours sincerely,

Oshawa, Ontario.

I have in my possession an autobiography of Harold Pascoe a retired school principal from the Oshawa area, I will include some exerpts which may be of interest.

- The Pascoe family name goes back in English history to the time of the Phoenecians in the 8th century B.C. The name seems to have originated in Cornwall where Pascoe has become one of the most common family names and from there it has spread to all parts of the world. Pascoe means "Easter Child." The name has three spellings - Pascoe - Pasco - Pasko, but all refer to the same Cornish family.

- Our own branch of the Pascoe family emigrated from Cornwall in 1842, crossing the Atlantic in a sailing vessel that took twelve weeks to make the journey to the St, Lawrence River and up the north shore of Lake Ontario to Darlington Bay from which they traveled over the trails to the Solina area. That original group of Pascoes included Edward and his wife Mary (Osborne) and three small sons, Thomas, Edward, and Richard. Five other children were born after their arrival - William, Mary Grace, John, Eliza Jane, and Eli.
  Descendants from that early group of Pascoes have gone all across Canada and into many areas of the United States.

- A Pascoe built the Clifton and Hotel Lincoln in Los Angeles, the first modern family hotel. A son, Dr. E.R Pascoe, became medical officer of the Board of Health there. Benjamin Pascoe of Los Angeles, California, and Gulf, Arizona, was a distinguished speculator, promoter of projects, rancher, miner, and banker. Thomas Pascoe became a United States marshall in Globe Arizona. He had eleven children. There is a Pascoe Steel Corporation and a Pascoe Construction Industry in Los Angeles. Ten Pascoes took part in the battles of Bull Run, Manasses, Turners' Pass and Gettysburg under the leadership of Stonewall Jackson.
  The Pascoe name is found among the pioneer Mormons at Salt Lake City.

From my own reading I've learned there was a Pasco on the deck with Captain Drake in the Spanish Armada. So it would appear that when there were happenings of any consequence there was a Pascoe involved somehow.

Six pages of information from Mr. C. T. Collacott, Bradworthy, England.....

Recieved from Mr. C. T. Collacott
Bradworthy
England

The Pascoe name is not found in the Bradworthy records prior to 1809. It is therefore presumed that they moved to the Bradworthy Parish from another nearby Parish in the early 1800's in fact from 1805 to 1809 would seem logical. Further search in and around Morwenstowe and registers would probably be enlighting as Pascoe's are found at an early date of Nov. 27 1588 in the Morwenstowe Register. Thomas Pascoe married Katherine Creed on that date.

The Pascoe's at Bradworthy in the early 1800's were known as Nonconformists being Bible Christains and we find records in small out lying Chappels a few miles from the village of Bradworth but still in the boundaries of Bradworthy Parish. These locations I will establish further on. It is interesting to note that just a couple of miles from Morwenstowe Church that we find a small old Hamlet called Woodford in which remains the ruins of an old Christian Reform Church and its cemetary still in good order in which we find the following inscribed :

Edward Pascoe of this Parish who died March 4, 1882, born in 1819 and his wife Eliza Pascoe died 25 June 1900 born 1821.

And in the same Hamlet we find the Methodist(more recent church) in which there are more tombstones relating to the Pascoe's.

At the Morenstowe Church yard we find a tombstone indicating William Pascoe died on Jan 3, 1853 aged 45 years.Indicating birth in the year 1806 - this church of Egland Church - also very old built orginelly arcund the year 900 - 1000 A.D. Norman and Saxon origen is in evidence.

We have no evidence to date of our forefathers being related to the Pascoe's of this area however with the small numbers involved and the short distance of 8 to 12 miles to Bradworthy it is a good possibility that our future evidence will indicate that the father of our Edward and Mary Pascoe was a resident of Woodford hamlet in the Parish of Morenstowe Cornwall, England.

Year 1842 Feb. 13 Richard son of Edward(farmer) andMary Pascoe
Bradworthy - Atworthy Chapel

From the above registers we can now state the following :

a) Edward Pascoe was borne in the year 1803, it is not known were. We do know he died on August 27 1888 at Solina Ontario at the age of 85 years (established by tombstone) Eldad Church Yard.

b) Edward Pascoe married Mary Osborne on July 16, 1835 in the church at Bradworthy Devon England.

c) Edward and Mary's eldest son Thomas was born on December 6, 1835 (somewhat less than 5 monthes after marriage) on the farm of Littleford which still exists today, with biuldings located on the outer southwest edge of Bradworthy village in Bradworth Parish.

d) Thier second child a daughter was born in 1838 and died on Nov. 15 1840 and was named Mary Ann.

e) Edward and Mary's second son was born on June 13, 1840 on the Dural farm approximately 3 miles northwest of the village of Bradworthy. His baptism took place in the Atworthy Chapel located approximately 1½ miles of the Dural farm and the buildings are still in use today on the Dural farm as is the Atworthy Chapel. Which is interesting as most small chapels have closed over the years and are today used as family dewellings.

From the abovewe see that Edward and Mary married and farmed

(we know he was a farmer as is shown in a birth register of Thomas) at Littleford then moved to the Dural farm were Edward was born, had he been living at Littleford when he was born his baptism would have shown up as did Thomas's in the Bradworthy records.

f) Edward and Mary's third son Richard was born on Feb. 13 1842 on the Dural farm and baptism at Atworthy Cappel.

It is believed that six weeks later the family left the Dural farm for a Sea Port probably Plymouth as there would be means of rail travel south to this port from the area of Bude. As indicated previously this would have the family leaving England from the Devonish Port of Plymouth around the last of March and arriving at a prot in Canada around the middle of May 1842.

PASCOES I

While in England May 1977 Doreen and I went to Devon and Cornwall for a few days to attempt to find out more about the Pascoes. The only information we had was that the Pascoes left England from Bradworthy "Devon" in 1842 with three boys: Thomas - 6 years
Edward - nearly 2 years
Richard - 6 weeks old according to our Canadian ancestors. He was born on the 13th of February 1842, therefore, it is likely they sailed from England around the 20th of March 1842. This would give us a lead as to which ship they sailed on by searching sailing records around that date. Their trip took six weeks indicating a landing around May 15th.

We also had in our possession, a letter of recomendation acquired from Harold Pascoe, for Richard Pascoe, written in 1835 at Flosbury Hall, Loughill near Bude. Doreen and I were touring by car so we went directly to Bude, a sea side town of a good size. While wandering through various streets and etc., looking for a Bed and Breakfast place to stay for the night, we turned a corner and would you believe, there was a large gold leaf lettered sign proclaiming "Flosbury Hall - "Bed and Breakfast"!

We immediately drove in through the massive stone gate and enquired about a room and stayed there for two nights, in a very large room on the second floor, that we suspect could have been the master's bedroom in 1835 - the gentleman who had written the letter of recomendation for Richard Pascoe, an employee of his. We believed this Richard to be a brother of our emigrating ancestor Edward. Richard emigrated to the U.S.A. and Edward to Canada.

We then searched the Church yard at Poughill for evidence of buried relations, however, we established the fact that prior to 1800 very few tombstones were used (too expensive) and those that were used, had mostly disappeared or decimigrated.

Then we made the 12 to 15 mile trip to Bradworthy Village which is quite remote to this day. All roads leading into it (and there are many) were not intended for a car, to say the least! But however narrow, bending and winding, they were very picturesque with their high hedge growths.

Bradworthy is a small village with three or four stores, - Post Office, and Grocery combinations. However, it does have a large square in the centre of town, approx. one acre, and all the buildings seemed to be of a glue-grey colour. The church just off the square is large, dominating as in most villages, in Cornwall and Devon. All these churches are of Norman and Saxon origin and survived the Cromwell and Henry VIII demolitions, as few other areas of Great Britain did. It is noteworthy that Cornwall was one of the few counties holding out to the last as a Royal House follower, and resisting Cromwell to the end. In fact, it is said Cromwell's forces did not create destruction in Cornwall to any extent.

Back to the Pascoes - once again there was no tombstone evidence the Pascoes had been in the area, however, at a later date in Canada we were given evidence to the contrary.

We then visited 5 other villages with churches and cemetarys still finding no Pascoes. However, at Sutcombe village while searching through the toumbstones, 2 elderly people working in their garden alongside the cemetary gave us conversation. They became quite interested that we were all the way from Canada and wanted to help, but knew of no Pascoes. However, they knew an old gentleman of 97 years who had lived in the area all his life and took us to him. He was working in his garden on hands and knees and had poor hearing. Nevertheless, the message of our search got through to him and he remembered Pascoes in years gone by, but not in the Bradworthy area. He gave us a name of a lady by the name of Jeffries who prior to marriage was a Pascoe, and told us exactly where her home was, some 15 to 20 miles to the south.

By this time we are tired, and return to Flexbury Hall for a good meal and a night's sleep.

The following day (the last in the area looking for Pascoes according to Doreen) we headed back to Bradworth Village and talked to local people, and finding nothing with the exception that a Mr. C.T. Collacott was a local historian and would be able to help us. However, he was in Wales for a week. We found his home and wrote him a note giving him what information we had along with a five pound note for his trouble, if he could assist us in the future.

Leaving Bradworth shortly before noon, we headed back south towards "England" and found ourselves in the area of Hobsworthy, so located the Joffrey home the old gentleman of 97 years had mentioned the previous day. Mr. & Mrs. Joffrey were very spry, 74 and 75 years old, and they invited us both into their home for tea at 1:30 p.m. in the afternoon. They were quite pleased to meet Pascoes from Canada, and I might say we were also quite pleased to finally meet a Pascoe in England.

They seemed sure that our ancestors were related, as the Pascoe population in North Cornwall and Devon, ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ was not that great. (I should note that while in London we searched the archives at Somerset house for a day, and found no evidence of Pascoes in the north, but found thousands upon thousands in Southern Cornwall within a 50 mile radius of Pensance).

Mr. & Mrs. Jeffreys were kind enough to go back in our car approximately 25 miles to the Hamlet of Woodford and Parish of Morwenstowe where we visited the historic church and searched the churchyards for tombstones, meeting with success, but not real tie-in with our own Pascoes yet.

Mrs. Jeffreys was born in Woodford and showed us the ancestral English Cottage with thatched roof, of which I took a picture. It is possible our ancestors were also residents of this home, as it is, I would believe, centuries old.

On taking the Jeffreys back to their home, they wished us to stay and visit and eat again, however, we begged off and headed West for Bournouth, our Pascoe search finished for the moment.

The following and continuing history of the Pascoes has since unfolded as a consequence of our visit and the extremely good facts forwarded to us by Mr. C. T. Collacott, the old gentleman we missed in Bradworth.

Dear Miss (or Mrs.) Pascoe:

Your letter of April 19, 1977 has been forwarded to me here in the corporate offices of Amcord, Inc.

In response to one or two of your questions, yes, the founder of Pascoe Steel Corporation was an individual and, in fact, it was me. Pascoe Steel Company was founded in 1947 with a modest capital of $242. It grew in size over a period of years until in 1968, at which time it attained sales of over $45 million, it was acquired by a company named American Cement Corporation... which is the present company I am working for. The name was changed from American Cement Corporation to Amcord, Inc. approximately three years ago.

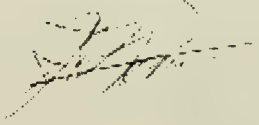
My father was born in England in Cornwall near Land's End. He came to America about 1910 or 1911 and a few years later met my mother, whose family name was Gozzard, and were married in 1912. I was born in 1916 and am the only child of that marriage.

My father's father died when my father was very young, so I know very little of that end of the family. My father's mother lived to the fantastic age of 96 and died approximately four or five years ago. My father lived until age 83, and passed away two years ago. Although I was an only child I have three sons who will hopefully carry on the Pascoe name. The oldest son, age 19, is William T. Pascoe IV, the second son is Michael Pascoe and the third son is Marc Jonathan Pascoe.

My father's career after arriving in America was such that he worked in the state of Ohio for about three or four years for one of the railroad companies. During that time he took international correspondence school courses in electrical engineering and in about 1919 or 1920 was employed by Westinghouse Electric. He remained in the employ of Westinghouse Electric until his retirement at age 65. During the course of his business career with Westinghouse, he lived in the cities of Chicago, St. Louis and Houston in that order. After his retirement he worked at Pascoe Steel Corporation as a consultant and maintained that activity until about two years before his death. His death was a result of a massive stroke that resulted in one-half of his body being paralyzed. He fought very gamely to survive, but after about five months passed away.

I believe the above gives you a thumbnail sketch of our family history. I will look forward to keeping in touch with you.

Warm regards,



W. T. Pascoe:p

Dinner Rolls Spark Interest In Mealtimes

By BETTY MARSH
Blade Staff Writer

ALONG about this time of year appetites may get bogged down at your house.

It's sometimes a struggle just to coax the family indoors long enough to eat.

Youngsters may be hungry but they begrudge the time it takes to come inside, wash for meals and remain seated throughout the dinner hour.

And you can't picnic every day in the week—at least not when evenings still are cool.

A hot, sit-down meal is in order and the homemaker had best pull out all the stops in an attempt to make mealtimes as attractive as possible so there will be no family feuds—at least until after all who hunger are fed.

Food Treat

There's a warm and homey touch about hot rolls that seems to spell something rather special in the way of food treats.

We'll just bet that when the family catches a whiff of the delicious fragrance that spells homemade ones to your list of to the table on the double.

There's an art to making rolls and if you would add homemade rolls to your list of culinary laurels best make sure that, first off, you always use reliable ingredients, a good recipe and standard equipment.

Mrs. Pascoe's recipe for the delicious hot rolls came her way via an uncle, George Greener of Boston, a gourmet with a flair for cooking.

A retired director of the North Bennett Street Industrial School in Boston, Mr. Greener is a man of many interests.

Since his retirement from the industrial school, he has operated Courtright House, an interior decorating concern, where he specializes in lovely old Venetian glass, antiques and interiors.

For the soup course you might want to serve shrimp bisque, also pictured here.

It comes to dinner in jiffy time, for it is made with a convenient package of chicken noodle soup mix. Serve it in your prettiest soup dishes to show it off to best advantage.

Letter to this author, from Barbara Kreidler Pascoe (the lady in the newspaper article preceding this page) in 1981...

July 6, 1981

Dear Mrs. Pascoe,

Replying to your letter of June 22, 1981, I can offer the following information which comes from my husband's memory;

His father was Edward Charles Pascoe, born in 1882, and died in 1942, the son of Lewis and Isabel Pascoe, born in Belleville, Ontario, Canada where he grew up.

He had two sisters, no brothers; older sister, Nell, born to Lewis and his first wife, name unknown
Edward Charles and Louisa born to Lewis and second wife, Isabel. Neither sister married.

Edward left Belleville, settled in Buchanan, Michigan where he married Harriet Stears. They had three children, the oldest is my husband;

1 Lewis Charles Pascoe, born 1921
2 Edward Sanderson Pascoe, born 1922
3 Josephine Louise Pascoe, born 1924

My husband has sketchy knowledge of his father's family. His father had a cousin, Ern Dickens who died within the last two years, who spent his life in Belleville, Ontario. My husband keeps in touch with Ern Dickens' children who are still living in and around Belleville. Ern Dickens and Edward Charles Pascoe were cousins related through their mothers who were sisters.

There seems to be a pattern in the names of George and Richard in the Pascoe family. However, our son, George was named from my side of the family, and our son, Richard, just because we liked the name. These are the two sons mentioned in the article from the Toledo Blade.

We have had copies made of your letter and sent them to my husband's mother, Harriett and his sister, Josephine. His mother is married now to Edmund C. Mogford, is 87 years old, and lives in Delray Beach, Florida. His sister, Josephine is married to Robert Alsaker and also lives in Delray Beach. His mother and sister may have more information about the family background of my husband's father.

For whatever help this may be to you in your Genealogy Research, we are happy to give you. I hope you will excuse the delay. Your letter arrived the day my husband was having eye surgery and our gathering of this information had to be postponed until now.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Lewis C. Pascoe

Dear Patty: It was such a surprise to receive a copy of your letter to my son, Lewis C. Pascoe, who lives in Cincinnati, Ohio. I am sure that you have had a reply from Barbara, his wife. How I would love to have a visit with you!

I was teaching music in the schools of Buchanan when I met Edward C. Pascoe. He was with the Clark Equipment Company and it was music that drew us together. We had 23 happy years together and our three children all came in three years. We always spent our vacations in Belleville, Canada and we loved the same things. Our garden was a show place for he was a life mamber of the Rose Society of America. We loved to fish and I have always regretted that I never knew his father. I know he was loved by all who knew him.

Edward C. Pascoe died in his sleep with a heart attack and time stopped as all Buchanan mourned his death and friends gathered at the Presbyterian Church to pay tribute to him. He was 59 years old.

Two years later I married Edmund C. Mogford who was a dear friend and in the same company. We visited Belleville and kept close to the Pasc family. One day my husband said to me, "Harriet, you know every fence-post in Canada and now I am going to show you the rest of the world". And, h has for we have travelled in every direction.

Needless to say,your letter started my thoug and I have tried to relive the Pasooe years. I w be 87 years old this August and I do have so muc for which to be thankful. Mr. Mogford is 90 yea old so we do enjoy our life together and we say "thank you" for our blessings. We have a large family for they are all like brothers and sister and we expect our 23rd great grandchild this Aug ? It will be a Pascoe born in Toledo to Linda John I will see that the history of the Pascoe family goes to my son's family. He is Edward S. Pascoe and he and his wife live in Korea at this time w he is with Dana Corp of Toledo. This world gets smaller every year. You can see that I find it hard to close this letter. I hope you will conti correspondence with my families. Thank you for your kindnesses.

I would love to know more about the "Family Heitage Book". I have so many family records. My great grandmother was of the Phelps family which goes back to the 1600.'s

Yours truly,

Harriet E. Mogford

This author and her spouse have spent untold hours in the Detroit Public Library, Burton Historical Collection, reading microfilm, browsing through page after page of information trying to connect all the pieces. Unknown are the number of obituaries in the collection for the surname of Pascoe and how it all comes together, this author did not have the time to pursue. This I shall leave to another.

A tragedy of genealogical interest was an article about a fire in Detroit, on June 1, 1992 which killed ten people. This was a boarding home where ten mentally impaired residents died. The DETROIT NEWS on Wednesday, June 3rd, 1992 edition "... indicated a history of problems at this facility which had 'troubles' since 1979. The victims who died lived hard lives, burdened with poverty, mental and physical disability and loneliness. But within the confines of their boarding home and the troubled neighborhood that surrounds it these men and women touched people with kindness, intelligence and love. Despite fire and safety hazards, and a long standing court order that should have barred the owners from taking in boarders, the house on Pingree slipped through the cracks of the system. The fire was the city's deadliest blaze in decades. The facility had lost state license in the mid-70's because of 'imminent danger to resident, DSS[Department of Social Services ??]' ..the victims were: Richard Pascoe, 89; Juanita Maxwell, 63; Geraldine Hammond , mid 60's; Joe Shinske, 60; Delroy Johnson, 52; Michael Turner, 46; Herman Holt, 54; Theresa Hunter, 73; Viola Mull, 65; Steven Gretroff, 60. Two others were hospitalized, Willie Cameron, 60 and John Marshall, 45. Flukes, the home's night care taker said there were sixteen residents in the facility, none were wheel chair bound, but some mentally impaired. He was asleep when he first heard of the fire. Flukes desperately tried to rescue the sleeping residents and had to be restrained from re entering the burning house. Helen Pernell, shift manager, quoted something special about each of the residents she said that Richard Pascoe, 89 was a sports fan who watched tv on Monday nights...about 9 or 9:30 the last thing he said to me was that he would see me in the morning...

Xeroxed from the newspaper article is further information about Richard Pascoe..if truly he was 89 years of age in 1992 when the fire happened that would make his birth circa 1903...relative who left Canada for the US? Don't know...but worthy of inclusion in this volume..

RICHARD PASCOE

He 'was a quiet guy'

Pascoe, 89, lived at Nelson homes for about 36 years and had a son and a niece who sometimes visited, said home owner Robert Nelson.

Pascoe had been a supervisor at a Detroit company, Nelson said, but he was unable to provide more information because authorities removed patient files from the rubble.

Deborah Spencer, 42, a former Nelson home resident, said she lived at 88-90 Pingree in 1986.

"He and I used to talk," Spencer said. "He was a quiet guy. We talked a lot of war stories about the good old days. We'd sit and watch the baseball game on TV."

Dear Ms. Pascoe

Thank you for your letter of July 11, regarding your family's genealogical history.

I regret to inform you that in our general biographical listings we have no record of a Richard Sr. and Jr., John, Arthur, Kathleen, or Helen Pascoe. I checked through the membership rolls of the churches in Woodstock, Ontario and found that there was a record of a Mrs. Martha Pascoe, who was baptised in the First Baptist Church in the year of 1860. Unfortunately I found no record in that or other Woodstock Baptist Church records of the names for which you are searching.

The following is the address of the Ontario Genealogical Society, whose listing of family names and related information is more comprehensive than ours:

RE: Burials in the Baptist Cemetery, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada

Dear Reverend Furry:

I am in the process of writing a family history and our quest has taken us from Cornwall, Wales to Woodstock, Canada to Detroit, Michigan and Sandusky, Ohio. My husband's great great grandfather, was born in Cornwall, and the family came to Woodstock in the 1840's. The family name is PASCOE

In the Baptist Cemetery, there in Woodstock are buried many Pascoe's and our particular interest is one RICHARD PASCOE, 1793-1875. His name is on the same stone as John Pascoe, his wife, Ethel Burgess, Arthur Pascoe, Kathleen Pascoe and Helen Pascoe MacKay.

Unable were we to find an obituary at the local public library nor at the local historical society for this Richard Pascoe. We are hoping that since it is the Woodstock Baptist Cemetery, we hope that church records for this cemetery may shed some light on (1) specific date of date, (2) any additional information regarding the family and the funeral.

Our Richard Pascoe, had a son, Richard Pascoe, Jr., (1822-1878). His certificate of death from Canada, Registration # 1878-05-010585, states, "died 01 February 1878 in Woodstock, Oxford County, aged 29 years and his occupation was that of a photographer." We did not find stone for the second Richard Pascoe, we do not know if he is buried in Woodstock, nor could we find an obituary for him either. Do your church records indicate any information on this family member as well?

I am sure that you get many requests for information and trust that you can help us in completing these circles of life prior to going to print on this family history.

I thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation and will gladly reimburse you for your time and any expenses involved.

Cordially,

Patty D. Pascoe

GILBERT FAMILY

Among the possessions of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe was a tidy brown envelope with bits and pieces of information written on various sizes of pieces of paper. I do not know where all the information came from ... but its' inclusion in this manuscript obviously is of importance. Perhaps another day, another time, another generation can pick up these pieces and put together a more complete line for the GILBERT FAMILY.

This coat of arms was among those belongings and written was the fact that "...the name GILBERT is Saxon, eminent in the annals of the Church, State and Learning of England, through the centuries.....its early and principal home is Devonshire, and from this stock, distinguished in naval and commercial history and geographical science and discoveries, issued many branches, planted in other portions of the country. At Marledon on the River Darte, is a chapel built by the ancestors of the Gilbert's, who have an ancient monument there...description of Greenway, the ancient seat of the Gilbert's as very pleasantly and commodiously placed, with a most delightsome prospect to behold the barks and boats to pass and repass upon the river flowing from Dartmouth to Totnes. This hath long continued in a family of much estimation, the Gilbert's alias Jilberts of knightly rank. It is very anciently written Gislebert or Gerebert, as in the Conqueror's Book of Survey among the Tenures of Devon. Of this progeny have been divers of great desert and sufficiency..."[22]

We know that Mary Jane Gilbert born September 9, 1849 in Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, married on May 6, 1872, Charles James Pascoe. In 1977, this author obtained a copy of that marriage

Mary Jane(nee Gilbert) Pascoe, about 18 years of age

Parents of Mary Jane (nee Gilbert) Pascoe were George Gilbert and Bridget V(ergn?) Nolan. George Gilbert was born 1816, Galway Ireland. Bridget was born circa 1822 in County of Mayo,Ireland. The older and younger siblings of Mary Jane Gilbert were: Margaret Gilbert born May 5, 1846 who married _____Connors; James Gilbert born November 5, 1847; George Gilbert Jr., born September 2, 1851; John Gilbert born November 3, 1853 and died in October 1859; and, Thomas Gilbert, born November 5, 1860.

George Gilbert and his wife, Bridget (nee Nolan) Gilbert taken on the farm near "GrandCircus Park", Detroit, Michigan, which in the old days was a very nice section of the city...so this author has been told.

Margaret "Maggie" (nee Gilbert) Connors, sister of Mary Jane(Gilbert) Pascoe

Walter J. Gilbert, @ 882 Simpson Street, Plymouth, Michigan, is the son of James Gilbert, who was brother to Mary Jane (nee Gilbert) Pascoe. In the handwriting of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe, Marie had to have been gathering information on the family lines for quite sometime.

And, who is George Gilbert in California? Don't know, but among the possessions of the late Marion Leichtweis, daughter of Margaret Pearl Pascoe. Marion's daughter, Patricia Kosky affirms that she recalls as a little girl hearing of Gilbert relation in California!

Geo. Gilbert

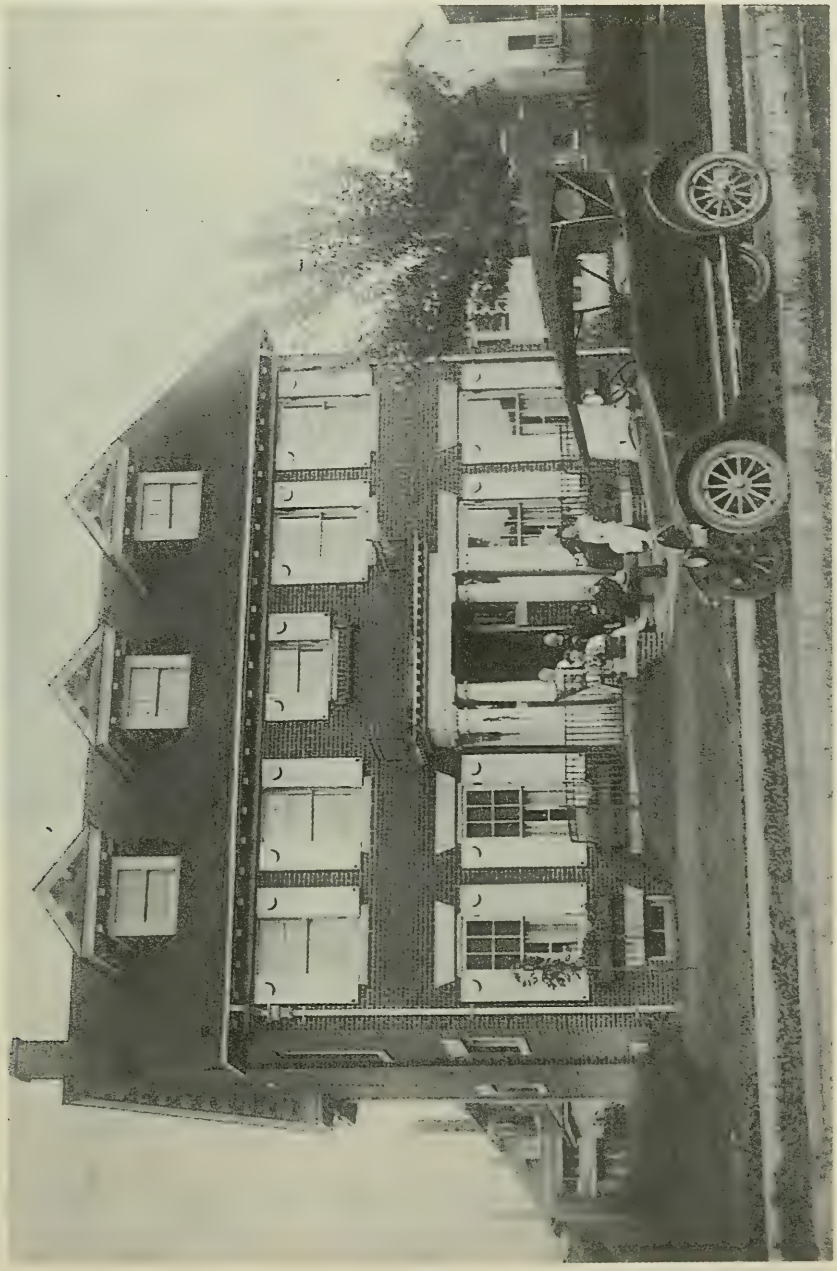
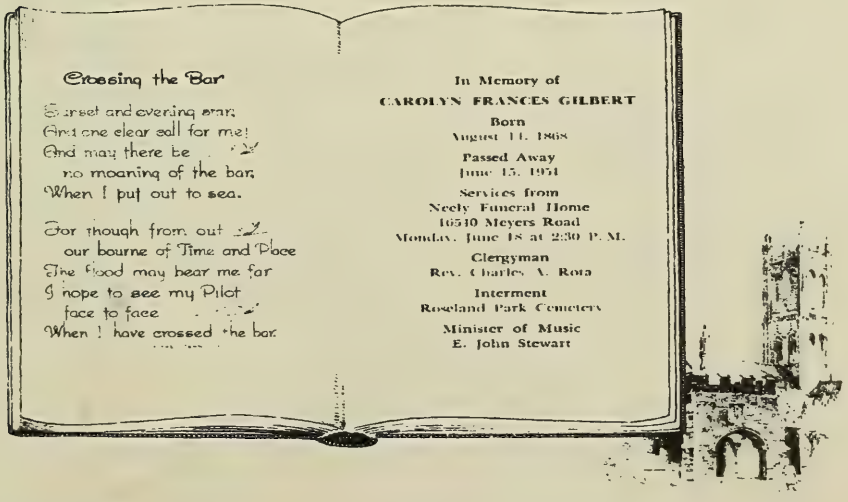
Yucaipa Calif. 92399

Again, among the possessions of Marion Leichtweis, was this photograph. On the back is written, James Gilbert Home, 1471 Webb Avenue, Detroit, Michigan. A very nice home with a nice car in the front yard.



An enlargement of the photograph tells us what we want to know from l to r: Mary Jane Gilbert Pascoe; we believe, her brother, Thomas Gilbert; and, the wife of Thomas Gilbert. Altie Pascoe Leser (in front of Mary Jane), Charles James Pascoe with his summer straw hat on and Clara Bippus Pascoe. Could George Pascoe be taking the photograph?

This photograph was among the possessions of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe and in the envelope for the surname, GILBERT and indicated only as the Gilbert Home in Detroit, Michigan. No knowledge of whose home, but she would not have kept this had it not been of some significance in her research; and, what is the significance of this funeral card, for Carolyn Francis Gilbert, among the possessions of Marion Leichtweis? Don't know but she kept it for many years and obviously for good reasons.



Marie Maunus Pascoe had been gathering information for quite sometime on the family history..among her possessions was this letter written August 12, 1953 by her sister in law, Margaret Pearl (Pascoe) Johnson, giving us some insight into the Gilbert Family. Unfortunate for us, we will never know the "..Gilbert relation she [Pearl] visited in Detroit quite often.." Patricia Kosky, granddaughter of Pearl remembers that the family also went to Detroit to visit Margaret "Aunt Maggie"(Gilbert) Connors as well.

Mt. Elliott Cemetery, Detroit, Michigan, stands today as an example of unparalled beauty. As you walk or drive through the beautiful arched entrance, one appreciates the feeling of peace given here.....

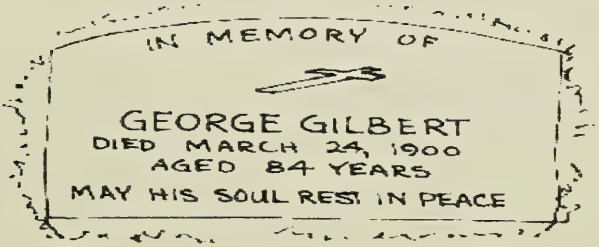
On the Gilbert Family Plot, records indicate the following deceased individuals and their dates of interment: (1) George Gilbert. Jr., aged 47 years on November 28, 1898; (2) George Gilbert age 84 years on March 26, 1900; (3) Bridget Gilbert age 80 years on September 5, 1902; (4) Margaret M. McGill aged 50 years on August 5, 1907; (5) Margaret Connor aged 73 years on February 18, 1920; (6) Edward Goddeyne aged 39 years on October 24, 1896; (7) Adelaide Goddeyne aged 54 years on July 25, 1912; (8) Martin Mangold aged 60 years on March 29, 1897; (9) Eugena Mangold aged 77 years on December 19, 1917; (10) Charles Gooddeyne aged 53 years on September 6, 1943; (11) Loretta H. Osebold aged 68 years on July 11, 1956 and (12) Henry J. Osebold aged 69 years on October 8,1960. Related to one another? Don't know!

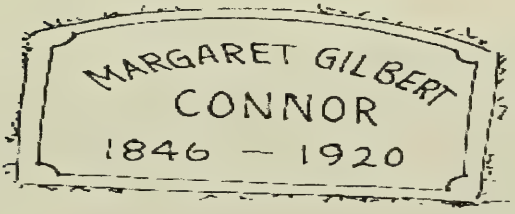
The Director of Mt. Elliott Cemetery, Detroit, Michigan, Mark Gracely extended to us strangers, searching for information a warm welcome and "how can I help you?" His records indicate that the original "plot" had four graves: George Gilbert, George Gilbert Jr., Bridget Gilbert and Margaret Connors.

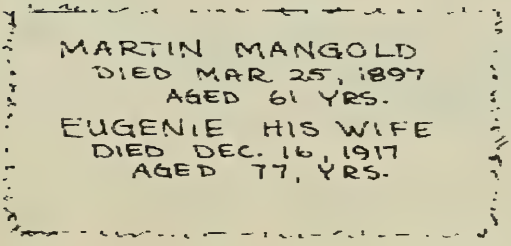
Unfortunately there was not a stone for Bridget Gilbert, nor for George Gilbert, Jr.

We know that Margaret Gilbert Connors is the sister of Bridget Gilbert Nolan.

The Pascoe Family believes that Eugenie Mangold, is "Jennie" Connors, daughter of Margaret Connors.For all twelve graves, there are only 3 stones:







From the Records at Mt. Elliott Cemetery and from microfilm of obituaries we know the following information: (1) Connors, Margaret, 73 years, interred on 18 February 1920 and *widow of Thomas, mother of George of Whitecourt, Alberta and Mrs. A. MRS. MARGARET O. GILBERT

Illness Is Fatal to Mrs. Gilbert

Member of Oakman Family Dies

With the death Sunday morning of Mrs. Margaret Oakman Gilbert, Detroit lost a resident who was widely known and active in civic life before the beginning of the century. Mrs. Gilbert was active in civic and political affairs in the days of Hazen S. Pingree, as mayor of Detroit.

Death came to Mrs. Gilbert at her home, 2884 Oakman Blvd., following an illness of almost a year. She was born in Detroit 79 years ago and attended the old Houghton School as a classmate of the late Mayor William C. Maybury.

Mrs. Gilbert was the sister of Robert Oakman, at one time Pingree's secretary, and an active figure in the political life of the city for 40 years. She is also survived by two other brothers, Milton J. and Joseph Oakman, and by one sister, Mrs. Fred Baylis, of Sidney, Australia.

Also surviving are three children, LeRoy J. Gilbert, Walter and Clara. Mrs. Gilbert was the widow of James Gilbert, who was identified with the molding business in Detriot, prior to his death four years ago.

Mrs. Gilbert was a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. Burial will take place from the residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

MRS. THOS. D. GILBERT ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS AFTER LIFE OF GOOD WORKS.

BORN AT SOO MISSION; LAST OF NOTED FAMILY

Father Was Rev. Abel Bingham, Pioneer Indian Missionary—Her Sister, Mrs. J. C. Buchanan, Died Here Last Spring.

Mrs. Thomas D. Gilbert died late last night at her home, 55 North Lafayette street. She had been in feeble health several months.

Mrs. Gilbert was the last of her family, the children of Rev. Abel Bingham, for many years a missionary among the Indians, first with the Senecas in New York state and later for a quarter of a century at Sault Ste. Marie, where Mrs. Gilbert was born.

A younger sister, Sophia Bingham, married Dr. John C. Buchanan in 1854, and a year later the family moved here, and in this city Mr. Bingham died in 1865. In 1871 Mrs. Gilbert married Thomas D. Gilbert and until his death their married life was ideal.

Mrs. Gilbert was foremost in the city's musical, literary and social life for many years. She had a sweet voice and sang in the old Congregational church choir. She was one of the charter members of the Ladies' Literary club. She was active in all works of philanthropy and few women in Grand Rapids were more loved or will be more sincerely mourned than she. She was sincere in all she did and deeds of kindness came from her heart. She had a faith and charity that was boundless, and true religion was a part of her life. Amid all her sorrows, and she had many of them as one by one those she loved passed away, she maintained her courage and was the comforter for those around her instead of the one seeking comfort. Since the death of her sister, Mrs. John C. Buchanan, March 11 of this year, her niece, Miss Angie Buchanan, has lived with her.

Mrs. Gilbert is survived by the following nieces and nephews: Miss Angie Buchanan, Claude R. Buchanan and E. S. Buchanan of Grand Rapids; Mrs. C. E. Woodruff and Mrs. A. R. Herrick of Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. S. B. Bliss of Miami, Fla.; Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hulbert of Bay City, and Miss Angie M. Bingham and Mrs. Grace H. Bessey of Pensacola, Fla.

The funeral arrangements will be made later.

Mrs. Thomas D. Gilbert, whose intelligence, wealth and high order of citizenship had made their impress on the city for more than fifty years, died last night. Acute indigestion was the cause of Mrs. Gilbert's death, the end coming quite suddenly, she having been seriously ill only since Sunday night. Since homecoming week Mrs. Gilbert had been more delicate in health, but had been out several times. She suffered a severe shock last March in the death of her sister, Mrs. John C. Buchanan, who with her daughter, Miss Angie Buchanan, had lived with Mrs. Gilbert for five years. Mrs. Gilbert was the last of her father's family.

Mrs. Gilbert had a long and eventful life. Born in Sault Ste. Marie, where her father, Rev. Abel Bingham, was a missionary to the Indians, she knew the hardships of pioneer days. Mrs. Gilbert's younger sister, Sophia Bingham, married Dr. John C. Buchanan in 1854 and this led to the family coming to Grand Rapids the year following. Mr. Bingham died here in 1865 and Mrs. Gilbert was married in 1871. Both she and Mr. Gilbert were keenly interested in the growth of Grand Rapids and their influence had much to do with the city's progress at that time.

Active in Intellectual Life of City.

After Mr. Gilbert's death in 1894 Mrs. Gilbert carried out alone the same spirit which her husband had always maintained toward civic matters. In Fulton Street park a bust of Mr. Gilbert has been placed. Taking an active part in the city's social and intellectual life, Mrs. Gilbert was a leader for many years. She possessed a sweet voice and often was heard in public. She sang in the choir of the Congregational church when it was located where the Porter block now stands. She was a member of the St. Cecilia society and of the Ladies' Literary club. Mrs. Gilbert was interested in philanthropy and was a member of the Charity Organization society, the Humane society and gave generously toward many other charities. She was a member of Fountain Street Baptist church for half a century.

Mrs. Thomas D. Gilbert.

Possessed of an insight and a keenness of perception Mrs. Gilbert, up to the last days of her life, maintained a vigorous interest in politics and leading questions of the city, state and nation. She could discuss intelligently all issues of importance with leading men of the city. Many of these were her close friends and enjoyed calling at her home for profitable conversation.

Last of Her Family.

Within the last year Mrs. Gilbert addressed the newsboys at Happy Hour on the occasion of the presentation of the colors by the D. A. R. The boys always gave her the most respectful attention. She first won their hearts when a few years ago she talked to them one Humane Sunday about her horses.

Had Mrs. Gilbert lived and enjoyed her health she would have been one of the first women today to cast her vote for the bonding issue, providing more playgrounds and parks for the city she loved. Probably no woman was ever more esteemed and loved by an entire city, among rich and poor alike, than Mrs. Gilbert. She had a wide circle of personal friends and a still wider circle of acquaintances.

No children survive Mrs. Gilbert, but she leaves several nieces and nephews: Miss Angie Buchanan, Claude R. Buchanan and B. Stuart Buchanan of Grand Rapids, Mrs. C. E. Woodruff and Mrs. A. R. Herrick of Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. S. B. Bliss of Miami, Fla.; Dr. H. B. Hulbert of Bay City and Miss Angie M. Bingham and Mrs. Grace H. Bessey of Pensacola, Fla. At the time of Mrs. Gilbert's death B. Stuart Buchanan was in Albany, N. Y., and the funeral arrangements will not be made until his return home.

D. Valley Stuart, a professional genealogical record searcher from Gross Point Woods, Michigan found for me in 1997, the following information taken from the "...1850 US Census for Detroit Michigan, page 122R, taken on September 21, House # 1467 and Family # 1765 with our George Gilbert is listed as head of household, age 34, laborer and born in Ireland. Bridget is listed as age 25 and born in Ireland. Margaret is age 4, born in Michigan; James is age 3, born in Michigan; and, Mary is age 1 born in Michigan". Known is the fact that our George Gilbert, spouse of Bridget (nee Nolan) Gilbert, served during the Civil War, as a Private in Company E, 15th Regiment, Michigan Volunteers. He was taken prisoner by the enemy on 2nd or 3rd of October at the Battle of Corinth [Mississippi]. The following military papers were secured by this author and tell us more about George Gilbert and his life .....

Prior to reading about our SCHEID ancestors and descendants, this author desires to inform the reader(s) that the name of SCHEID has been spelled with many variations over the years, least we not forget that many times when recording civil records that careful attention is not paid to accuracy of names and dates as attested by many generations.

"Aunt Edna Scheid" and my dear friend, Florence Russell Zorn have shared with me a volume entitled: The Scheid Book, A Genealogy, History and Biographical Story of the Scheid Family in Germany and America 1635-1952, by George William Scheid published in October 1952. This volume details and traces descendants of Johann Wilhelm Scheid born 1738 to his ancestor, George William Scheid born 1883.

In the volume, I find, only one mention of our Anton Scheid in "translations of land leasing and public sale" done in Heringen, Germany as recorded on 11 September, 1844:

Name	Florins	Francs
Anton Scheid	6	5

We know that our Anton Scheid(1801-1865 who married Katherine Maus (1807-1882) was the son of Anton(y) Scheid and Anna Katherine Heck.

So, what is the relationship between our Anton Scheid ancestor and the Johann Wilhelm Scheid born in 1738? Don't know!

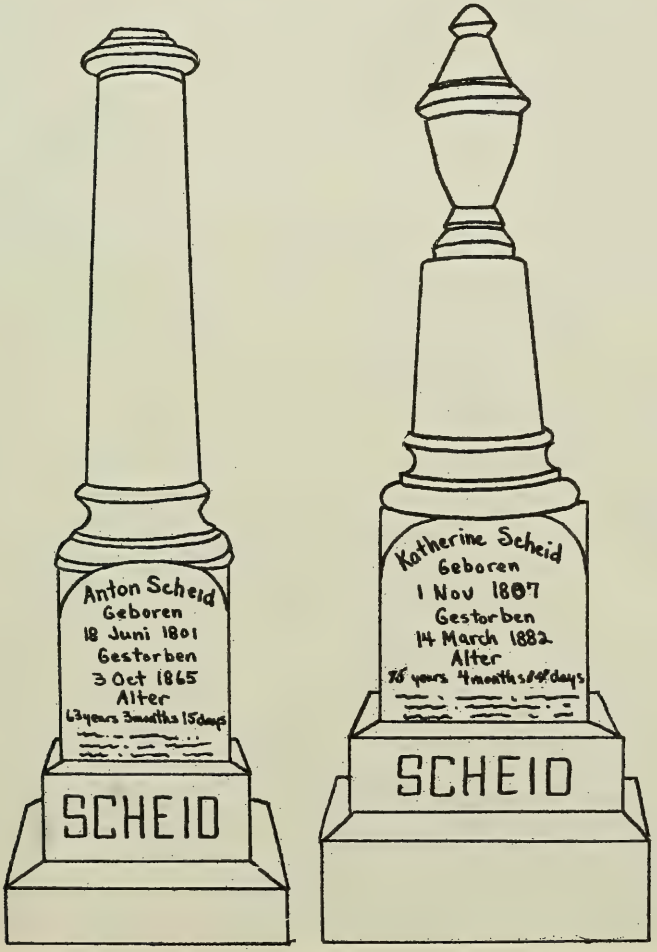
Do know that the Anton Scheid Homestead was established in the 1850's, at Pontiac, Peru Township, Huron County, Ohio.

Do know that referencing the same volume as above, on page, 321, it states the following: ".. On Monday forenoon, at 10 o'clock, July 18, 1859, thirty members signed the articles of organization in the Pontiac Schoolhouse ... and on July 30th, the Congregation accepted the gift of Anton Scheid of the plot of land adjacent to his home upon which to build their new church [St. Peter's Lutheran Church].

Compiling what the late Marie Maunus Pascoe entrusted to me and attempting to make it as current as possible, I have done my best. Perhaps another generation, another time another place, can tie this all together, as this author will proceeds with known documented family lines of our ancestor, Anton Scheid and his beloved wife, Katherine Maus from the "home place" in Pontiac, Peru Township, Huron County, Ohio.

ANTON SCHEID FAMILY

Our known Scheid ancestors, are Anton Scheid (son of Anthon(y) Scheid and Anna Katherine Heck Scheid) and his beloved wife, Katherine (nee Maus) Scheid. Buried are they in St. Peter's Lutheran Church Cemetery on Sandhill Road, Pontiac, Huron County, Ohio, just off of Route 99.



In the summer of 1998 at "The Scheid Family Farm", next to St. Peter's Lutheran Church, I took this photograph to see if Mitzi Denzer could possibly identify it. It was among the belongings of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe and in the box of family keepsakes, marked "Scheid." I was elated, when Mitzi went up into the attic and brought down to show me, the original of this photograph. In an original large frame with just a touch of what might be a water color, was the same woman!

(Katherine Maus Scheid, wife of Anton Scheid)

Information regarding this family, has been obtained from the late Edna Scheid, pages from the Scheid Family Bible, HEYMAN GENEALOGY 1630-1973, HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY OHIO by Aldrich in 1889, STANDARD HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY by Hewson L. Peeke in 1909, personal letters and correspondence of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe,personal letters from the late Ethel Heyman and correspondence from many others. When known, documentation is credited. When not, this author can only attribute that it was among personal effects of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe as she was gathering information on this family.

Our ancestor, Anton Scheid, son of Anton Scheid and Anna Katherine Heck was born June 18, 1801 in Heistenbach (near Deitz), Nassau, Germany. Anton married on October 14, 1827 in Germany to Johanette Katherine Margaret Maus. She was born November 1, 1807 in Ruppert, Nassau, Germany and was the daughter of Johann Phillip Maus and Marie Katharine Henneman. To this union were born nine children: (1) Wilhelm Peter who went by "William", (2) Anton, (3) Katherine, (4) Johannes Peter who went by "Peter", (5) Johannette, (6) Anna Marie known as "Emma", (7) Karl known as "Charles, (8) Elizabethe and an (9) unnamed daughter.

Child # 1 known as William and # 4 known as Peter were the first of the family to come, emigrating to the United States in 1852. They bought 500 acres of land off of Sandhill Road on Route 99, Pontiac, Ohio. Parents and rest of the brothers and sisters came in 1854 and settled on the farm in Pontiac, Peru Township,Huron County, Ohio.

Anton and family built the "homestead" on Sandhill Road, Pontiac, Ohio. He also gave the land for the cemetery and the church known as, St. Peter's Lutheran Church, [now on Sandhill Road], Pontiac, Ohio in 1859; and he was one of the elders of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. He also gave the land for cemetery at St. John's Lutheran Church known as "Union Corners" (where four townships originally came together),on what is now Route US 250 where Perkins Township, Huron Township, Milan Township and Groton Township merge.

In 1977 Verneita Scheid told this author that a Mrs. Richard Denzer ("Mitzi") of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, had bought the family homestead and was in the process of restoring it. Writing to Mrs. Denzer, naturally I had many questions. In 1984, Mrs. Denzer wrote back to me telling me that they had converted the area of the house that had been added in 1906, a frame section, to an apartment. They wanted someone to live there year round. The restoration had come to a standstill. They had worked on the grounds, restored the front porch partially. Since that time, this author and her spouse have spent many an afternoon, morning and evening "at the home place". A gracious hostess she is, to welcome us with open arms and share her wealth of knowledge about the family - remembrances, photographs, newspaper articles, diaries, the tall beautiful trees, the flowers that are still growing in spring and summer , clothing of the period that our relatives wore, the shawl her grandmother used when she was an immigrant to this country, and even the heavy laden wooden trunk which Anton brought with him from Germany; and yes, even those woodchucks that forever seem to be around! Interesting to 'see' on the front wooden door of the homestead, if one looks just as the right angle, you can see two initials: A S, obviously for Anton Scheid. Last but not least, the peace, serenity of this country home that once was and where it all began.

The "invitation" was the 1st reunion after the Denzer's bought the home place and created by Janet Denzer McGraw for the occasion.

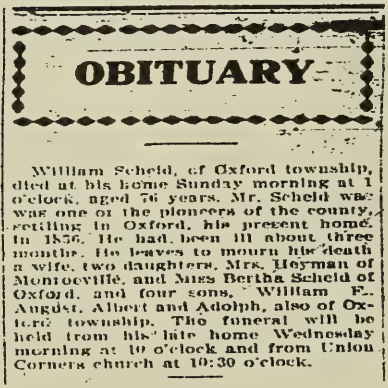
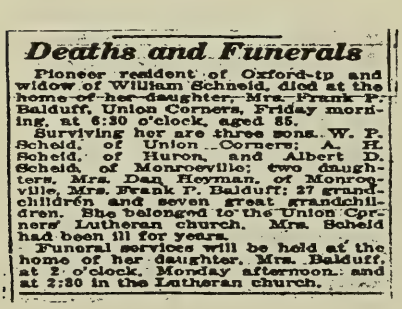
Obituaries for Wilhelm "William"Peter Scheid [28] and Caroline Ohr Scheid [29] give the reader much information about the deceased. Research not only by this author, but the hands of others contradicts the date of death, some say 1904 others, 1884.



OBITUARY

William Scheid, of Oxford township, died at his home Sunday morning at 1 o'clock, aged 76 years. Mr. Scheid was was one of the pioneers of the county, settling in Oxford, his present home, in 1856. He had been ill about three months. He leaves to mourn his death a wife, two daughters, Mrs. Heyman of Monroeville, and Miss Bertha Scheid of Oxford, and four sons, William F., August, Albert and Adolph, also of Oxford township. The funeral will be held from his late home Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and from Union Corners church at 10:30 o'clock.

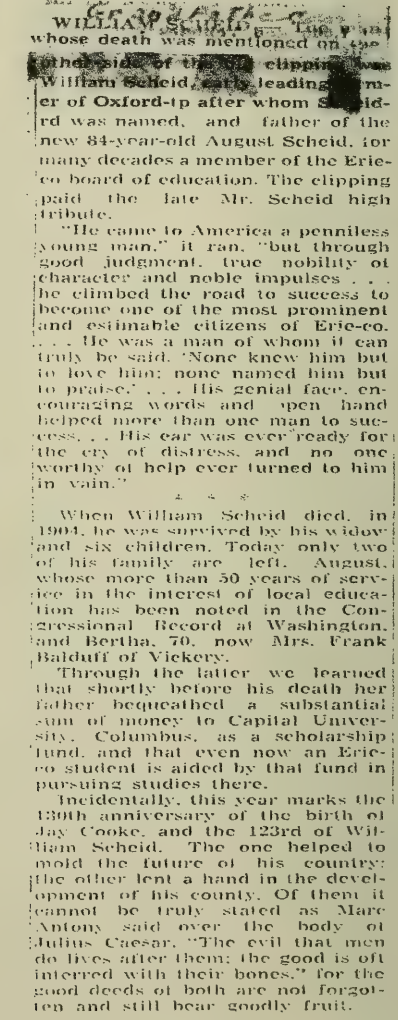


Deaths and Funerals

Pioneer resident of Oxford-tp and widow of William Scheid, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank P. Balduff, Union Corners, Friday morning, at 6:30 o'clock, aged 85.

Surviving her are three sons, W. P. Scheid, of Union Corners; A. H. Scheid, of Huron, and Albert D. Scheid, of Monroeville; two daughters, Mrs. Dan Heyman, of Monroeville, Mrs. Frank P. Balduff; 27 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. She belonged to the Union Corners' Lutheran church. Mrs. Scheid had been ill for years.

Funeral services will be held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Balduff, at 2 o'clock, Monday afternoon, and at 2:30 in the Lutheran church.



WILLIAM [redacted] — The [redacted] whose death was mentioned on the [redacted] side of this [redacted] clipping was William Scheid, [redacted] leading [redacted]er of Oxford-tp after whom S[redacted]id-rd was named, and father of the new 84-year-old August Scheid, for many decades a member of the Erie-co board of education. The clipping paid the late Mr. Scheid high tribute.

"He came to America a penniless young man," it ran, "but through good judgment, true nobility of character and noble impulses . . . he climbed the road to success to become one of the most prominent and estimable citizens of Erie-co. . . . He was a man of whom it can truly be said, 'None knew him but to love him; none named him but to praise.' . . . His genial face, encouraging words and open hand helped more than one man to success. . . His ear was ever ready for the cry of distress, and no one worthy of help ever turned to him in vain."

When William Scheid died, in 1904, he was survived by his widow and six children. Today only two of his family are left. August, whose more than 50 years of service in the interest of local education has been noted in the Congressional Record at Washington, and Bertha, 70, now Mrs. Frank Balduff of Vickery.

Through the latter we learned that shortly before his death her father bequeathed a substantial sum of money to Capital University, Columbus, as a scholarship fund, and that even now an Erie-co student is aided by that fund in pursuing studies there.

Incidentally, this year marks the 130th anniversary of the birth of Jay Cooke, and the 123rd of William Scheid. The one helped to mold the future of his country; the other lent a hand in the development of his county. Of them it cannot be truly stated as Marc Antony said over the body of Julius Caesar, "The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones," for the good deeds of both are not forgotten and still bear goodly fruit.

Edna Pauline "Aunt Edna" Scheid born February 17, 1890 and she died December 27, 1990. This author spent many days over the years with her gleaning information about the Scheid Family. She was an invaluable resource! Without her, I would not know what I know today about our Scheid Family. She put me in touch with so many "leads" and living descendants which makes all the more complete what we know today about our ancestors and descendants.

A newspaper article, entitled "Reunions bring back fond memories for teachers"[34] tells us more about the lady known to us all as "Aunt Edna Scheid" .....

34 Sandusky Register Newspaper , April 11, 1979

Audrey Mackiewicz, Special Features Editor for the SANDUSKY REGISTER newspaper , Sandusky, Ohio, has written: "..Edna Scheid, 89 years and Dorothy Marshall, 82 years, can chat about Sandusky and the area, former students, teaching, Oberlin College - they never lack for topics of conversations. Both are now roommates at Classic Care South, a nursing home on South Columbus Avenue. Their's is a sense of joy as one visits with them, because they bring back so many memories of high school days, people and activities. Miss Scheid was born on a farm in Huron Township, taught 45 years prior to retirement. The first six were in Huron in 'the old red brick high school' and the other 39 years at Sandusky High School while it was across the street from the courthouse. Miss Balduff taught at Sandusky High School for about 35 years.The two both retired about the same time, Balduff in 1956 and Scheid in 1957.Talking of their younger days, the retirees laughed as they told about riding the interurban home and back on weekends..Edna spoke of the green line out of Oberlin going to Norwalk, Monroeville and Bellevue..but I got off at Norwalk and took the LakeShore line to Stop 11, Union Corners...she went on to say how much she enjoyed teaching, I loved it...today, Miss Scheid still gets out once and awhile, praising her wonderful family to do that for her...they spend their days reading, writing letters,mending, doing chores around their room..the library is very good about bringing books to us and my family gave me a subscription to the Register so I have to read that and share it with my friends here...television takes up some of their time...asked about today's teacher strikes and racial stress and the two agreed those things didn't exist when they were teaching..the women praised the administrators they had when they were teaching - George Dietrich, H. B. Williams, F. J. Prout, Karl Whinnery, Wallace Glenwright,Wayne "Pete" Blough, John Wise.....the twosome had nothing but good to say about Sandusky High School, and Edna believes that to this day, look at all the alumni that come back for reunions..they come from all parts of the United States from New England to California and that should show us all they love their school...."

Dear Patty,

This is just to let you know that I have received your letter and attachments. You can be assured that I will do everything I can to supply you with information I may have to help with your project. You have certainly taken on a huge one!

When I was in Sandusky High School (1928-1932) there was a John Pascoe who was older than me - I believe my mother told me he was a cousin - I did not know him personally as I recall. Recall - that is the important word when you are almost 85 years old.

On page 211 of your copy - note that my grandfather's name was William Peter Scheid - not Wilhem.

I would like my name spelled Katharyn Miller - my legal name - although I am known mostly as Kay.
My daughter's name is spelled Carole.

There are many discrepencies about Loretta's family - my brother was an optomptrist - not an opthamblogist. I am sure Loretta will give you the correct names of her 10 children.

No. 4 on your first page of letter: As I recall, my mother told me that Catherine Erf was my great grandmother who married Jacob ~~Scheid~~. In fact, my mother left me a sampler (under glass) which was embroidered by Katherine Erf in 1847 - a requisite in school. Crecelius Germany

Just for your information and not for your book since you are concentrating on the Scheid line: I married Jim Parker in 1973 and at that time he had 2 very young grandchildren - now there are 8....also 2 great grandchildren and 2 more coming in 2000. He has 3 married children. Since none of the grandchilden knew their real grandmother, I claim them as mine.

My husband is 89 years old and has been walking with the aid of a "walker" for 6 years - and at the present time I am in a cast up to my knee because of an injury - no bones broken - however, I must wear it for 6 weeks - and happily 2 weeks have gone by. I am telling you this simply because some of the information I think I have for you is stored high up in a cupboard and some very low in a dresser drawer - perhaps in August I will be able to get to it.

Do you have a copy of a geneology, history and biographical story of the Jacob J Crecelius Family in America 1849 to 1970?
I think Aunt Edna prepared it or at least helped with it - it contains much information about the Scheids. If not, I would be happy to lend you my copy.

Good luck, Patty, from Kay

P.S. As you will note, we are not Computer people!

Edward Crecelius "Brick"Scheid born July 25, 1900, married Alice Baumeister (August 3, 1899 - May 16, 1993), daughter of Edwin Baumeister and Elizabeth (Bruckner) Baumeister, on November 22, 1923. He died January 20, 1975 and she died May 16, 1993. Both are buried at St. John's Lutheran Church Cemetery aka "Union Corners", Milan, Ohio. "Brick" was a farmer all his life and also served as Huron Township Trustee and on the Board for the Third National Bank. Alice at one time worked for the Sandusky City Schools as a secretary to the Sandusky City Schools Superintendent.

David Scheid ... this author spent an enjoyable afternoon, with the widow of David, at her home on East Monroe Street, in Sandusky, Ohio during the month of September 1999. She shared with me this following information: " ...we were married on January 21, 1961 and celebrated thirty years wonderful years together...David was always a happy person, never heard him utter an unkind word to anyone..he loved parties and social gatherings and he liked to dress up in costume for special events..he loved music and was an avid supporter of the theatre and the arts..we attended many floral and FTD conventions all over the word....memorable for me, were those in Canada, Quebec and Montreal, Hawaii, the Caribbean and of course the capitals of foreign countries, London, Paris, and I can not forget New York....these were elegant affairs and to see what other professionals in the floral design business were doing, was one of "awe" and unbelief....then, with the casualness of the United States, these conventions were scaled down and were not the elegance and glamour of days gone by .....in high school David was a cross country runner and very involved with high school drama and music productions... he was going to be a Lutheran Minister and went to school somewhere out in Iowa, didn't like it so he joined the service...he served his country, don't recall which branch of the service, but spent time in Korea as a "wire chief"... do know that he wrote home to his mother asking for her to go to Russell Flower Shoppe and purchase seeds so he could share his love of flowers with the people there...his mother, Alice did do that, purchased the seeds and sent them to David in Seoul, Korea...when he returned home, he attended Ohio State University and was president of his fraternity..David was interested in floral design and their curriculum was catered to horticultural interests, so David then went to school in Cleveland, Ohio at the Brown School of Floral Design....when he finished there, he accepted a position at a flower shop in Norwalk, Ohio and was working for _don't recall the name of the shop, however, anyway, there was a tragedy in the Russell Family of the Russell Flower Shoppe and David became a partner with Helen Buck (Dorothy's sister) and then David purchased the shop in 1962 which he owned until his death.....I met David through friends at work as I had been an employee at the old Memorial Hospital here in Sandusky and then they merged with the Old Good Samaritan Hospital, now known as Firelands Hospital as was the Chief Medical Technician for the lab there for twenty two years.....my in laws, "Brick" and Alice Scheid were wonderful people, "Brick" was very active for a number of years with the Ohio State Fair Board. They were friends with so many people from all over the state of Ohio, including the governors and were so proud of personally meeting and dining with Bob Hope and his wife....Phyllis, Bill's wife, also served on the same fair board and she contributed greatly to that and made as many friends as well. Our life together was wonderful and he touched the lives of so many through his creativeness and his special talent with flowers.

William "Bill" Peter Scheid, second child of "Brick" and Alice Scheid was born March 25, 1928, Sandusky, Ohio married Phyllis Ebert on December 28, 1947 at St. Paul Lutheran Church which at that time was located on the corner of Central Ave and Tyler Street, in Sandusky, Ohio. Phyllis was born June 28, 1929, daughter of Louis J. Ebert an Lucia P. (nee Borchardt) Ebert.

William "Bill" Scheid has been a farmer all his life, as was his father. He was appointed to fill his fathers' unexpired term as Huron Township Trustee in 1975 and then ran for election and served until 1982, when he was elected Erie County Commissioner. He filled that civic duty until 1994, during which time he was president of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio in 1993 having served on the Board of the County Commissioners Association of Ohio for the previous ten years. Bill has played the organ since he was 15 years of age and is still playing. He also has been a board member of Firelands Community Hospital.

Bishop Carpenter conferred THE SILVER CROSS at the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church as a lay reader 1966-1972. In response to my letter in 1981, I received this photograph:

PaulWilliam Scheid and his wife, Margaret "Margie" McClellan Scheid

This three page letter from Margaret (nee McClellan) Scheid to me was written with love to I a stranger, who had never met her.

20 April 1981

Dear Patty,

Following my two months sojourn in California I have really been fully occupied catching up on housekeeping and my big yard. Spring in Alabama is gorgeous but it always means work, too!

I was delighted to be included in your most worthwhile endeavor, your husband's parents, Milton and Marie, had shared many happy times with Paul and me during our Kelley's Island vacations. My only source of information has been The Cruciblis Book* which Edna found several errors, You, no doubt, have a copy of it. If not, I will be happy to loan mine to you.

Concerning pictures; I have gone through hundreds of them and have had difficulty finding very many where Paul and I were not in group pictures. However, I am sending one which was taken about 1966. I have another one which I am taking to have reproduced by a photographer. It is one taken on our patio 1971 or 1972. When it is ready I will send it on to you. I do not wish to give it up without having my own copy for my album. The photo I am enclosing you may keep as I have a copy of it. (I rather prefer the '71 or '72 photo).

I have made some corrections on your letter mailed to me Jan. 26, 1981. Am I puzzled -- William Peter Schaid married Katherine Elizabeth Cracelius. Edna, Rhea, Erwin, Edward and Paul were their children. You will have to help me to follow the ¶ marked "?" in your letter to me when you are not over your head in hard work.

I have an excellent biographical account of Paula' history prepared at Auburn University which I will be most happy to mail to you. I think you would find it most interesting and could, no doubt, use material contained in it. I again will not wish to mail the original but will have a copy made.

I have guests arriving April 30th and they will be with me possibly two weeks. After their departure I will continue to do whatever is possible to help you with this great undertaking.
I have my Scheid family and will be forever grateful that Paul was my beloved husband for those short thirty-five years.

Affectionately,
Margie

In conversation with this author at the Lutheran Memorial Home on May 24, 1998 in the early afternoon, Mr. Miller, aged 90 years shared with me the following information: "...Aletha and I were married for 30 years or more, she died 1961... knew her from Luther League at Church, the leagues from Venice and UnionCorners would get together and one night at the barn dance, that was it, I knew I wanted to marry her....don't recall the exact date, but it was in the summertime...Aletha is buried in the Castalia Cemetery on the Miller Plot ...married the 2nd time, Ilo Ohlemacher, she is now an Alzheimer's patient living in Wadsworth,Ohio....her niece Sue Sipp is her guardian .... I am here at the Lutheran Home because I have had both knees replaced and I couldn't care for myself at home...I flew for the army during peace time in the 1930's at Brooks Field in San Antonio, Texas...gets really hot down there....came home and worked for the local post office for about 8 years...I'd pickup the mail at the New York Central Depot or meet the boats at the boat dock and then haul the mail to the post office downtown... when they decided they didn't want me anymore, I farmed my wife's Scheid Farm @ Plumbrook,(on Scheid Road, west side of US Route 250) then the government came in and robbed us of our land, didn't pay us enough for it, they took it over and we moved to Vickery and bought about 500+ acres there and that's when Aletha died....son, Mark, now farming the land...Patty, I came from a large family too, six brothers and 3 sisters.....my parents were farmers all their lives...my dad's name was Carl Frederick Miller, but everyone called him CF...and my mother's name was Amelia Schoewe. My dad was killed by a train at the RR crossing ...horses got spooked and ran into the train and killed my dad right then and there in Castalia, on Bardshar Road at the New York Central Crossing in 1946 .... mom died about 20 years later....sorry, I can't identify the photographs for you...do come to see me again, I don't get a lot of visitors....I will help you any way I can with your book...it's nice that young people want to know about their family...."

Mr. Miller never had the opportunity to see his contribution to this volume published he died, December 26, 1998 [41] (obit follows):

Interesting note of history, that the Adolph "Addie" Scheid homestead was on Scheid Road, before the government bought the land and made the complex the Plumbrook Ordinance Works which housed the Trojan Powder Company, which made powder and ammunition for the World War II effort. This property still belongs to the United States Government and is now known as the NASA-Glenn Research Center at Plumbrook Station, a field station of the Glenn Research Center at Lewis Field, Cleveland, Ohio. The Addie Scheid homestead was moved to 5401 South Columbus Avenue when the Plumbrook Ordinance Works took over the land from the farmers in the area. The homestead was sold to another relative, John G. Pascoe, where John and his family resided until they retired to Richmond, Virginia, circa 1969. The present owners of the house are a young family with children who have made many additions to the original home.

Recorded for posterity and future generations, is this biographical sketch of August H. Scheid, his father, William Peter Scheid, and his grandfather, Anton Scheid [42] (with spelling as it appears in the document) reads "...August H. Scheid. 'Cedar Towers', the beautiful rural home of Mr. Scheid and his family, is mostly attractively situated on his fine landed estate in the southwestern corner of Huron Township, and with Mrs. Scheid as its gracious and popular chatelaine this idyllic home has become a center of most gracious and cultured hospitality, the family being one of special prominence in the representative social activities of this favored section of Erie County. Mr. Scheid is a scion of one of the old and honored German families of this country and has gained foremost rank among the substantial and progressive farmers and stock-growers of this section of the state, the while he is known for his civic loyalty and pubic spirit an commands the high regard of the people of the county in which he has maintained his home from the time of his birth.

Anton Scheid, grandfather of him whose name initiates this review, was born in the old Duchy of Nassau, now a part of the Province of Hesse-Nassau, Germany, his birth having occurred in the latter part of the eighteenth century and the family having been for many generations one of prominence in that section of the great German Empire. Anton Scheid was reared to the sturdy discipline of the home farm in his fatherland and in the same province his wife was born and reared. There were born their children- Peter, Charles, William, Emma, Nettie and Celia. In 1852 the entire family emigrated to the United States and the long period of sixty five days elapsed ere the old time sailing vessel on which they took passage arrived in the port of New York City. Within a short period of time after landing on American shores the family came to Ohio, and their original location was at Monroeville, Huron County, in which vicinity, the father and his sons were identified with farm operations the ensuing two years, at the expiration of which removal was made to Erie County. Here the son, William Scheid, purchased a tract of land in Oxford Township, placing it under cultivation. Anton Scheid and his wife passed the remainder of their lives at Pontiac, Huron County, and both attained to advanced age. They were devout communicants of the German Lutheran Church and were folk of strong character and sterling worth, their names meriting enduring place on the roster of the honored pioneers of Huron County. Of their children, three are now living and all are residents of Huron County - Charles, Mrs. Janet Heiman and Mrs. Emma Miller.

William Scheid, father of the subject of this sketch, was born in 1828, was reared and educated in his native land and was a young man of twenty-four years at the time of the family immigration to American, his elder brothers likewise having been bachelors at the time and all of the sons and daughter having married in Ohio, where they reared large families of children. In Erie County, William Scheid, wedded Miss Caroline Ohr who was born in the German Fatherland and who was a young woman when she came with her parents and other members of the family to America, the family home having been established on a pioneer farm in Oxford Township, Erie County Ohio, in 1855, where her parents died when venerable in years. Of the children, only Mrs. Scheid and her sister, Mrs. Brown are now living.

After their marriage, William Scheid and his equally devoted and ambitious young wife, began their connubial life on a farm in Oxford Township, their original home having been a pioneer log house, but the passing years have brought to them large and well merited prosperity, Mr. Scheid having been the owner of a valuable and well improved landed estate and having been an honored and influential citizen at the time of his death, which occurred on his old homestead in Oxford Township in 1905, at which time he was seventy four years of age. He was a man of indomitable energy and mature judgment and his success was achieved by honest and earnest endeavor as one of the world's productive workers. His political support was given to the Democratic Party and none has entered more thoroughly into the spirit of American institutions and ideals. He was a consistent communicant of the Lutheran Church, of which his widow has been a devout adherent from the time of her girlhood, she still retaining her residence in Oxford Township and having celebrated her eightieth birthday anniversary in January 1915. Though her physical powers have waned with the advancing years, she retains her mental alertness unimpaired, is fruitful in interesting reminiscences concerning the early days in Erie County and is one of the revered pioneer women of this section of the state. Of the children, the eldest is William, who is one of the representative farmers of Huron Township. He married Miss Catherine Crecelius and that have two sons and two daughters. Emma, the next in order of birth, is the wife of Daniel Heyman, a prosperous farmer in Huron County and they have two sons and six daughters. August H., of this review, was the next in order of birth. Albert, who is a successful farmer in Oxford Township married Miss Catherine Gasteier, and they have three sons and one daughter. Adolph died in April 1915. He was on the old homestead farm in Oxford Township, wedded Miss Ann Kaltenbach, and they had two sons and one daughter [should read, two daughters and one son]. Bertha is the wife of Frank Balduff, a farmer of Oxford Township, and they have one son.

At the old homestead in Oxford Township, August H. Scheid was born on the 30th of October 1866 and while early initiating his association with the practical work of the farm he did not fail to take proper advantages of the educational opportunities afforded him in the public schools, after completing the curriculum of which he took an effective course of study in the Ohio State Normal School at Wauseon and Milan, Ohio. His active and independent career has been one of close and successful identification with the great fundamental industries of agriculture and stock growing of which he has become one of the prominent and substantial representatives and exponents in his native county. In 1902, Mr. Scheid purchased 192 ½ acres of land in Huron Township and this exceptionally fertile and productive tract constitutes his present fine homestead, upon which he has made many improvements all of the best modern order. He erected his splendid farm residence of twelve rooms, modern in architectural design and in all appointments and equipments, and the other buildings on the place are of the best order, including a barn 38 x 68 feet in lateral dimensions. Everything about this fine rural domain indicates careful management, progressiveness and thrift, and Mr. Scheid and his family may consider themselves signally favored in having for their home so admirable rural demesne. Nearly the entire farm is available for cultivation. He is essentially a practical farmer, but is ever ready to adopt the most approved scientific methods and machinery in carrying forward the various operations of the farm, so that he makes a success not an accident but a logical result. His progressiveness has been infectious and he has not been self centered, but rather has done all in his power to further the interests of the farming community and the civic and industrial prestige of his native county. He was foremost in promoting the organization of the Huron Farmers' Institute, was elected its first president and is now the valued incumbent of this position. He and his wife have been prominent and influential in the work of the Patrons of Husbandry and are numbered among the most active and zealous members of the Huron County Grange of this organization, as they are loyal and enterprising, and the atmosphere of their beautiful home is that of distinctive culture and refinement.

Mr. Scheid is found aligned as a stalwart advocate of principles of the Democratic Party and has given effective service in behalf of its cause. That his popularity in his home township is unequivocal is indicated by the fact that though it is a veritable Republican stronghold he is now serving his third term as township trustee. For ten years he has served as a member of the school board of his district and for seven years of this period he has served as its president. He has been an earnest advocate of centralization and consolidation in the affairs of rural schools, and labored earnestly for this improvement in the educational service fully four years before the state authorities of Ohio began to give the matter active consideration. In his own school district, he manifested his initiative, well formed opinions and liberality by individually having constructed a wagon of proper equipment for the transportation of pupils to school, the service which he thus provided having been extended also into an adjoining school district.

In the City of Huron, Mr. Scheid is affiliated with Marks Lodge of the Free and Accepted Masons, beside holding membership in Milan Chapter, Royal Arch Masons and Huron Council, Royal and Select Masters. Mr. Scheid's wife is affiliated with the adjunct Masonic organization, the Order of Eastern Star. They hold membership in the Presbyterian Church at Huron and are numbered among the popular and influential members of Huron Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, of which he has served for a long period as overseer, beside shaving been an official of the Pomona Grange of the County. Mrs. Scheid has been the popular and efficient incumbent of the office of the lecturer of Huron Grange since 1911, and in 1913 had the distinction of being elected to the same office in the general or Pomona Grange of the county, a position which continued the incumbent in 1915. She introduced the system of providing printed programs for the important meetings of the Grange and her inspiring influence has done much to vitalize and make interesting and profitable the work of both the Huron and Pomona Granges. She, as well as her husband, has been active also in the affairs of the Huron Athletic Association, in the organization of which they took a prominent part. In all things pertaining to the advancement of social and general civic interests they are foremost, and to such loyal and enterprising citizens it is due that the life of the farmer and his family is made to vie in attractiveness with that of the metropolitan centers, the benignant of all that can compass intelligent and aspiring people. Mrs. Scheid is a woman of most gracious personality and broad intellectual ..., the quality of leadership in thought and action coming to her as a natural prerogative. She has numerous contributions to local newspapers and her journalistic correspondence has covered a period of a quarter of a century, the while she has attained to high reputation in the presentation of interesting and valuable papers and addresses before the Patrons of Husbandry and the Farmers' Institutes. She has also devoted much of her time to art, being especially proficient in water colors and china painting. Not only is the Scheid Homestead, 'Cedar Towers'one of the ideal places of northern Ohio, but the family also maintain during the heated summer term a beautiful cottage, Winona Lodge, at Rye Beach, on the shores of LakeErie and the city of Huron, this county....."

JOHN H. HEYMANN.

MRS. CATHARINE HEYMANN

43 Williams Brothers, History of Lorain County, Ohio, pages 234 - ???

"...John H. Heyman was born in Kaltenholzhausen, Nassau, Germany on August 13, 1829. He was the third son in a family of eight children of John George Heyman. The whole family emigrated to America in 1848 and settled in Lyme Township,Huron County, Ohio, where they purchased two hundred acres, upon which John H. worked for three years. In 1851, he went to California by way of the Isthmus, where he worked at black smithing, mining and teaming. He remained there until 185- when he returned to Lyme Township. He purchased a farm, upon which he remained until 1868, when he bought a flouring mill, a sawmill and other buildings adjoining, situated in Brownhelm Hollow, on the Vermilion River. An illustration of which mills, etc., is given elsewhere in this volume. In 1875, he obtained a ½ interest in the Amherst Flouring Mill and then three years later purchased the other half and became sole proprietor of the mill. The Mill in Brownhelm Hollow was destroyed by fire in October, 1876; it was rebuilt the following year, and is one of the finest mills in the county. It contains all the modern improvements and is capable of turning out as good grist as any mill within a radius of fifty miles.

On August 20, 1855, Mr.Heyman and Miss Katherine Scheid were united in marriage. She was born in Heistenbach, Duchy of Nassau, Germany, January 12, 1832. Her parents were natives of the same place. She had three brothers and two sisters, all of whom came to this country in 1854, and settled in Peru , Huron County, Ohio, where Mr. Scheid bought a farm of 100 and seventy five acres. They all now live in Huron and Erie Counties, except the father who is dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Heyman have ten children, seven daughters and three sons. The oldest son is married, as is also the eldest daughter. Mr. Heyman is one of the substantial and respected men of his township, and enjoys a good general reputation for industry, honesty and economy...."

County. It was a pioneer that Mr. Peter Scheid first identified with Erie County and he lived a long and industrious career until his death at his home farm in Oxford Township, October 22, 1905. Before his death he had bought a pleasant home on Front Street in Milan, and his widow, Mrs. Scheid, and some of her children now occupy that residence.

It was as a youth of seventeen that Peter Scheid came away from Germany and started his career in the New World in Erie County. He was born in Nassau, July 31, 1834 and was in his seventy second year when he passed away. His parents were Anthony and Catherine Scheid. His father was born near Deitz in Nassau, which was noted as a training point for German soldiers. He grew up as a farmer and married a German orphan girl, who had been reared in the home of a prominent man in the community, a forester by profession. All the children of Anthony and Catherine Scheid were born in Germany. When the sons, William and Peter, had attained their age of independence, they left the old home and set out for America, buying land near Pontiac, Ohio, in Huron County and starting its development. Two years later these brothers were followed by their parents and the other children. They all came across on sailing vessels, spending about four weeks on the ocean, and from New York the parents came to Pontiac, Ohio, and on the homestead which the two sons had started to improve for the parents to spend their last years. The father died at the age of sixty-eight and the mother when past seventy-two. They had been reared in the faith of the Lutheran Church and always kept pretty close to the standards of that old religion.

The late Pete Scheid was the second in quite a large family and was about seventeen years of age when he and his brother, William, ventured across the Atlantic and arrived as comparative strangers in Sherman Township of Huron County. In 1853 they secured 172 acres of wild land and the only improvement on it was a small log house. Their first work was cutting out the timber, which they sold to the railway company and used in also in building barns. In 1860 the family put up a large residence on that farm, a brick house which is still standing and is now owned and occupied by Charles Scheid, a brother of Peter. Charles was born in 1842 and for a number of years has owned the old homestead. Anthony Scheid during his lifetime donated a lot from his farm for a church and a schoolhouse.

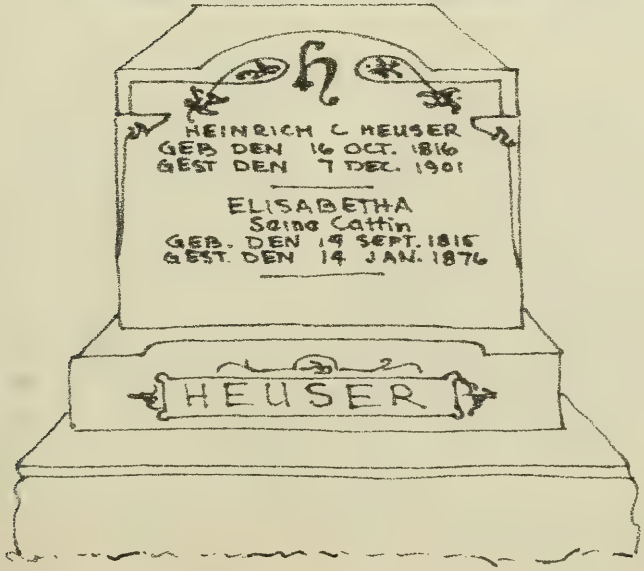
It was the old homestead near Pontiac that Peter Scheid grew to manhood, though he was already a vigorous youth when he arrived there with his brother and started to clear the land. After his marriage he located on a fine farm of his own in Oxford Township of Erie County containing 175 acres, and in the course of years he made that one of the best properties in that splendid agricultural section of Erie County. It was in the duties of this farm and in its comforts that he enjoyed the principal years of his life, and died there. He placed many improvements on the land, including a commodious house and several barns, set out a good orchard, and had the land well tiled and thoroughly cultivated. When he died the homestead comprised 235 acres, and its is all still in the family and is now managed by his son, Henry.

While a resident of Oxford Township, Mr. Scheid took a prominent part in local affairs. He served as township trustee, as treasurer and at the time of his death was a director for the Commercial Bank at Sandusky. In politics, he was a Democrat. He was one of the organizers of the German Lutheran Church at Union Corners, was for many years an official in the society, and his widow and daughters are still members there.

At Pontiac, Ohio, on February 26, 1860, Peter Scheid married Miss Catherine E. H. Heuser. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Smokrow. Mrs. Scheid was born also in Nassau, near Dietz, March 6, 1842, a daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Thorn) Heuser, who were natives of Nassau and of old German stock. Mrs. Scheid was their only child. In 1853, this little family took passage on a small steamer, which brought them down the River Rhine to Rotterdam, Holland, thence they crossed over to London, and from thereby sailing vessel arrived in New York after a voyage of twenty eight days. From New York they went to Monroeville in Erie County, and arrived at that place June 19, 1853. Mr. Heuser was a mason by trade and his first work in northern Ohio was in the construction of the Maumee River Bridge, near Toledo, Ohio. There he was overtaken by the ague, which was a common malady among the early settlers, but is was an entirely new experience to this German immigrant. He soon returned home and later practiced himself in farming and gave up the mason trade altogether. He finally bought land in Oxford Township and in its activities passed the remainder of his days. He died at the age of eighty five in 1896. He had survived his wife about thirty years, she having passed away at the age of sixty. They were both members of the German Lutheran Church and their old homestead in Oxford Township is now the property of their only daughter, Mrs. Scheid.

To Mr. and Mrs.Peter Scheid were born ten children. Charles P., unmarried and lives at home with his mother in Milan. Louise C., who died June 6, 1915, was the wife of Louis Dorr, who is a local coal merchant at Milan and she left children named Norma, Louis Jr., and Russell. Flora who died June 6, 1913, was the wife of Robert Streck, proprietor of the Streck Hotel at Milan, and she left a daughter Nellie. Henry L. is a prosperous farmer in Oxford Township. Catherine is the wife of George Waldock, a farmer in Perkins Township and their children of Verna I. and Howard S. Amelia died at the age of ten months. Louis W. is a successful farmer in Erie County and manages the old Scheid homestead. Julia is the wife of Verne Pascoe, a grocery merchant in Sandusky and their two sons are named Milton and John. Amanda L. died January 31, 1915, in the young womanhood. Alda M., who like the other children, received the best advantages of the local schools, was graduated from Milan High School in 1902 and later in 1908 from the Conservatory of Music at Oberlin College and now makes her home with her mother in Milan..."

Identified for this author by the late, Edna Scheid, who delighted in the fact that I couldn't come up with the German pronunciation of the surname, Heuser pronounced "Hoy Sure"; and, we know from church records that Henry Heuser and his wife, Elizabeth (Thera or Thorn) Heuser are buried at the Congregational United Church of Christ, Mason and Thomas Roads, Milan, Ohio.



This photograph is of Johannes "Peter"Scheid and his wife, Catherine (nee Heuser) Scheid [48]; and their tombstones in the Milan Cemetery, in Milan, Ohio.

PETER SCHEID

Dropped Dead at His Home in Oxford

Peter Scheid of Oxford township dropped dead at about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He went out to one of the farm buildings on some errand and was soon after found by a member of the family lying dead on the floor. Mr. Scheid had been in poor health for some months, suffering from Bright's disease, and had returned from Battle Creek sanitarium only last Friday. He was one of the most successful and best known farmers in Erie county, a man of high character and universally esteemed. He was a director in the Commercial National bank of Sandusky. He leaves besides his widow nine children: Mrs. Pascoe of this city, Mrs. Geo. Waldock of Perkins, Mrs. Robert Streck and Mrs. Louis Dorr of Milan, Amanda, who resides at the family home, Ada, who is a student in the Conservatory at Oberlin college, and Louis of Huron township, and Charles and Henry who reside at the family home. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced in tomorrow's Register.

FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Many Friends Pay Last Tribute to Memory of Peter Scheid.

Hundreds of people from all parts of the country attended the funeral of the late Peter Scheid of Oxford township held Wednesday morning.

Over 200 carriages were in the funeral procession, which was considerably over a mile in length and it is said to have been the most largely attended funeral ever held in the county.

The services were held at the Union Corners church and were very impressive. So large was the crowd that many could not get inside the church.

Rev. W. F. Rose, of that church and Rev. W. E. Schuette, of Toledo, officiated. The former preached the sermon in German, while Rev. Schuette, in English told of the useful life of Mr. Scheid.

Sons and sons-in-law of the deceased were the pall bearers.

Burial was at Milan cemetery.

OXFORD

The following are the Democratic nominees for office:

Trustee, Wm. Newton.
Treasurer, Henry Scheid.
Assessor, John Stankard.
Justice of the peace, Otto Noltkee.

The return of Rev. Romig is very satisfactory to the people at Bloomingville. He is very popular with the old and young.

We were all very much shocked to learn of the sudden death, Sunday, Mr. Peter Scheid. He was the largest land owner in Oxford township and was considered the wealthiest man in all odds. He has always been foremost in every good work and no one had more real, desirable friends than Peter Scheid. He was township trustee for several years and later township treasurer. He has been one of the leading spirits in the Erie County Mutual Insurance company, as well as director in the Commercial National Bank of Sandusky. His word was as good as his bond for any amount.

Long live the memory of Peter Scheid and the many good qualities of head and heart be emulated by all who intimately knew him.

In the possession of Charles M. Pascoe, oldest son of Milton Charles Pascoe and his wife, Marie Maunus Pascoe, are the pages from the Peter Scheid Family Bible...

Harry Stack, writing for the Sandusky Register-Star News, newspaper, in his column entitled "Speaking Of" on Saturday, January 26, 1952, had this to say, about our August H. Scheid:

LOCAL PIONEER

MOST of us are probably prone to think of pioneers, in a geographical sense, as long departed men and women who blazed new trails, opened new frontiers, and established new settlements. And well do they deserve our tribute. But a pioneer is also one who has prepared the way for others in fields of mechanics, enterprise or education. He need not be dead. He may well be still with us going his constructive way.

Well, Erie-co has such a man in its midst today. For more than 55 years he has been in continuous service as a pioneer in the educational field. His faithful career, begun in 1896, ended only the other day when, over 84 years old, he retired of his own volition from the Erie-co board of education. He was a member of that board for more than 32 years, and 27 times its president, and for decades before that a member and head of township and district school boards. The Biblical tribute of "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," applies to him in true measure.

Although physically retired, his mind and interests are still wrapped up in the work in which he has stood out as sturdy exponent these many years. He "still lives schools." One can understand that. How could anyone suddenly lose interest in something to which he has devoted the greater part of his life? While his body may be weighed down by his years, which far exceed the Scriptural "three-score-and-ten," his zeal in all things pertaining to the school system remains remarkably keen and sincere.

Only a few days ago we had a chat with him. His eyes came alive and his voice grew ardent as he spoke of schools, of the difference between the simple three "R's" of his early days and the teaching curricula of today, and of the progress made in education and studies in "human relations" from the days of "the little red schoolhouse" to the present streamlined and specialized institutions of learning.

This good old pioneer is none other than August H. Scheid, native of Oxford-tp and of the little locality once known as "Skunktown." His entire life has been spent in the community. A widower for almost 20 years, he has remained a township resident until just recently when he took up Sandusky winter residence with a son on 48th-st. He is still an active church member, affiliated with Huron's First Presbyterian Church.

Several years ago special recognition was paid to Mr. Scheid in the government's "Congressional Record," by relating his loyal career with the local school board. His story was entered into the Record through the instrumentality of Congressman Alvin F. Weichel. It was stated in that story that the great pioneer brought about the closing of Erie-co's first one-room school which was operating with only six pupils.

* * *

AUGUST H. SCHEID

Reminiscing with us the other day, Mr. Scheid told with a chuckle of the days of the "vest pocket ballot." He said there was a time when candidates for election provided their own ballots and carried them around in their vest pockets wherever they went, displaying them at slightest provocation. He spoke of the days when women teachers received $22.50 and men teachers, $25 monthly salaries, and when there were always more teachers than vacancies. By way of illustration he cited the time when the school board sought four teachers for as many one-room schools and, receiving 26 applications, were forced to turn away 22 young teachers!

He also commented on the extreme youth of most women teachers and recalled the time when a 16-year-old teacher, now Mrs. Louise Linn of Bloomingville, used to come to him for her pay. High praise was given by Mr. Scheid to Dr. Frank J. Prout, who, at the turn of the century, was greatly responsible for bringing about legislation by which county students were enabled to attend Sandusky High school, with tuition paid by the school board.

* * *

It may be true that the average person in his 80's leads a rather secluded and lonely life. We doubt that Mr. Scheid is a lonely man. His mental activities, his innate friendliness, combined with his benevolent nature, keep him busy dispensing what has been called poetically "the milk of human kindness." He has the inherent humanitarian quality of "lending a helping hand" to his fellows.

And that is the best cure for oneliness. We are reminded of the noble philosophy of John Oxenham, so eloquently expressed in his words:

"Art thou lonely, O, my brother?
Share thy little with another!
Stretch a hand to one unfriended,
And thy loneliness is ended."

Issue of the marriage of Johannes "Peter" and Catherine Scheid were ten children.

"...at the family homestead on Campbell Street, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Volz, I spent many days there with Grandma and Grandpa Waldock (George Washington Waldock and Katherine Lisette Scheid) ...they spoiled me rotten and I loved every minute of it ....always had horses and that is where I learned to ride ...always had the church picnic every year and hundreds of people came and it was fun and games and food all day long ... folks back then kept their families together and it seems as if we were always going to a reunion and meeting cousins and cousins and cousins....on Friday the farmers all went to town to do their shopping and grandpa and I would sit in the car while grandma did her shopping...they wintered in Florida and returned each spring..."

"...my other grandparents, Grandma and Grandpa Schaub lived at Cedar Point and they too spoiled me rotten and I loved it....here is where I learned to love and respect Lake Erie, here is where I learned to fish and ice skate and ice boat....what to look for and how to tell when bad weather is approaching...we'd take old wash tubs and coast down the ice mounds in the winter time or we would ice skate, always leaving one person on the beach with a bell who would ring the bell if there was a shift in the wind and we needed to get closer to shore and avoid cracks in the ice...."

"...I remember Julia and Vergn Pascoe well they lived on East Washington Street and I believed they also owned the house next door that they rented out....Vergn was a gentleman, full of life and Julia as I remember was quiet, nice, never had a lot to say....remember picnics in their backyard and the big porch on the house..."

THE LOUIS SCHEID HOMESTEAD IN HURON, OHIO. Photograph taken circa 1909. L to r: Louis Scheid, Pearl Scheid, Hortense, the housekeeper. Baby in the rocker is Inez Scheid, Marian Scheid holding her doll baby, Cornelius Scheid. The twin boys were not born yet!

On a cold winter day, this author had the privilege of traveling with Joyce Mulaney to Fremont, Ohio to visit with her cousin, Mary Gibson. Joyce is the daughter of Inez Scheid and Mary the daughter of Marian Scheid. What a delightful day! Much of the information I now know on this family line is from these two women. Thank you for the photographs, the obituaries and all the information. You have been a vital link in recording for history "our Scheid family".

These ladies told to me the following family tidbits .... "..Grandpa Louis Scheid was forever wearing a straw hat and smoking R. G. Dunn cigars which at the time cost two for a nickel....family farm was in Huron forever and forever...then they moved to Sandusky and lived on Marlboro Street...Pearl was always cleaning house as the family took in "roomers" also known as "boarders"...Cornelius at Christmas time would always have a bag of goodies for us ...popcorn ball, orange and $1.00 and on our mother's birthday he would send to his nieces and nephews $10.00. Marian loved to laugh and sing. She had a beautiful voice and to hear her sing was soothing to your soul..very easy to talk to..always come to her no matter what , with any problem and she would listen...often said to me that if you don't have any common sense, not gonna get by in this life...Inez had the gift of and a sense of humor..always made you feel as if you could accomplish anything and everything and made you feel extremely special no matter what you were doing or what you wanted to do...John Paul was the bowler and a very good bowler just ask anyone in Sandusky....Scheid Family Reunions used to be at Ruggles Beach in Huron, Ohio and they were so much fun...especially the homemade ice cream...Remember Julia Scheid as being heavy set and in later years of life troubled with depression...believe that she was hospitalized for that up in Cleveland, Ohio....Alda Scheid had the same problems....At one time when Louis and Pearl were engaged to be married, Pearl's sister, ----, had been engaged to Carl aka "Charles" Scheid and she broke off that engagement....."

These obituaries were so graciously given to me by Joyce and Mary and I thank them again for their contributions to the "link" for our family.....

Verneita Scheid, back in the late 1970's, shared with me her published volume of the Heyman Family and pages were duplicated from that volume, so corrobation of the HEYMAN FAMILY has been published and offers so much information [51]....

"...John Philip Heyman, seventh child and fifth son of John George Heymann and his wife, Maria Margareta Opperman, was born July 9, 1833 at Kaltenholzhausen, Duchy of Nassau, Germany. He died November 21, 1899 and is buried in Hunt's Corners Cemetery in Lyme Township. He acquired his education in the school of his native village and at the age of fifteen accompanied his parents, brothers and younger sister on their emigration to America to Hunt's Corners in Lyme Township, Huron County, Ohio, where Philip William had settled in 1847. Here John Philip grew to manhood. April 17, 1856, he was united in marriage to Johannette, known as Jeanette Scheid, born April 17, 1837 in Heistenbach, Duchy of Nassau, Germany. Her father Anton Scheid, born June 18, 1801, in Heistenbach, was the son of Anton Scheid and his wife, Anna Katharine Heck of Holzheim. Her mother, Johannette Katharine Maus, born November 1, 1807 in Huppert, Duchy of Nassau, was the daughter of Johann Philipp Maus and his wife Marie KatharineHennemann of Huppert. The Scheids were parents of nine children, three of whom died in Germany. Their two oldest sons,William and John Peter emigrated to the United States in 1852. The parents and the remaining four children: Katharine, Johannette, Emma and Charles emigrated in 1854, locating on a farm near Pontiac, in Peru Township, Huron County, Ohio. Jeannette Heyman died June 1, 1919 and is buried in the Hunt's Corners Cemetery.

John Phillip and his wife established their home on the one hundred and two acre farm of his father in Hunt's Corners and purchased the land the following December. On Christmas Eve of the same year their home was destroyed by fire. The house was not rebuilt until 1865 and during the intervening years they lived in a house near by. In 1873, he and his brother, William F., purchased the Wood Farm just north of Hunt's Corners, each taking one half. John Phillip moved into the Wood homestead where he lived the remainder of his life. With lands purchased at a later date his farming operations extended over four hundred acres and in this connection he with his son, Frank William, operated a flour and feed mill at Monroeville, Ohio. Also for many years he bought corn husks from the farmers in the vicinity and processed them for the making of mattresses.

The Heyman trait of sportsmanship manifested itself in the subject of this sketch in his love for good horses and upon his farms one could always find several farm teams the best in the community. He also bred race horses for the fashionable families of the day, which he trained and raced.

Grandma Heyman was born April 17, she was married on April 17 and one of her great granddaughters, Willow V. Heyman was born on April 17. John Philip Heyman was public spirited and took a great interest in all the activities of the community, especially the church and schools which he supported with time and means. He with his family were members of the Reformed Church of Hunt's Corners.In habits of life, he was of moderate temperament, industrious and frugal, he did not use tobacco, drink or profanity. He was above average in height and athletic build.Louis Philip and Libbie Heyman established a home on a farm, his father bought many years before, later buying it. Their entire married life was lived on the farm. On Sunday, November 17, 1935, their golden wedding anniversary was observed by a reception in their home. His principal occupation was farming and in connection he operated a grain threshing(sp.?) rig and a hay an straw baling outfit. In 1901, he held a sale of his farm machinery and retired from active farming. Like his father, he took a keen interest in race horses and maintained a track on his farm for many years. He was confirmed in the Reformed Church at Hunt's Corners where he served as organist many years....."

(Karl "Charles" Scheid, his sister, Anna Marie "Emma" Scheid Miller)

In the summer of 1999, this author went to a Scheid Family Reunion at the GrotonTownship Hall. My guidance from Mitzi Denzer was not to worry, everyone would be friendly and I would get a lot of family information. Well, I packed my own lunch as I really didn't want to "crash a picnic" and knew full well that I would not know a soul there. I was amazed at the genealogy, photos and newspaper clips on a table. Sat down by the oldest person I could find (who I thought would be the friendliest) and this was the person Mitzi told me to look for. Esther "Skippy" Miller, the grand daughter of Emma Scheid who married Daniel Miller. The woman was 90 years old and she didn't look a day over 65! Wow! Mitzi also told me to look for a Chase Heyman, but never had the opportunity. So in introducing myself, I just happened to be with "the lady" who is keeping this family line together - Jeanette Schwab Dankelfsen who lives in Republic, Ohio.

The following pages are entitled Genealogy of Daniel Miller Jr., 1834-1999. She graciously duplicated these pages (on diskette) for me for inclusion in this manuscript. I am so grateful to her for sharing this information and she like I learned a long time ago that " what you share is always returns to you tenfold."

The picnic? It was wonderful and I have an invitation to come again next year, and I will! How nice to know in this day and age, that you don't have to be a stranger for long, when you are with family and friends.

GREENWICH MAN IS KILLED WHEN TRAIN STRIKES CAR

A Greenwich man was killed instantly when he drove his car into the path of a Baltimore and Ohio train on the Old State Road crossing north of Route 224, Saturday morning. Vallie L. Eichenlaub, 68, of 17 Railroad St., was pronounced dead at the scene by deputy coroner Dr. J.J. Rosso. Death was attributed to severe head injuries. Patrolmen said Eichenlaub failed to stop at the unguarded crossing, driving into the path of the train, engineered by Arnold Bias, 65, Akron. Patrolmen said the train whistle was blowing as it approached the crossing. The impact dragged the car from the crossing to the intersection of Boughtenvile Road. Eichenlaub's car was a total loss. The Norwalk Post of the State Highway Patrol and the Huron County Sheriff's Department investigated the accident, reported at 10:45 a.m. Eichenlaub was an employee at the Boughtenville branch of the Greenwich Mill and Elevator Company. Florence: Born in Bristol, England, Nov. 28, 1873, died at Hunt's Corners, February 27, 1921, At the age of 1 year and 6 months she came to America with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Andrews, three brothers and three sisters. Her entire life was spent in the vicinity of Bellevue. On March 4, 1888 she united with the Lyme Congregational church at the age of fifteen years. She was united in marriage to Gust C. Miller April 5, 1899. They located first on a farm in Ridgefield township. Five years ago they moved to their present home at Lyme where the balance of her married life was spent. For several years those who have seen Mrs. Miller have notice her growing failure of health and strength yet even those nearest to her did not guess her suffering, as she was always quiet and serene, seldom speaking of her self and manifesting an unfailing interest in all that related to her home and family. During her painful illness of five weeks she never lost her courage of good cheer. Her mind was clear to the last and she talked with her family of her anticipated departure, calling those that were present by name and asking for those that were absent, wishing them all goodby separately as calmly as if starting on a journey. Mrs. Miller leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, one daughter, Damaris, her mother, Mrs. Emma Andrews, of Bellevue; four sisters, Mrs. Katie Fitch, Mrs. Edith Weiss, and Mrs. Frank Fitch of Bellevue, and Mrs. F. J. Mitchell of Canal Fulton; four brothers, Joseph and Walter of Bellevue and Harry and Albert of northwest of town. Her father, brother James and sister Nellie, have preceded her to the other world. She was a woman of unusual spirituality and deeply religious. Her faith in Jesus Christ was unfaltering and she walked with God daily. It was her unfaltering trust that sustained her in her afflictions and sufferings in her last days of pain. Such intimacy with God few attain. So when the gates of life swung in, And angels whispered low To bid her hasten unto Him She had not far to go. (Source: Unknown newspaper clipping)

Lawrence: ------ Bellevue Gazette Friday March 10, 1950 1:2 Heading: GROTON TWP. BARN DESTROYED BY FLAMES; LOSS IS $25,000 Fire claimed its second barn in the area last night when the barn and contents on the farm tenanted by Lawrence Danklefsen, Billings Rd., was destroyed with an estimated loss of $20,000 to $25,000. Fire Chief Adolph Boehler said that the fire started in baled straw stacked to the roof in the center of the barn, probably by spontaneous combustion. The department was able to keep the blaze under control for nearly two hours and Chief Boehler was at first hopeful of saving the structure. However he said, there just wasn't enough water to control it effectively and the flames spread to the rest of the 30x40 foot building. Included in the loss were the baler, a two-row corn planter, a lime spreader, hand tools and other articles. The local department was called at 8:55 pm when the blaze was discovered by a member of the family and the truck returned five hours later. The farm is owned by Mrs. Leota Close Harsh, of Toledo. ---------- Notes from Earl Danklefsen: Lawrence was a farmer until he retired and bought a Motel and then a Laundromat. He was a tinkerer and liked to experiment with things. When he owned the Laundromat he experimented with a heat exchanger. He figured if he ran the wash water from the washers which had already heated though a set of coils and ran the cold water around the coils he could warm the water before the water went to the hot water heater he could save money. It worked fine until the coils plugged up with lint.

Charles Scheid, Born In Germany, Lived 69 Years at Pontiac

Charles Scheid, Sr., pioneer resident of Peru Twp. who died on Nov. 29, was the son of Anton and Katherine Scheid. He was born in Heistenbach, Nassan, Germany, June 17, 1842. His age was 81 yrs. five months and 10 days. Mr. Scheid came to America with his parents in 1854, at the age of 12 years. and settled in Peru Twp. at Pontiac, where he lived the remainder of his life.

He was confirmed in the Lutheran faith at the age of 14 years, at Sandusky, by the Rev. Mr. Lehrer. He married Elizabeth Opperman, Nov. 17, 1866, the Rev. Schmogrow officiating. Mrs. Scheid passed away Dec. 23, 1921. This union was blessed with nine children, two of whom, Amanda and Matilda, died in infancy. There are left to mourn, two sons, Wm. D. and Karl A. Scheid, five daughters, Mrs. August Williams, Mrs. Lena Scheid, Amelia and Anna Scheid and Mrs. Peter Smith, one aged sister, Mrs. Anna Miller of Bellevue, and eleven grand children.

In August 1977, I was a guest in the home of Verneita Scheid, great granddaughter of Karl Anton "Charles" and Elizabeth (nee Opperman) Scheid at 8 Jackson Street, Norwalk, Ohio. She shared with me Volumes One and Two of the Scheid Book ,[53] from which I learned: "...Lina Catherine Scheid was born June 16, 1870 at Pontiac Station. She was the daughter of Charles Scheid and his wife, Elizabeth Opperman Scheid of Pontiac. Charles Scheid belonged to a branch of the Scheid Family from Heistenbach, Germany, which is located in the northern half of the Duchy of Nassau. This family is quite distantly related to the family of this history, they being known as the "Red Scheids" from the generally red hair and ruddy complexion of its' members. Charles Scheid's father was Anton Scheid with his wife, Johanna Katherine Maus Scheid had come to America several years after their sons Peter and William had emigrated, bringing the rest of the family with them. They arrived in 1854, and settled on the farm at Pontiac Station which their first two sons had purchased. Those two sons later became large land owners at Union Corners, Ohio, while the other son Charles, upon his father's death took over the Pontiac Farm. Anton Scheid was one of the founders of the Pontiac Lutheran Church and donated the land upon which the church was built, and also, later the plot upon which the parochial school was erected beside the church, as well as the cemetery plot. Anton Scheid was born at Diez, in the Duchy of Nassau, which was a noted training camp for German soldiers. Lina Scheid's mother, was the daughter of John William and Mary Magdalena Pheiffer. Opperman, who brought their family from Netzbach, Duchy of Nassau to America in 1860, settling in Lyme Township, near Hunt's Corners, Ohio. Lina attended the parochial school at Pontiac and attended the English District School in the Boehler neighborhood, later called the North Pleasant School. She was confirmed by Pastor Ulrich in St. Peter's Lutheran Church in 1885. She assisted her mother in the care of a large family of children until her marriage. She played the piano and organ, and was church organist for sometime. During the time singing practices for the congregation were held at the various homes, she took part in playing the hymns. She was tall and slender with the characteristic auburn hair and ruddy features of the family. Her parents are buried in the Pontiac Cemetery next to the church building.

Luis Scheid was above medium height and well built. He was a strong man. A noticeable feature was his extremely white fingernails. He was of rather quick temper and very determined in getting what he wanted, and somewhat self-willed. To Mr. and Mrs. Luis Scheid were born four children: Elmer Louis , a stillborn son, Martha Mae and Verneita Lena Scheid. Elmer Louis Scheid first child and first son of Luis Heinrich Scheid and his wife, Lina Catherine Scheid, was born October 21, 1892 in Peru Township, Huron County, Ohio. He received his education in the North Pleasant or Boehler School and in the German Parochial School at Pontiac. He was confirmed by Pastor William F. Rose of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Pontiac in 1906. Elmer pursued a short course in the Cleveland Automobile School, Cleveland, Ohio. After the dissolution of the family home, he lived with his grandfather Charles Scheid, and assisted on the farm. Later, he operated the farm for his aunts Amelia and Anna Scheid, and also his mother's farm, the old Meyers Place on Route 99 near Pontiac. Up to recent years he has been assisted here by several boys who from time to time have been taken into the home by his aunts from orphan homes. He is a dartball enthusiast, having with the church team, won several trophies in the church conference league. Elmer is of medium height and build, of temperate habits, of reserved disposition, and industrious.

Martha Mae Scheid Reinhold third child and first daughter of Luis Heinrich Scheid and his wife, Lina Catherine Scheid was born May 14, 1899 in Peru Township, Huron County, Ohio. She received her grade school education at North Pleasant or Boehler District and was graduated from Monroeville High School in 1919. She pursued a secretarial course in Oberlin School of Commerce, Oberlin, Ohio; and, did secretarial work until her marriage. She also attended the German Parochial School at Pontiac and was confirmed in 1912 by Rev. Henry G. Sutter of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. After her mother's illness and her father's departure for the west, she with her brother and sister made their home with her grandfather, Charles Scheid of Pontiac; and, also, with her aunt, Mrs. August Williams of Sherman Township. August 21, 1926, she was married to Charles Reinhold by Rev. S. W. Mautz of Martin Luther Church, Cleveland, Ohio. Charles Reinhold was born March 30, 1897 in Bristol, Pennsylvania, the son of Friederich and Marie (Meyer) Reinhold of Pennsylvania. They were textile workers and farmers at Bristol. After completing the grades, Charles was for ten years in the US Navy and is a veteran of World War I. Before his marriage he was a lathe operator in the Differential Wheel Corporation in Cleveland, Ohio. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold established their home in Detroit,Michigan. They belong to the Messiah Lutheran Church of that city. Martha is tall and slender with the features of her mother's family. One of her special interests is reading.

Verneita Lena Scheid fourth child and second daughter of Luis Heinrich Scheid and his wife, Lina Catherine Scheid, was born September 25, 1901 at Sandusky, Ohio. She attended North Pleasant and Pontiac District Schools while living with her grandfather and one summer at the St. Peter's parochial school at Pontiac. She was confirmed by Pastor Carl F. Mittler of St. Peters's Lutheran Church in 1915. She also attended Monroeville High School of which she is a graduate in the class of 1920. She pursued a business course at Oberlin School of Commerce, Oberlin, Ohio in 1920-21 and later, while in Cleveland, night courses in Cleveland College. She was a bookkeeper for the Ohio State Mortgage Company in Cleveland, Ohio from 1922-1933. She is now a bookkeeper for the Hale and Hale Company in the Arcade, Cleveland since 1933. This is a partnership of father and son who have been in the property insurance business since 1899. The son, Clayton G.Hale, is an authority on property insurance, having written several books and articles on the subject, and is now lecturing on insurance at the University of Michigan. Verneita is still a member of the home church at Pontiac, returning to the home of her Aunt Amelia Scheid quite regularly over the weekends. She maintains her own apartment in Cleveland and is a member of the Niagara Alumni Association, Niagara School of Speech and Psychology. Her special interests in the musical line. She studied piano for several years, and has taken music appreciation courses. She is a regular attendant at the concerts of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra at Severance Hall. Verneita is of medium height and physique, with the Heistenbach Scheid features, and industrious and efficient in all her work....."

Dear Cousin

Today is a real nice day, Almost too nice to stay inside, but I have the day off and lots of letters to write, so I'll try and get them wrote.

How have you been? I hope okay. It was too bad Aunt Anna had to go, wasn't it. I imagine Aunt Amelia has her hands full with all the house work now, and with other things to look after too.

I received your Christmas package the other day, and thanks a lot. I got quite a lot of nice things this year - but it still didn't seem like Xmas.

Just before Christmas we moved here, its a port on the gulf, and a nice camp, so far I like the work real well. Its cool now but the summers get quite hot.

Hope this war doesn't last too long anymore. Tomorrow will make 21 mo. "over" and I'm anxious to get back.

(6) Amelia Caroline Scheid b. 1876 lived to be 96 years old! She is buried at St. Peter's Lutheran Church Cemetery, Pontiac, Ohio, and died March 16, 1973. She was known as the "Kellogg Queen" for her culinary skills at the institute in Michigan! She studied with the best: Dr. A. W. Petersohn, Royal S. Copeland (who later became Senator Copeland), and Dr. John H. Kellogg, himself. Even "then" there was a trend for natural foods and good nutrition!

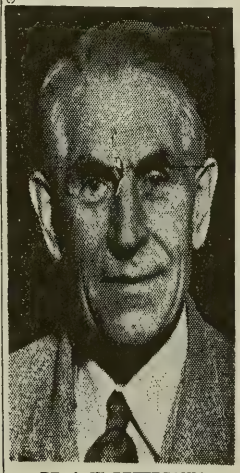
Drink Water, Live Long; Don't Touch Pickles

By RICHARD DAIGNAULT

Conversation with Dr. A. W. Petersohn, of Battle Creek, Michigan, travelling apostle of "the simple life", can be likened to the experience of an alcoholic viewing The Lost Weekend. Only in this case it's not only a matter of giving up alcohol but also such rudimentary foods as salt, all condiments (including delicious home made pickles) and many types of canned goods.

When you boil down Dr. Petersohn's theories, the "secret of life" is: "Drink plenty of water."



DR. A. W. PETERSOHN

The elderly physician was born in Germany 70 years ago, came to America as a stowaway and graduated in medicine at the University of Arkansas in 1907. In 1940 he retired and took to propagandizing his theories throughout America free of charge.

While he admits that the theory of drinking quantities of water is not unknown, he insists that it is not stressed enough. Even so, he continues, city water is solutioned with chlorine, which is pure salt, and meant to act as a disinfectant.

BOIL DRINKING WATER

According to Dr. Petersohn this is not a healthy condition of water. He recommends boiling water in order to permit the chlorine gasses to escape. His argument against salt—sodium chloride—is that we eat much too much of it and that it harms the cellular tissues. He advances the same arguments with regards to condiments such as pepper, vinegar, ketchups and pickles. He maintains they harm the tissues of the stomach.

Dr. Petersohn looks about 55 years, has a full crop of hair and is most energetic. His life as a lecturing physician is devoted to addressing gatherings privately organized.

On departure he shakes your hand and holds it a little while. "Just to find out if you drink enough water," he smiles, "if there is not enough water in your system your hand will be cold and you are likely to suffer from a slowed down digestive process."

My hand was quite warm, thank you.

Keep Well or Get Well

BY ROYAL S. COPELAND.

Relaxation.

No one will deny the value of hobbies and the need of vacations. All are agreed that these aid in giving the system rest and relaxation. Indeed, the vacation is always prescribed for those who are overworked, fatigued, underweight or suffering from some constitutional disorder. Yet, often the vacation is of little value because the individual does not know how to relax.

Royal S. Copeland

Some persons know how to relax but others do so only with great mental effort. This is unfortunate because all medical authorities agree that relaxation prevents sleeplessness and nervousness, helps to cure many diseases and prolongs life.

For those who do not know how to relax, many books have been written. One of these, by Walter B. Pitkin, is called the "Art of Relaxing." This writer points out that many disturbances of mankind can be cured by relaxation. He emphasizes the importance of avoiding the tensions of life, even the pressure of the garments. He says that the clothing, especially belts, tight collars and improper footgear often may be responsible for a great deal of tension and failure to possess muscular balance.

It is not always necessary to go away on a vacation to obtain beneficial relaxation. The individual who is fortunate enough to know how to relax can do so in his home and in hours of freedom. It is in reality an art that can be learned by everyone.

Those fortunate persons who learn to relax at an early age rarely suffer from such disorders as high blood pressure, nervousness, heart disease and other ailments that tend to shorten the span of life. Many persons who do not appear to be actually ill, but yet who are always complaining, are probably constantly fatigued because they do not obtain sufficient rest and relaxation.

Sometimes a simple disorder, such as upset nerves and restlessness, will set into motion a train of symptoms which ultimately result in serious effects upon health. The victim of this disorder may not be especially conscious of it. But if one is easily fatigued and does not sleep, he should consult his doctor. It is time to take inventory of the health. Bear in mind that many a case of "nerves" in readily cured by adequate rest and relaxation.

Too many persons "carry on," using nerve energy alone. This is too bad, because good health would follow if they but relaxed more.

("Mertie"Scheid)

OBITUARY

The news of the death of Marie Louise, daughter of the late Charles Scheid of Pontiac, one of the prominent pioneers of Huron County cast a gloom over her wide circle of friends. Altho she had not been in the best of health the past winter, yet her condition was not considered serious until two weeks before her death when she was removed to Bellevue hospital where on March 16 she submitted to an operation from which she never rallied.

Her death takes from our midst one whose life was made up of service and love for all with whom she came in contact.

As a daughter, she was a loving devoted one, as a wife she was noble and faithful; as a sister, kind and affectionate; as a friend staunch and true! Her untiring devotion and thoughtful kindnesses that she bestowed upon her loved ones was without limit. Her hand was ever ready to help the needy her heart was always opened to those bent down in trouble and sorrow.

Better were it for this world if it could count more of such noble natures as hers.

She may be dead but her influence shall ever live in the hearts of those who love and revere her sweet memory.

Oh! mourn not for the one who lies
Under the grass and the open skies,
Never shall sin draw nigh to her,
Never shall terror bring fear to her;
She has gone to her home with God above,
Sheltered now in His boundless love
From all that maketh earth's misery
Always free and unfettered she'll be.

Ah! "let not your hearts be troubled Neither let it be afraid"
For her pain it is all over
And her sorrows all shall fade.
So let this be your comfort
In this your trials so sore
She is waiting in God's city
Where partings are no more.

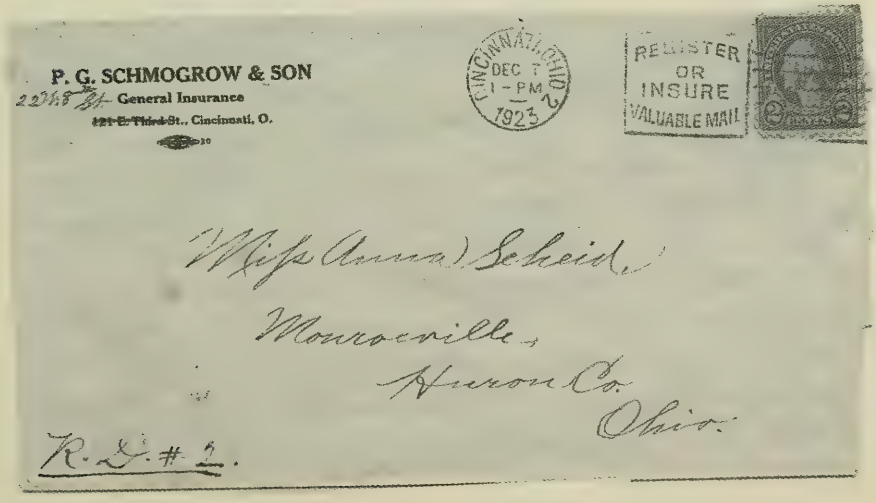
On December 7, 1923, Pastor P. G. Schmogrow, wrote to Anna a letter of sympathy on the death of her father....



Cincinnati, Ohio.
Dec. 7 – 1923.

Miss Anna Scheid.

Esteemed Friend:

Your letters of Oct. 17th & Nov. 30th have been received the former should have answered long ago. – Because of the sad news of the latter, informing me that your dear father departed this life on the 2nd day of Nov. last, I must not delay writing any longer. While I feared that your father had not much longer to stay with you on earth, because of his feeble condition & advanced age, of which I became aware, when I visited him last Summer, yet the news of his death proved a painful surprise to me; for I figured that his freedom from earthly care & the good nursing he was receiving from you & your dear sister would enable him to live a couple years longer. It seems that God, Who doeth all things well, has seen fit to dispose otherwise & to call your father to his heavenly home & eternal rest. You no doubt miss your father in your home, but when you consider that your loss is his gain, your affection for him will enable you to become reconciled to your loss. — You know that "we have no abiding city here, but seek one to come", according to our Christian hope. —

I am glad that I got to see your dear father last Summer, as I had not seen him for about 13 years. — Well, one more has been laid to rest on the church yard of St. Peters Ev. Luth. Church at Pontiac — presumably the last one of the original members of the Church. —

Let me assure you of my sympathy in your loss, which I extend to all the members of your esteemed family. I was glad to hear that the medicine I sent your father relieved him of some of his pain & I trust that you also received the Postal Cards containing Cincinnati views.

Accept my thanks for requesting Mr. Walter Scheid, Janitor of St. Peters Church, to have my mother's tombstone set in order. — Please to extend my thanks to him for promissing to take care of it. I shall be pleased to reimburse him for any expense he may incur. —

If you should some time visit our city, we shall be pleased to have you visit us & shall show you some interesting sights.

I am pleased to say that we are well & hope that this letter may find you well & enjoying the best of your recent painful loss.

COMM. WALDO SCHEID ...

Goes to NATO Staff

Commander Waldo W. Scheid, USN, turned over his duties as commanding officer of the U.S.S. Bache (DDE 470) Wednesday, May 2, at ceremonies held at Norfolk, Va. His next duty station is at the NATO Staff of Supreme Allied Commander Atlantic, Admiral Dennison, in Norfolk.

Relieving Commander Scheid was Commander Richard D. Fatchen, USN, of Englewood, Colo., now living in the Bache's homeport, Norfolk.

Commander Scheid assumed command of the Fletcher-class anti-submarine Destroyer Bache in November of 1960. He is a son of Mr and Mrs. Karl Scheid, Monroeville R-2.

He graduated from Monroeville High School in 1937 and five years later from Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agricultural Education.

Comm. Waldo W. Scheid

Commander Scheid's rich and varied Naval career began with a Navy first, Underwater Demolition. He served with the first permanently formed group, UDT Team 3, first as a member then as executive officer. This group prepared the beaches for landings at Guam and Leyte.

Adding an intelligence specialty to his profession, Commander Scheid has served on the NATO staff of Commander in Chief Eastern Atlantic and on the Operations Department staff of Commander Eastern Sea Frontier. He has also had duty as Assistant Naval Attache in Moscow. From this latter duty he has continued his study of Russian and maintained a considered appreciation of Russian affairs.

His seagoing duty has included LST's, Destroyers and the carrier Wasp.

During Commander Scheid's tour of duty in the Bache, Commander Destroyer Force Atlantic awarded the ship the coveted Anti-Submarine Warfare Award for Excellence, the "A." This honor came in 1961.

Commander Scheid married Marie Lina Wiebusch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiebusch, now of New London, O.

The Scheids and their three children, Carolyn Martha, 13; Linda Kathrine, 6 and Timothy Blake, 4, reside at 6001 Hampton Blvd., Norfolk, Va.

(3) Norman Karl Scheid (1922-1994) married Bertha Ruth "Betty" Jordan (1921-1991). Norman retired at his Tarpon Springs, Florida home in 1983, after 40 years on the high seas. He retired with his boats and "kids" (goats) on the Anclote River. He started his seafaring career on ore carriers in the Great Lakes and ended as chief engineer in Texaco Oil's ocean going fleet.

Tarponite retires after 40 years as a seagoing engineer

by Barbara Winn

TARPON SPRINGS — In the classic movie "African Queen", Humphrey Bogart played captain and crew of his boat: navigating, piloting, jury-rigging engine repairs, playing Jack-Of-All-Trades to keep 'er afloat. At one point he was even compelled to drag his beloved "Queen" down a leech-infested river with a rope over his shoulder.

Such is the stuff of which the "romance of the sea" is made. Bogart's character compares closely with real-life seamen known as marine engineers.

Norman Sheid is a marine engineer. This Tarpon Springs resident logged over forty years on the sea performing as engine mechanic, electrician, refrigeration expert, welder, machine shop worker, boiler and pump authority, firefighter, and more.

Sheid retired this month after more than forty years of marine engineering with Texaco and a few years before that with U.S. Steel.

Scheid's seafaring history includes years of traveling on the Great Lakes as well as decades on the oceans.

His first work experience at age 18 began on U.S. Steel iron ore boats running to industrial ports on Lake Erie, Lake Superior, and Lake Michigan. He needed money for college and decided to sign on as a seaman.

Scheid is a self-taught marine engineer, having earned his engineer's license through home study coursework and on-the-job training.

After joining Texaco in 1944 as a Third Assistant Engineer he was transferred to the oceangoing fleet, running petroleum products to ports all over the world: Spain, France, the Bahamas, Venezuela, Puerto Rico, and others.

Was seasickness ever a problem for the young mariner? "Only the first couple of years," was Scheid's matter-of-fact response.

His most memorable port of call was Seville, Spain. "It was the most interesting day I ever spent in my life," he remarked. Even though this visit occurred over twenty years ago the impressions are vividly recalled: "Seville is full of museums and archives with artifacts and information about Columbus, Vespucci . . . all you read about in history books was right there."

Columbus is said to be buried there in a large tomb resting on the shoulders of figures of some of his seamen. One of the cathedrals has pieces of the Crown of Thorns, and pieces of the Cross. A castle in the city was home to several of the Spanish queens who sponsored the early world explorers. Another cathedral houses bullfighters' costumes and equipment.

At all of the exotic ports he visited, Scheid was a collector of images rather than artifacts. "I liked taking slides and photographs of the places we visited. My wife and I don't really collect things. I have some small things from a few places."

Scheid met his wife, Betty, while she was working as a waitress in East Chicago, Indiana. They were married in 1951. Betty knew she would sometimes spend months without seeing her husband, but their marriage has endured. Scheid said "She knew my career was as a seaman and told me that any decision to quit would be mind."

Although Scheid is a man who never had a childhood yearning for life at sea, water still plays an important role in his life now that he's retired. His home is on the shore of the Anclote River and from his patio he can look across his swimming pool to the river. Crab traps and other fishing equipment stored near the house indicate that his

Last week as he stood on his 24' boat and reminisced about his career, a pair of porpoises glided downriver past Scheid's boat, occasionally arcing above the waves.

Scheid recalled "There were times when we'd see schools of fifty or more dolphins jumping out of the water near the ship."

Scheid had no preference for lake or ocean travel although the water conditions create a different "feel" to the ship, and during stormy weather, different anxieties among the mariners.

On the Lakes storms build quickly and create extremely choppy conditions, like water sloshing in a dishpan. Scheid commented "Lake storms can be more damaging than ocean storms . . . the ship is beaten and shaken."

Ocean storms develop over a longer period of time, affording more opportunity to prepare for them or even to avoid them. Storms at sea create waves of tremendous peaks and troughs which roll the ship from side to side.

Scheid recalls that coming back from Spain his ship encountered walls of water towering fifty or sixty feet above the ship: "Being down in the troughs was like looking up at mountain peaks."

Scheid served in all Engine Officer ratings during his maritime career with Texaco. His first permanent Chief Engineer assignment came at age 28. After that he spent nearly half of his career as Chief Engineer on various vessels, responsible for supervising 15-18 crewmen on each ship.

Automation has reduced crew size on these huge petroleum product vessels. A ship that once carried a crew of 40 or more can now operate with almost half that number.

Scheid is proud of the maritime code of ethics of the Texaco fleet. "We'd go out of our way for a distress call. It's admirable considering that this involved a couple of thousand dollars per hour of operating expense to stand by a little boat. Sometimes we'd pick up a boat in a cargo net and swing it onto the deck and wait for the Coast Guard."

A question that has to be asked of a man who has spent more years on this planet's oceans than most men: Do strange happenings really plague those who dare to pass through that notorious segment of ocean, The Bermuda Triangle?

Scheid's reply: "I've run through the Bermuda Triangle hundreds of times. Nothing ever happened. I've never been scared of it."

His obituary read: "...Normal Karl Scheid, son of Karl and Martha Knoll Scheid, died on July 16, in Tarpon Springs, Florida. He was born November 12, 1922, Monroeville, Ohio and graduated from Monroeville High School in 1940. He starred in track, holding a long standing state record in the high jump.He was a member of Roby Masonic Lodge, Monroeville, Ohio and earlier this year received his 50 year pin.During WW II, Mr. Scheid, served in the Merchant Marine and the U. S. Army. His work career spanned 40 years with Texaco Oil Company as an engineering officer on their Great Lakes and oceangoing tankers. He and his wife, Betty (Bertha Jordan) moved to the Tarpon Springs area in 1955. They were active in the Anclote River Power Squadron. Since 1968 they have owned and operated the Anclote River Home Mobile Home Park. His wife preceded him in death in 1992. He is survived by his sisters, Margaret McKinley of Jenkintown, Pennsylvania and Millicent Denzer of Bloomfield Hills, Michigan; and, a brother, Waldo W. Scheid, of Redart, Virginia; and ten nieces and nephews. Visitors will be received at the Jump Funeral Home on Monroe Street, Monroeville, Ohio, on Sunday, July 24, from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8pm. Additional info For about 15 years I was an activist & worked with non-profit organizations that seek to protect the environment; save the family farm system of agriculture; and keep the food supply safe from irradiation, bioengineered harmony, and harmful pesticides. In this work I was a lobbyist, community organizer, grant writer/fund raiser, staff director and conference planner.

The most exciting time of my activist work was to be involved with Farm AID & to help plan the message during their concerts. It was especially interesting to meet all of the artists supporting the effort, like Willie Nelson, etc.

When I was 21 I lived in Barcelona, Spain for a year and taught English and Biology at an American School

Additional info In the summer of 1968 I was the first woman to descend & ascend the deepest single drop pit in the western hemisphere; the entrance pit to the cave in Mexico is about 1100 feet deep. In fact the entrance pit is pretty much the cave; not very long or very many passages were found off the central room. The surface diameter of the pit opening is about 40 feet. The room at the bottom is much bigger about 150 feet across. One long rope was fastened at the top of the pit and reached to the floor. We rappelled down this rope and used Jumars to ascend it. To descend we used a rack of brake bars to act as friction on the rope, adding more bars as we went down. To ascend I sat in a seat made of pieces of webbing in a figure eight, a sling with a loop for each foot was attached to the rope with a jumar - a kind of clip that grabs the rope when weight is on it and can be slid up the rope when no weight is on it. A sling from my seat sling was attached to the rope with a jumar. So when setting the foot slings were pushed up the rope. Then one stood on those slings and pushed up the sling to the seat webbing. Then sat back and pushed up the feet etc.

The homestead now belongs to Millicent and Richard Denzer of Grosse Point Shores, Michigan. This author and her spouse have spent many wonderful mornings, afternoons and evenings at "the farm" and one can only imagine as you sit on the wicker furniture and rock in the summertime the events, happy and sad, that have taken place there. The stories that could be told of days gone by, the hardships and the love that endured and enjoyed by the families within those walls. The air is cleaner, the flowers more beautiful, the trees more stately and yet, the creaks in the floor as you busy yourself about from room to room lets your imagination go in so many different directions.

A gracious hostess, "Mitzi" provides yet another generation of how it used to be when she was growing up and spent so much time there. The orchards were full of fruit, animals all around, horses to ride, eggs to gather, and meals were "home made" and religion was very much a part of your everyday life.

Family members went away to school, to the big cities, but they always came "home" for the summers, for weddings, for funerals, to have their babies baptized and to bury loved ones.

Our Scheid roots in America are here in this household and on this land, and among the soil, we know from whence we came: good German stock, a proud heritage and not afraid to work and get on with life.

How fortunate we are "to know" our family among the preceding pages. How fortunate that others over the years cared enough to clip the newspaper articles, write the names on the back of photographs, keep diaries and write down important facts about the families; and keep that in a safe place, for descendants they would never know, to find and want to continue the quest to know who we are and where we are going.

Each generation is unique, special, in God's Master Plan, and because we were born to be an integral part of HIS plan, we appreciate what has been done for us by those we never knew.

In carrying on "the name" and honoring the same, we give back what perhaps sometimes we do not deserve - the faith and trust with each generation to preserve and honor the family. Little did Anton and Katherine Scheid realize the legacy they would create, and the number of descendants they would have. I haven't counted, I typed the information instead, but counting slipped my mind as I wove the tapestry of information provided to me. But there are many and all have done a part in taking care of their family, and for the bigger picture, atoning HIS plan and HIS work.Truly we are the fortunate ones, we always knew that we are loved.

September 1999

Dear Patty,

Thank you for your persistence, your time, hundreds of hours of research and writing, and your loving care of this family, shown by weaving our lines and stories together.

My contribution comes as the youngest of my generation. My father, Karl Anton, was the youngest of his generation as was his father, Karl "Charles." The memories I have are mixed with the stories I heard as a child and those told to me by my older sister, Margaret and my cousin, Merlin Scheid. I did not know my Grandpa and Grandma Scheid but I have painted a picture of them for myself from the pictures and accounts found stored at the "home place,"as my father referred to his boyhood home. I would like to share this small picture of them and the "home place."

Grandpa appears in the few photos we have of him as a stern man, very thin, with large hands and very deep set eyes. His life may explain.

At the age of 12, with his parents, Anton and Katherine, and his sisters, Karl came from Germany to America. Two years earlier, his two older brothers had come to Ohio and had bought the family farm. His name, Karl came to be Charles, the English translation. In the next few years, his siblings married and moved on to set up their own households. As the youngest, Charles remained on the family farm with his parents. His father died when Charles was 23. He married Elizabeth Opperman at 24. After he married, his brothers and sisters and their spouses quit claim their shares of the 170 acre farm to him for $7000, and his widowed mother, Katherine, did quit claim also to him, but with specific conditions, as recorded on December 31, 1867 in Huron County Record of Deeds.

I quote: " The conditions of this conveyance is such; That whereas the Said Charles Scite in consideration of the above conveyance and in payment for the above described piece of land as interest therein does covenant and agree to pay the Said Catherine Scite on the first day of March AD 1867 (170) one hundred and seventy dollars and also to pay her on the first day of each and every succeeding March (170) one hundred seventy dollars during her natural life The Said Charles Scite also agrees to keep on Said farm for the Said Catherine Scite one Horse Two Cows Thirteen Sheep & Two Pigs and to furnish all necessary feed for and to take good care of the same and to furnish the Shed on the east side of the barn for their use The Said Charles Scite also agrees to give the Said Catherine Scite the exclusive use of the North East room on the first floor in the two story part of the Brick house on Said farm together with Such other privileges in the Sellar and other parts of the house as may be necessary for her convenience & comfort The Said Charles Scite is also to give the Said Catherine Scite one third of all the fruit grown on Said farm & to furnish her with necessary firewood Now the conditions of this conveyance is such that if the Said Charles Scite Shall fail to perform all or any of the conditions that he has herein agreed to perform then and in that case if the Said Catherine Scite So Elect this conveyance Shall be void Otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law." Katherine lived with them for 17 years.

Elizabeth and Charles prospered. They raised five daughters and two sons to adulthood. The family also raised three of their grandchildren. They added four more farms to their holdings. In 1906, their farmhouse was remodeled by adding a large kitchen, pantry, four bedrooms upstairs and a big front porch. At the same time the summer kitchen was moved to the yard behind the new addition, and was rented to the C&O Raiload as an overflow bunkhouse for Pontiac Station.

Charles believed strongly in education for his children. They all attended German School and the school on Boehler Road, later known as North Pleasant School. His son Will attended school in Battle Creek, Michigan for a year while managing one of the family's farms. Amelia went to the cooking school at the Battle Creek Sanitarium, where they stressed vegetarian diets. She also learned hat making at a millinery school. In 1899, Anna graduated from Monroeville High School, which was very unusual for a young woman at that time. Karl attended Ohio Northern College at Ada for a year. Of the three grandchildren, the two girls, Martha and Verneita graduated from Oberlin College School of Business and their brother Elmer attended the Automobile School of Cleveland.

Perhaps Grandpa was overprotective of his daughters. No suitors ever measured up for him. My Aunt Anna liked a man who worked on the railroad. She had met him at the Pontiac Station, which was down at the end of Sand Hill Road. Grandpa said no way! Sometime after Grandpa died, Aunt Anna read in the Cleveland newspaper that her former suitor had become a vice president of the C&O Railroad and her comment was, " I sure wish Pa was here now to read this." She never did marry. There are similar stories of Aunt Amelia. Another daughter, Marie, did marry and moved to Cleveland with her husband. In time Grandpa found out that her husband was abusive to her. He and his grandson went with a truck to Cleveland, where Marie was living with her husband and mother-in-law. They packed up her belongings and took her home to the farm - and that was that.

Charles was generous to his children. When Minnie married he gave her a farm.

He gave Lena a farm after her husband abandoned her and their three children. Will married and was given the farm next door with a new house. Eleven years later, Karl was given a loan for a farm when he married. Upon Grandpa's death Anna and Amelia canceled the balance of the loan.

Grandpa must have had some health problems. I've been told that he was always cold. He went to Michigan to health spas and that is where he met Dr. John H. Kellogg and Dr. A.W. Petersohn at the Battle Creek Sanitarium, a wellness center. He became very interested in health foods. He considered investing in Post Cereals but instead he bought a farm at the edge of Grand Rapids, Michigan. This is our family "almost got rich" story that we like to tell. I remember drinking Postum, a grain-based hot drink. You can still find one of the natural cereal crates from Kellogg's in the storeroom at the farm.

The farm house had steam heat radiators in every room. Grandpa thought that was unhealthy, so in his bedroom upstairs he used a wood burning stove. Merlin tells me, the grandsons had to carry wood up to his room every day after school. This was in his later years. Grandma had her bedroom downstairs.

There aren't as many stories of Grandma. My mother Martha, her-daughter-in-law, said she was a sweet and quiet woman. She loved her flower gardens. One of the few snapshots we have of her was taken outside with her hoe in one hand and her sun bonnet in the other and a smile on her face. And there are not many smiles in those old photos. I'm sure she loved and nurtured her children by the kind of people they became. My Aunt Anna told me that Grandma babied my father far too much and that she nursed him until he was five. Anna had been the baby until Karl arrived seven years later.

Grandma had some lovely black dresses. We still have some of them and a beautiful paisley shawl in a trunk at the farmhouse. There is a black brocade two piece, the skirt of which I wore for a formal dance in college. It was easily 50 years old even then, but it looked like new. She was a tall woman, taller than her husband my sister tells me. She had a brother, Will and a sister, Lydia who lived on the Opperman Homestead on Opperman Road, a couple of miles away. Neither of them ever married. Merlin says he remembers visiting there often with his parents.

We know Grandma's last days were filled with pain. She had breast cancer. My sister tells me she remembers the day Grandma was dying. No one noticed this little four-year-old girl watching. Her mother and father and her the aunts were all crying, but not her grandfather. This seemed strange to the little girl. She saw the women "running around with basins of bloody rags." What a trauma for my sister. Elizabeth died that day at age 73. Her obituary didn't mention her husband as one of those left to mourn her. There were several errors in the obit.

Grandpa survived her by two years. His three daughters, who were living at home, gave him excellent care but that did not stave off old age. He died at 81.

This is a note from Emma Heyman Dunn to Grandpa's daughters at the time of his death. " Mentor, Dec-10-1923 My dear cousins:- I cannot begin to tell you how I feel the loss of our dear uncle, Mothers' brother. You have my deepest heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement. Had so much to live for, seems sad he could not be spared to his family for another five or eight years. Your father, in looks, seemed to me to be much younger and was so interested in everything. I enjoyed so much seeing and & being with him when he came up to Paulinas' - the last time father was out here. Think Carl, is the very image of his father. Would have liked very much to have come to the funeral. I'm sorry your father had to suffer so much. He is now at rest. It is God's Way. His Will be done. As ever - your loving cousin, Emma Dunn."

The "home place" was just that - home - where it all began in America. The many snapshots show us that lots of people where always around, coming to reunions and parties. Uncle Pete's and Uncle Bill's families came to see their mother, Katherine, and their brother's family. The families were large and the cousins all knew each other. They went to the Lake Erie beach together and to dances. They had handsome horses and carriages and the first Touring car. Aunt Lena, Minnie, Uncle Will, Aunt Amelia, Marie, Anna, and Karl, my dad, made it a fun place to visit. Visiting was the entertainment of the day. I don't remember all of these cousins except by names I heard from my parents' and aunts' conversations.

We did have Scheid Reunions at Ruggles Beach, but I don't remember most of the people. These I do remember meeting: Louie Scheid would come to visit my Dad. Mae Smith Whistler always entered her "fancy work" at the Huron County Fair, and even though she entered the same articles on alternate years, she always won blue ribbons. Her daughter, Ruth became a famous puppeteer. Esther "Skippy" Miller worked for Bigelow Carpets in California. I got to know her in later years as a very good friend of Verneita Scheid. Anna and Amelia ordered five large room- sized carpets through her for the farmhouse. That was over sixty years ago and three of the carpets are still in use. Edward "Brick" Scheid came to my Dad's funeral in Pontiac, as the "Erie County" cousins referred to the "home place." I had met his son, David, at Ohio State University when we both were students. Years later, David brought his mother, Alice, and his Aunt Edna Scheid to the 125th anniversary of St. Peter Lutheran Church and also visited the "home place."

The next generation, my sister, brothers and our cousins came to the "home place" as often as we could. You could find Uncle Will's boys watching Elmer work on his race car, helping out with chores, and spending many evenings playing cards. We kids were always spending the night and going some place with our aunts or Elmer. It was expected that you go to church and stop in after services. Usually there was an invitation to stay for Sunday dinner, this was true especially for Paul Williams' and Karl's family. I wonder how many people put their feet under that big kitchen table through the years. And the covered dish of cookies on that kitchen table never got empty.

My own memories of the "home place" center around my two aunts, Amelia and Anna Scheid. They inherited the farm from their father, my grandfather, upon his death in 1923. They had cared for their parents, always making their home with them. In those days they were called maiden ladies, but I always remember the family referring to them as "the girls". They have no direct descendants, but I believe they had a great influence on the young people who knew them. They are who we remember when we think of the "home place."

Anna was in charge of the farm operations and the business decisions. At one time they raised wrinkled skinned and curly horned merino sheep for their fine wool. Merlin remembers that every spring they drove the sheep down the road to the Huron River, blocked it off with gates in the water and washed the sheep. There are snapshots of the prize bull Anna bought for breeding. Many farmers brought their cows to be bred. The milk-cooling house, which was a converted outhouse, still stands. The farm sold chickens and eggs.

Anna was a tall, large frame woman, energetic and full of life. She loved to drive and go places, and her new 1939 Buick was her pride. We have snapshots of her on horseback while visiting the Heyman relatives in Burns, Kansas, right next to snapshots of her dressed in a beautiful hat and very feminine dress. We all loved her. She made us feel so special. She always gave us a wonderful present for birthdays and Christmas, especially when our parents couldn't afford one. I remember when I was in third grade at my one room country school. Up drives Aunt Anna one morning and has me excused. She takes me and Alfred Kimball to Sandusky to see the animals from the Ringling Bros. Circus get off the train and parade down the street to the Big Top. Now that's special!

Just recently I found a box of Anna's diaries. She wrote these from 1932 until her death in 1944. What a gift these are for us. The entries are mostly about day to day, routine events on the farm. They give you a picture of how many people came to visit, and how in touch they stayed with their cousins. She mentions Katie Scheid Waldoch, Julia Scheid Pascoe, Mae Smith Whistler, Cora Smith Dickel, Alda Scheid Bedell, Louie Scheid, Emma Heyman Dunn and many other Scheids, Heymans, Millers and Oppermans. She records deaths and births. She wrote all of this at the time of the Great Depression. One entry: March 29, 1933," We cleaned the attic today. Elmer sowed clover seed. The Farmers and Citizens Bank took over the farm of W.D." Another: Sunday, October 8,1939, "Martha, Margaret, Millicent, and Norman came to church. We came home and visited. Norman was sitting by the radio, he looked up and saw smoke. We ran out and the barns were on fire. In less than an hour it was all burned down. Monroeville Fire Department came and saved the corn barn. So many people here. Will, Hattie, and Merlin stayed all night." She wrote the facts, not the feelings.

Aunt Amelia Scheid was the important one in the kitchen. You may remember she went to cooking school in Michigan. Merlin tells me about the time the boys went on a pest hunt and caught pigeons. They had a big catch and somehow talked Aunt Amelia into roasting them so they could have a "pigeon party."

Amelia had a quiet and impish sense of humor. She never drove a car. She was more the at-home aunt. We spent fun times with her in the parlor where she'd play the piano and sing hymns. She loved to sing in German. Every now and then we'd get her to take us up to church where she'd play the organ for us. She taught me her German prayer. The front porch in summer with the cool breezes, was her very special place. This is mine, too.

Every spring Aunt Amelia, my mother and Aunt Hattie would get together over the seed cataloges and order some very unusual seeds to share. They liked to plant unique vegetable and flower gardens. Hops were grown to make beer. We have pictures of "the girls" in Amelia's outrageous hat creations. She and Anna cut and rolled lots of balls of rags to have rugs made. They sewed quilts and comforters. Together they did the gardening and the housework. They were very compatible sisters. The house was maintained beautifully. I recall there was always new paint and wallpaper and the old furniture always being refinished.

In the late '20s, early '30s, the Depression era, life took on new meaning for my aunts. They became foster parents. There were many homeless children especially in the urban areas. I don't know how it all began but they established a link with the Cleveland Welfare Department. Over the years several children came to live with them. I imagine it was very natural for my aunts, children had always been around the house. They had helped raise their two nieces and nephew.

The young people were a big help on the farm and it was a safe and happy place for them to grow. There was Joe Kovac, Carl Barrier, Jane Hopkins, Wilbert and Bertha Mortzfield, and Alfred Kimball. I think you need to meet some of these people. Their names aren't on the descendent charts but they are a very real part of this family and the history of the "home place." I knew three of these young people while growing up. Bertha and Wilbert Mortzfield, sister and brother were born in Cleveland, Ohio, Bertha on November 21, 1917 and Wilbert on January 28, 1915. They came to live at the farm in 1930 at the ages of 13 and 15. It didn't take long before Pontiac became their home. They went to school, attended St. Peter's, got confirmed, made friends, did chores, went to parties and school activities. Wilbert graduated from Monroeville High School in 1935 and Bertha followed in 1936. Bertha went on to Business College in Cleveland. She married George Pierce and they had two children, Jeffrey and Janet. Wilbert moved later to Cleveland to work. He was in the Army in WW II. After he returned, he married Lee and they had a son, Allen. Both families came back with their families often to visit Anna, Amelia and Elmer. Wilbert died on April 4, 1997. His family and George Pierce are deceased. Bertha is living in Columbus, Ohio. She visited the "home place" while in town for her 62nd high school reunion last year.

Alfred Kimball was born July 20, 1926. He arrived at the "home place" in 1936. As did those before him, he went to school, was confirmed at St. Peter's, did chores, played with friends, went hunting, worked on the farm, and served in WW II. After his discharge from the Army, he returned and lived at the farm until he married. Alfred and his wife, Dolores still live nearby in Standardsburg. Through the years they always returned with their large family to visit Amelia and Elmer. It was home. As of this writing they have just celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Alfred has an incredible memory for dates and events. He should write his own history book.

Aunt Anna died in 1944 from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. It was such a shock to everyone! She and Arineta Scheid were on their way to Sandusky to deliver crates of eggs. The accident occurred at an intersection and involved their car and a gasoline truck. Arineta was driving and did recover from her injuries. We can only imagine the depths of her emotional pain, losing her friend this way.

For Aunt Amelia, the loneliness and the awesome new responsibility of managing the farm, must have been overwhelming. With Anna gone, relatives and neighbors helped when they could. Verneita, who was raised there, came most every weekend from her job in Cleveland. Verneita's brother, Elmer Scheid, who had lived there since a young boy, still did the farming.
Amelia wrote diaries for two years. Writing may have been a comfort to her.

These diaries tell us of a completely different kind of person. We know what she served each day for dinner. Remember Amelia was the cook. Life was in a holding pattern, but everything was aging, both the people living there and the buildings around them. Before too long, Amelia's health began to fail. A virus struck that affected her optic nerve and she began to lose her eyesight. The worst blow was a fall, a broken hip. At the time the doctors felt her heart wasn't strong enough to take the surgery to pin the hip. She lived for over ten more years unable to walk.

Martha Scheid Reinhold, a sister of Elmer and Verneita, who had also been raised by the aunts, came back to live at the "home place" sometime after her husband, Charles died. He had had cancer and took his own life. For Aunt Amelia to have Martha with her was wonderful. Martha and Charles lived their married life in Detroit, Michigan where Martha worked for Cadillac Motor Co. as an executive secretary. She was a kind and gentle lady with a lovely smile and she loved her cats, dozens were on the back porch. Verneita retired and moved back to the farm also. It was the darkest and most difficult of times for the "home place" and its residents. Aunt Amelia was in her nineties and the others in their seventies. Many of the other nieces and nephews from the area, had married and moved away. Although always returning with their children for brief visits and special occasions, busy with their families and jobs, they were unavailable to help.

Elmer died in 1971. Martha died in 1972. Aunt Amelia died in 1973 at the age of 96. Verneita inherited the farm. It had always been her home. She was alone. There were no children.

Verneita loved the farm, the flowers and the house, but it was too much for her to care for alone. Dale Scheid was farming the land. The house was in great need of repair. She wanted the "home place" to remain in the Scheid family and she approached the cousins to ask if anyone would buy it. Dick and I offered a land contract but she was advised by a lawyer friend not accept it because of her age. This was a very emotional time in our lives. For me all the wonderful memories of the happy times spent there came back.

I remember the surprise party for my 16th birthday, December 1944. My Aunt Anna had died in November. I was spending the weekend with my Aunt Amelia. She asked me to go to the bus station to pick up Wilbert Mortzfield who was coming from Cleveland for a weekend at home. As we drove into the driveway, we saw lots of cars in the yard. Wilbert says,"looks like a party". And it was a wonderful one! My mother and sister-in-law, Lina had surprised me! Seven years later, my Aunt Amelia and Verneita gave a lovely linen shower for me. Many of my same friends were there. The biggest party of all was two weeks later. Dick and I were married at St.Peter's and we had our wedding reception in the lovely, tree filled, front yard of the "home place." That was 1951.

As each of our three children were born, we returned to have them baptized at St. Peter's. This was true of my sister, Margaret McKinley with her children and my brother, Waldo "Wally" Scheid with his children. The "home place" was where we wanted to be in the important times in our lives. All of us had our precious memories.

December 1974, Verneita held an estate sale and many of the antiques were sold. Two years later the farm was still available. Verneita came to us again to see if we could work something out. Our three kids were in college. We looked for funds. We consulted with Dick's mother who was living in Canton, Ohio. She told us that Dick's father had said after our wedding, "Mitzi and Dick will own that farm someday." It was now twenty- five years later. His prophecy came true.

And that's another whole story for the "home place". Twenty-one years have passed far too quickly since that day. St. Peter's Lutheran Church is still next door. Our traditions have continued with many reunions of family from Maine to California and Minnesota to Florida, a wedding, baptisms, and funerals. With years of planning, hard work, the "do it yourself" ability of Dick Denzer, and a little guidance from his wife, the house has been renovated. It is as lovely as I remember it as a child. In my 70th year myself, just sitting on that front porch is pure happiness for me. The seventh generation of Anton and Katherine have come to know the "home place."

May God and the Spirits hold it lovingly in their arms,

Mitzi

John G. Dorn and his wife, Minnie had two sons, John Richard Dorn who married Verna Waldock and Randolph J. Dorn who married Estella Martin.

These families have served their community well -in the banking business (Citizens Bank), local hospitals in the City of Sandusky, the Kuebeler - Stang Brewery, Dorn Winery, Battery Park Marina Complex, Mylander Foundation, the Dorn Foundation and many philanthropic endeavors unknown to the citizens of this community.

The local history and genealogical publications for Erie County reference these families and the contributions they have made to their community, the reader only needs to browse, in Aldrich's HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY OHIO, or Hewson L. Peeke's STANDARD HISTORY OF ERIE COUNTY, OHIO, or Charles Frohman's various publications on Sandusky and the surrounding area. Generous in their care and their giving, Sandusky citizens through the years have benefited from their gifts and as their legacies continue, will do so.

Sandusky's class of 1910½

By WILBERT OHLEMACHER

[illegible] Sandusky Last week supervisors [illegible] classes Public Schools for some [illegible] were introduced [illegible] school system and established the A and B grades

[illegible] kindergarten [illegible] child had a dif[illegible] adjusting to our school system [illegible] did not make a satisfactory grade he would have to repeat a whole semester. By having the A and B grades the student could repeat a half [illegible] time

[illegible] graduation classes [illegible] and one in June This continued [illegible] for some time but it was finally discontinued

[illegible] percent of these children had to attend school [illegible] years of age [illegible] finished the eighth grade Many times boys would quit school at the age of 14 and then get apprentice jobs in a factory at the beginning rate of seven cents per hour for a 9-hour day

I have an excellent picture for this column for the class of 1910. Naturally the January classes were smaller in number than the June classes. This class had a higher rate of boys to girls than was usual at that time. Many boys and some girls did not finish high school, but left to complete [illegible] the Sandusky Business College. This type of education was not available in our high school until the new building [illegible] Adams Junior High was completed in 1915

I am going to confine myself to the boys of this class as I know all of them very well and have known them for a long, long time. They have all furthered their education and have had active business careers.

Richard Dorn followed his father in the Dorn Wire Co. and then left [illegible] development of the Ar[illegible] Co. Pro[illegible] Co. [illegible] business founder, in Lorain, [illegible] Chester Teasel was in the building trades supply business in Plymouth, Mich. Karl Kugel is well remembered for his years as city manager of our fair city of Sandusky.

Clarence Thompson was a prominent and successful physician and surgeon in Chicago. Marcus Grether followed in the footsteps of his father as a minister in the German Reformed Church. Chester Anderson was [illegible] the real estate business in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

I guess everybody in Sandusky knew Chet because his father was the owner of Anderson's ice cream and candy store on the west side of Columbus Avenue between Water and Market streets. A regular size sundae or ice cream soda only cost a nickel and a super deluxe model cost only 10 cents. Doesn't this make you a bit envious

A hand out on a local tour homes, this was the brochure given to this visiting the Mylander Home in Sandusky, Ohio.....

George L. Mylander
155 Sunset Drive
Sandusky, Ohio 44870

This home, owned by George L. Mylander, was built in 1957 by his parents, Dr. Lester R. Mylander, (1893-1970) and Christine Schade Mylander, (1902-1983). Dr. Mylander was a founder of Sandusky Memorial Hospital, now Firelands Community Hospital. He was the first Osteopathic physician in Erie County coming to Sandusky in 1919 following army service in France in World War I. Mrs. Mylander was an active volunteer and was a founding member of Cancer Services of Erie County. George Mylander is a retired teacher and administrator and was also a Sandusky city commissioner and ex-officio mayor. The home was given the name "Tweenwaters" by a friend of the family, Mrs. Sidney (Blanche) Frohman.

The LIVING ROOM features a Victorian sculpture that was a gift to George J. Schade, (1869-1937) and Anna Kuebeler, (1872-1967) on the occasion of their wedding in 1895. This, along with the gas light above it came from the Jacob Kuebeler, later the Schade home on Tiffin Avenue. The Kuebeler-Schade home stood on the site of what is now Dick's Carry-Out. Jacob Kuebeler, (1838-1904) was the great-grandfather of George Mylander. He arrived in Sandusky from Germany in 1860 and along with his brother, August, (1843-1927) started the Jacob Kuebeler Brewing Company. The brewery was located next to the home and soon will be the location of the Northern Ohio Juvenile Community Corrections Facility.

The breakfront houses a number of Royal Doulton figurines Christine Mylander collected during her lifetime. This room along with the family room have beamed ceilings, typical of many homes built in Cedar Cove in the late fifties and early sixties.

The DINING ROOM displays an original oil by Anna Kuebeler Schade and was done during her youth. She was active in the women's suffrage movement and never failed to vote until her death at age 95. Also in this room is an original water-color done by noted Sandusky artist, Frank W. Smith of a building first constructed and occupied in 1858 by Jacob Baubach as a saloon. Razed in 1980 the property at the corner of W. Market and Jackson Streets, across from the Sandusky Register, is the home of the Ohio Bureau of Employment Services.

Highlighted in the FAMILY ROOM is a "salesman's stove" a plaything for the Schade children. This was originally used as a working miniature model (and a heavy one at that at 35 pounds) for the salesman to take on his rounds. An identical one may be found in the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan.

Among the interesting people who visited in this room was Harry Stuhldreher, one of the legendary "Four Horsemen" under Coach Knute Rockne at Notre Dame.

The picture above the fireplace of the Marblehead Lighthouse is an original by James Denig, grandson of Commodore Denig, painted in 1933. He was killed in World War II while serving as a tank commander in the Pacific Theater of the conflict.

The large picture of the Joseph S. Scobell, once called "the reluctant ghost of Sandusky's waterfront" also is an original by Frank W. Smith. High on the wall is a painting of Abraham Lincoln by another Sandusky artist, Arnold Ehrsam, a gift of the staff of Campbell School to George Mylander upon his retirement in 1987. The model of the ship above the door was used as a "door prize" at the Schade Theater (later the Ohio) in downtown Sandusky. These items along with countless other memorabilia collected by George Mylander, makes this room truly his home.

Finland....Finland....Finland

The late Marie Maunus Pascoe was indeed proud of her native land. Traveling to her homeland, staying in touch with relatives, sharing customs and history to all who would listen, she brought to life for many, her native land. Among her many possessions were these postcards of "our family church in Finland....before the shrubbery grew and after the shrubbery grew...and family records here...."

These two postcards are the inside of the church, top card is of the front of the church, bottom card is the back of the church. On the back in her own hand she has written, "...Tom's great grandparents, Maunus were married here..church is now a museum...Isokyro, Finland..."

These two postcards detail the wooden carvings to the right of the altar (top postcard) and to the left of the altar (bottom postcard).....

Among her possessions were two maps of Finland: (1) smaller of the two, giving relationship to Sweden, Norway and Russia; and (2) portion of a map of Finland with circles around the city of: Tampere, Turku, Isokyro and Vaasa....

Among her possessions was a native dress for the province in Finland where our people came from as defined in her own handwriting...

Among her possessions were four books written in Finnish and very very old. With regret no one in our family speaks Finnish nor do we have the ability to interpret what is said within the pages, but we have made a copy of what was written by hand with the anticipation that someone, someday can and by Marie's own hand ....

In Marie's address book, were these names and addresses: (1) Mr. Mrs. Yrgo Miettinen, Vainolankata 2A, Tampere, Finland; and, by that was Ailia Tuuri; (2) Mr. Mrs. Ero Jarvinen "Anna Liisa" Laukontori 4C 28, 33200 Tampere, Finland.

Among her possessions was a letter written by Anna Liisa, this author knows not when, only that the writer speaks of a date, 7th-14th of March...but she saved it for a reason.

Dear Marie,

Have you seen of your newspapers that here in Tampere it's happening the World Ice Hockey championships? They last from the 4th - to the 14th of march. This evening we go to watch the match between U.S.A. and Suomi. It has been many tourists from other countries watching the games here. Did your sons ever played ice-hockey? It's rather hard sports. Aili's son Pekka has played it some years in the school groups. Therefore we have been interested of it too.

This winter has been here very snowy and rather cold. Eero has skied much and has swum in the hole in the ice. He says that this makes his health good. I could not do either of them. I am afraid that in the skiing I can break my bones or something else. I think it's better then I stay home when Eero goes to sport. (I suppose I'm coming old - it's pity)).

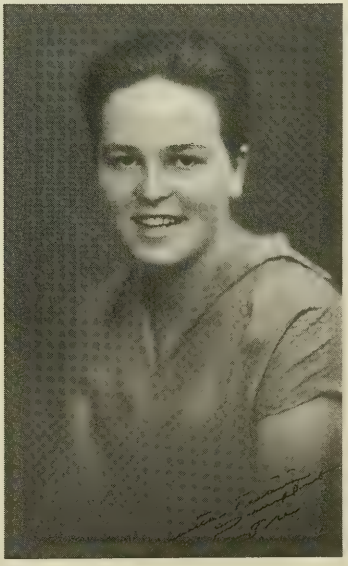
Please, write me when you have time to do it!

Love to you all Anna-Liisa.

Writing to both addresses in 1998, postmarked Tampere, the letters were returned to us, marked, tuntematon, aka "unknown". However, this author wrote a letter to the local newspaper in Tampere, Finland, asking for descendants of Miettinen or Jarvinen to correspond. Much to our surprise and our delight, one of the daughters of Anna Liisa Jarvinen, wrote back and the rest of the "renewal of family" is...is..what the late Marie Maunus Pascoe would have wanted. We are keeping in touch with our Finnish relatives, sharing our lives for the last 30+ years and catching up on so much. As the reader goes forward in this manuscript, evidences of this will present itself....

In the summer of 1962, Marie Maunus Pascoe and her youngest son, JohnThomas Pascoe traveled to Finland to visit with relatives and attend a wedding.

These two photographs were among the possessions of Marie Maunus Pascoe, on the back of both is written by her hand, "..relative in Tampere, Finland...." Marja Liisa, daughter of Anna Liisa has graciously identified the photographs as (left) Anna Liisa Tuuri Jarvinen, her mother; and (right) Ailia Tuuri Miettinen, her mother's sister....



Marie Maunus Pascoe was very proud of the fact that her native land, Finland, was the only country to repay her World War I debt to the United States Treasury in full! This newspaper article[55] she kept among her possessions

HENRY J. TAYLOR

Honor, Conscience, Unity

By HENRY J. TAYLOR

Heroic little Finland has notified our Treasury that on June 1 she will again send us $357,660 ($715,320 annually) while 17 other countries still owe us $40 billion in overdue and uncollected World War I debts.

Finland still stands on former President Pehr Evind Svinhufvud's declared principle: "We wish to keep our word."

HONOR THE BRAVE. Honor the conscientious. Honor the grateful. World War I was only the beginning of Finland's troubles.

I was in Finland, as I have been many times since, when the Soviet Union attacked her in the winter of 1939-40. It was my first glimpse of the Russian Red Army in battle.

FINLAND SUFFERED 67,000 dead, wounded and missing in 105 days. A flood of sympathy swept the entire civilized world. Winston Churchill spoke for England: "Finland, superb, nay sublime, sublime in the jaws of peril, Finland shows what freemen can do."

But the awful holocaust bled Finland white. A year later, prostrate, Finland was attacked by Russia again.

"Once and for all," announced the Kremlin on June 23, 1941, "the Finns are to be exterminated from the earth." Like Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, Finland's neighbors on the south, this tiny opponent was to go.

HERE WAS A nation of less than four million people, with a 700-mile frontier bordering on a country 50 times its size, whose deadly assaults have been a pitiable problem of every Finn's life for a hundred years. Once more, bent to her knees, she was to resist annihilation.

At daylight June 22 the Kremlin's bombers and the Russian steel-jawed infantry struck. The Soviet threw 36 divisions against the Finns, a massed force larger than all of NATO's present armies. Finland mustered 16 divisions in her defense.

NEARLY 150,000 gray-uniformed women, the Lotta Corps, served at the front in support capacities. The Finns never allowed women to fight in the lines. But the then President Risto Ryti, a gentle, compassionate man, told me Finland would only have had 12 combat divisions except for the Lottas.

Sixteen per cent of the country's population was at the front, billeted in dugouts in the hard, frozen ground, living in every cranny that would give shelter against the awful cold, fighting in the black forests, on the ice of the 60,000 frozen lakes or in the great drifts on snowbound Arctic trails.

THIS COMBAT PERCENTAGE was the largest of any nation in the world. As a comparison to our country, it was as if 32 million Americans were at the front in Vietnam. But, in the end, the cruel weight of the Reds' overwhelming numbers mocked the destiny of the land they loved. And I heard there, as I had before, the sound a heart makes when it breaks in two.

Soviet Premier Aleksei Kosygin recently boasted that Soviet Karelia, seized from Finland, is now a showplace of advanced farming and of industrial development.

TYPICALLY, WHAT he neglected to say is that during the 1930-31 "dust bowl" years in the United States, very large numbers of Finnish-Americans migrated from our country to the Soviet Union.

They brought with them millions of dollars worth of new U.S. agricultural machinery that they had purchased with the proceeds of the sale of their farms in Idaho, Minnesota, Wisconsin, etc. They did this to take up collective farming in the Soviet half of what once had been Finnish Karelia.

THE KREMLIN promised them full liberty, grants in aid and immense economic opportunity. Instead, what they got was barren soil and heartbreaking toil under ruthless, police-state restrictions. Then, when the Russians struck Finland, these Finnish-Americans got total seizure of everything they had brought from our country and exile to the far reaches of the Siberian Arctic. They laid the seed for Koysgin's boast only to have it taken away from them.

The Finnish word sisu means a combination of courage, stamina, tenacity and will power. Finland's ancient fort, Suomenlinna, in Helsinki's harbor, has inscribed over its moat: "Stay brave and do not trust to foreign help." The official names of the three adjoining fortresses tell the remaining story: Honor. Conscience. Unity. It is the story of Finland.

MAUNUS FAMILY

This author is so fortunate to have so many treasures written by the late Marie Maunus Pascoe. Among them is this keepsake:

My ancestors came from several different countries. All my mother's relatives came from Finland. My great grandfather, Jacob Maunus, married Sophia Tuuri. They came to Ashtabula, Ohio in 1880 where my great grandfather worked for the Pennsylvania Coal Company. My grandfather, Jacob E. Maunus, was born in Ashtabula in 1885. He was the foreman of the New York Central Car Shops. He married Susan Mianni, who was born in ~~Italy~~ Finland in 1885. She came to Ashtabula in 1898. My mother, Marie Maunus, was born in Ashtabula. In 1934 she married my father, Milton Pascoe, and came to live in Sandusky.

My father's ancestry is German, Irish and English. My great grandfather, Peter Scheid, was born in Baden, Germany. He married Katherine Heuser, also of Baden. They came to Erie County in 1860, where my great grandfather took up farming. Their daughter, Julia Scheid, married my grandfather, Gilbert Vergn Pascoe. My grandfather Pascoe was born in Fremont, Ohio. His mother was Mary Jane Gilbert, who was born in Galway, County of Mayo, Ireland. Her parents were George Gilbert and Bridget Nolan. My great grandfather Pascoe was born in Woodstock, Ontario, Canada. He married Mary Jane Gilbert in Detroit, Michigan and then moved to Fremont where he was a photographer. He moved his family to Sandusky when my grandfather Pascoe was a little boy. My grandfather Pascoe founded the Pascoe Agency of which firm my father and his brother now are members.

Researching in the Ashtabula County Library, John Thomas Pascoe found this information from the Ashtabula City Directories. Relationships? Don't know!

We know from Marie's handwriting that originally the name MAUNUS was spelled, MAUNUKSALA. Perhaps when our people emigrated to this country, accounts for the shortening of the name.

JAAKKO EDWIN MAUNUKSALA, SR.
aka
JACOB EDWIN MAUNUS SR.

Born October 24, 1851 in Wahala, Finland, we do not know of his parents. He married, _____ in Okismala, Vaasa, Finland, to Helena Sophia Tuuri. Helena was born July 10, 1849 in Isokyro, Finland. She was the daughter of Henry Tuuri and Maria Tammenpaa. Jacob Maunus Sr. and his wife, came to Ashtabula, Ohio circa 1880.

For many years, the family homestead was 65 Oak Street. A grandson, Alan Maunus, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania had among the possessions of his father, Theodore Maunus, this photograph of the back of the house at 65 Oak Street, in Ashtabula, Ohio. He remembered the 'sliding doors' on the back of the barn and the garden trellis where pictures were taken as a little boy.

Alan Maunus believed that the "homestead" was still there! So my spouse with the assistance of a dear friend, John A. Yochem, who just happened to be the retired real estate appraiser for Erie County, went to Ashtabula, Ohio to find the family homestead. The staff at the Ashtabula County Recorder's Office were most helpful and informed them that 65 Oak Street today in 1999, is now 1219 West Eighth Street. Camera in hand, map of the city of Ashtabula, they found the homestead and took a photograph of it. Another dear friend, Billy Myers, working only from the photograph, graciously did a pen and ink sketch for us. The barn that Alan Maunus remembered as a little boy is still there with the sliding doors, but the rose trellis is gone.

The obituary Jacob Maunus Sr., though faded over the years, gives us much information:

MINNI—MONAS.

Someone Peached on Couple Married Wednesday Night.

Miss Sanna Minni and Jacob Monas were married at the home of the groom, 65 Oak street, by Rev. Tettola of the Finnish Lutheran church, Wednesday night.

Only a very few of the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony and it was decided to keep the affair a secret, so the bride returned to her accustomed duties at a Walnut street residence Tuesday morning, but the friends found it out and exposed the parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Monas will reside at 65 Oak street.

Information on this family line comes from Alan Maunus, children Susan and Howard. This author is grateful for them being a life line for the Maunus Family and completing many of the missing links when this project began. We have communicated in person, on the phone, with snail mail and e-mail. Such luxuries we enjoy!

Theodore Jacob Maunus "Ted" married April 29, 1933 in Ashland, Kentucky to Monya Boskin who was a professional dancer. To this union was born an only child, Alan Jacob Maunus on September 7, 1934 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Among the belongings of his sister, Marie Maunus Pascoe, she wrote of her brother, "....Ted lives and works in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He works for the Sun Ship Yard at Chester, Pennsylvania. His son, Alan, a graduate of Temple University teaches physical education and coaches in the Philadelphia School System. He [Ted] has a band and plays throughout the year for special parties and at a night club. He has two grandchildren, Susan and Howard. Susan has done outstanding art work and was selected as one of the grade school children for special art lessons at the Philadelphia Art Museum. Howard is nine and is an avid baseball player..."

among.
The school had a carnival for the benefit of the band. They picked $400 clear profit. They had a crazy house, pet show, peep at show motion picture and lots of rides. Everything cost five cents.
I hope you

Friday the first

Dear Ted:-

I've been so muddled up of late, that I haven't kept any record of my correspondence. So will drop you a line or two to make sure that I will get your letter answered. The weather here has been kind of cockeyed, of late. Just think this is June 1st and I have to have a fire in the furnace the glass showed 46° this a.m. I hope it warms up soon. Every body at this place are OK, except a few sniffles which is due, to the crazy weather. Had a letter from Jerry, that is getting along fine. They have been hauling supplies to a new island base some where in the Pacific. His letter sure did hit the high spots it was post marked May 28. and got here June first. Most of come over in one of those new Rocket planes. Well thats about all for now. Write soon. Oh yes I got the V if I didn't mention it before also picture. Best regards from everybody.

A letter from his sister, Marie Maunus Pascoe on February 8, 1949....

Dear Ted,

Finally I am getting your letter answered. Where the time goes to I don't know — I just seem to be busy. The reason I do such a lousy job on letters is that I wait to write my letters at night and then I'm usually too tired.

In regard to the pictures you do what you think is best. I would like 3 small size of each for the boys snapshot books. I keep one for each of the boys. I would like an enlargement of the one marked (1) of Tommy & I like it a lot. I think the baseball poses of the boys are good. I'm enclosing a dollar so you can buy a few cigars or something. I wish you would let me know what it cost for the pictures so I could pay for them. Milt is starting to take an interest in cameras. He bought a Kodak flash camera but doesn't know too much about it as yet.

Charles was chosen to play 12th St. Rag on the 7th Grade talent show. He did quite a good job of it. He listens to the recordings of Jack Fina's & Pewee Hunt's 12th Street Rag & tries to play like they do. Reminds me of the days you used to play your [illegible] trying to get the Trombone part.

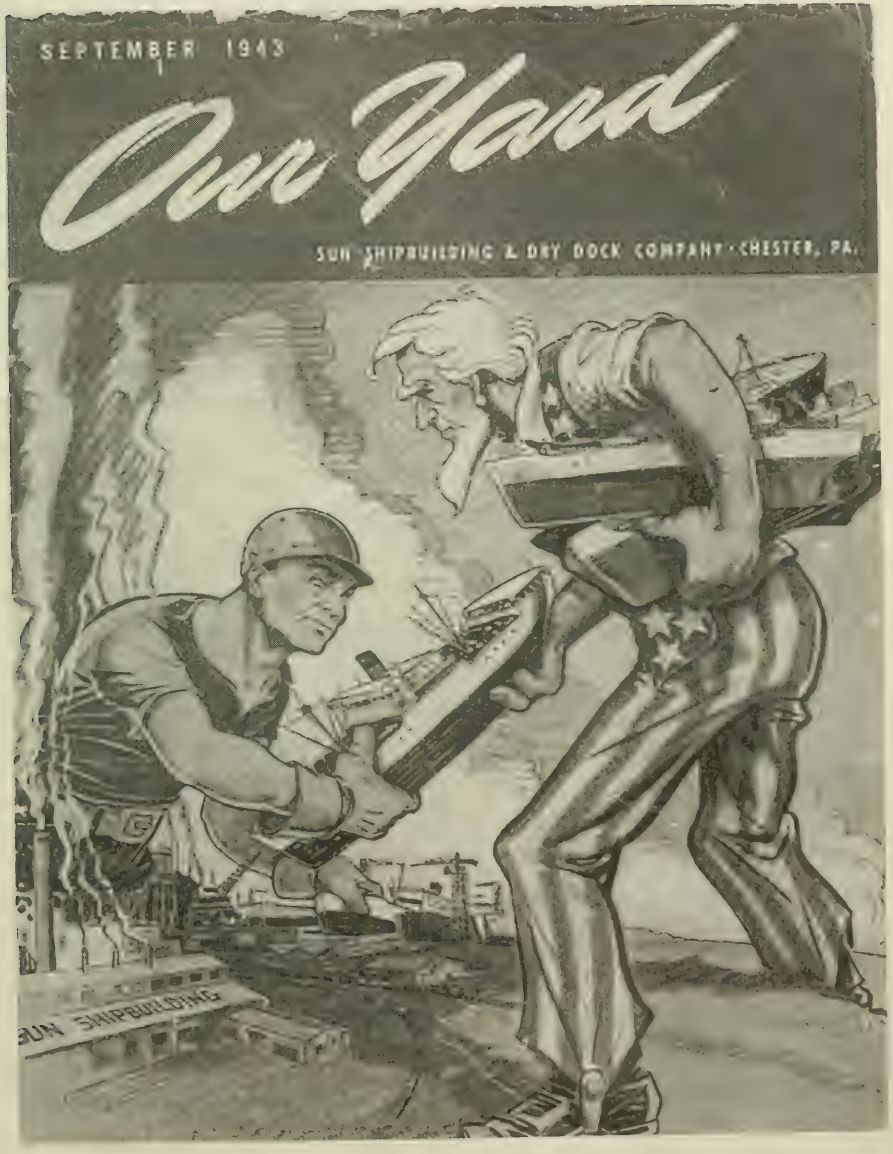
Both Charles & Jim made the honor roll at the end of the semester. They did good work all year. Hope it continues so maybe some day they can get a scholarship. They'll probably need scholarships to get thru. It costs so much to send a youngster to college one practically needs a scholarship.

Charles has a morning paper route. He gets up at 5:15 a.m. He made $50 at Christmas time with his calendars. He's had it since October & has saved about $90. He spent quite a bit on Christmas presents otherwise he would have saved more.

I'm sorry I've been so slow in answering.

Love,
Marie

The Sun Ship Building and DryDock Company "Family Magazine" was among the belongings of Alan Maunus, where his dad, Ted Maunus was employed.



In May of 1999, we traveled to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to meet with Eileen Susan Maunus, daughter of Alan and then on to Philadelphia to meet with Monya, the widow of Theodore; and Alan Maunus, the only child of Ted and Monya.

It had been more than twenty years since Tom and Alan had seen one another, so they had a lot of catching up to do. Naturally, Jane (Alan's second wife) and I began a friendship, as we both were strangers.

Alan shared his thoughts and memories with me, telling me I was born September 7, 1934 in Philadelphia in St. Luke's Hospital. I attended public schools in Philadelphia graduating from an all boys high school, Northeast High School. It was probably one of the better schools in Philadelphia. I played sports and was also in the music curriculum in high school. I decided to be a musician because I picked it up from my father, who was an excellent musician at the time. I began taking trombone (my father played the trombone) and bass lessons. The quickest way to get into the band was to play bass because they had too many trombone players. I applied to Temple University in Philly for the music curriculum. However, they required that you be able to play a Bach sonata with two hands on the piano which I could not do, so I decided to go into physical education which was a good career move for me. I graduated in 1957 and married in April of 1957. I got drafted in July, 1957 and spent one year nine months in the military. I was in the United States Army Band, the 1st Army Band, the 2nd Army Band, I played various shows in two years, and ended up as the last live bugler at the Pentagon. After me it was recorded music! I was the bugler at the Pentagon for three months, which was a great job, because we worked for 24 hours and were off for three days, so I would come back to Philly and play music here, too. Discharged in 1959, Philly School System held my job for me and I went back to teaching health & physical education in junior high school. I went back to college under the GI Bill and got a Master's Degree. After two years of teaching junior high school and coaching junior high school, I moved up to Edison High School in Philadelphia. After the Masters's plus 30 and Master's plus 60, I stopped my formal education. That is what I did for the last 36 years. I retired in 1993, and I still substitute, when I want and if I want.

Loretta Paula Trachtenberg, my 1st wife, she was the daughter of Helen and Leonard Trachtenberg. Helen is still alive by the way. We were introduced when we were 15 and 16 years of age. We were high school sweethearts and married April 17, 1957. Our daughter, Eileen Susan was born, June 18, 1958 and our son, Howard, was born June 6, 1961 (D-Day). We were married for thirty years. In 1985 she developed breast cancer, struggled for two years, and passed away on March 7, 1987. Throughout her life she was a volunteer for Women's American Corp, which is an organization for rehabilitants. What they do is build vocational schools throughout the world. She rose to the rank of national vice president and corresponded with senators, congressmen and governors, knowing many of them personally through her fund raising activities. She won many awards. She did not work outside the home while we were married; her career was charity work and doing good deeds for others..that's what her whole life was about.

Advisory Committee; Secretary of the Coordinating Committee on Vital Jewish Issues; a Regional Vice-President and member of the boards of Valley Park and District IV Philadelphia Women's American ORT; the Northeast Advisory Board of the Newman Walk-in Center; and the Philadelphia and Northeast Boards of the Jewish Community Relations Council.

Loretta Trachtenberg Maunus is One Person Who Does Make a Difference.

My second wife is Jane whom I met years and years ago. She was teaching in the same school I was teaching in and I had known her on a professional and colleague level. She had divorced her husband many years earlier and we were married, July 1, 1989. Jane will be retiring from teaching in the summer of 1999 after 32 years...and we plan to sail off into the sunset to the land of pleasant living and gentle breezes, the Chesapeake Bay.

My mother Monya, from an area near Odessa Russia, was born in a wheat field. After, her mother wrapped her in a blanket, took her into the house , laid her down, went back to the fields to work. She and my dad married in 1933 in Kentucky. My mother was a dancer for the band. They divorced in 1955 or 56. Monya then married, Nathan Schutzbank, an optometrist on October 19, 1958 in Wilmington, Delaware.

My father was born October 1, 1906 in Ashtabula, Ohio. He was the first of nine children. From what I understood, shortly after his mother died with the last child, he had one of the primary roles of raising all those kids along with his older sister, Marie Maunus Pascoe. So the family lived with their father, who never remarried. My father didn't speak much English until he was about 5 years of age. So becoming his high school valedictorian took a tremendous effort on his part. Although he was an excellent student, he choose a career in music.He made a nice living in the 20's and 30's playing with the top bands in the country. He attended the University of Rochester, Eastman School of Music for a year. He started arranging and composing for many orchestras. He was a jack of all trades..a renaissance man. He could do anything he put his mind to - engineering, solving math problems, crossword puzzles.He could tell you about the stars and astronomy and the earth sciences. He knew a lot of things. He met Monya on the road in 1932 according to his diary. They developed a relationship being in the same show. She was an acrobatic dancer and he was a member of the orchestra. He was eight or nine years older and they married in April 1933. I was born in September 7, 1934. At that point they decided to move to Philadelphia where my father worked for small groups and did not go on the road anymore with the bands. Consequently, the job market wasn't as lucrative because there were more musicians in Philadelphia than there were on the road. So he fell on hard times financially making a living as did most people in the Great Depression of the late 30's. However, my mother did get work; we weren't rich, we lived in North Philadelphia(in a row house) which was lower middle class working people but nobody starved. Everybody had enough to eat. My grandmother, Monya's mother, was my primary care giver. She raised me while my mother was on the road with a show or busy pursing her career. She loved to dance and we could use the extra money. One Sunday morning in 1941 when I was six years old, I remember my dad bringing the paper in ... I could read by that time..and I asked him, "daddy is there going to be a war?" Of course, that was Sunday, December 7, 1941. I remember that vividly. The next day, he was in a khaki uniform and I thought he was going off to war. But he explained to me that he took a job at the shipyard and that was the uniform he had to wear. Since he was 35, he was just on the edge of being drafted. However, to ensure him staying in Philadelphia and staying with the family, he took a job as a defense worker, which was at the time deferred. So it was a combination of age and the work he was doing, that kept him out of the draft, not so lucky were his brothers, Aimo, Jerry and Monty. They all saw combat service. They were war heroes. My father did his part - he was building the ships and many were torpedoed once a week, but the shipyard was putting out a ship a week! There was a tremendous war effort in this country. He did stay with the shipyard for 25-30 years until he retired. He worked his way up from helper to the Engineering Department.

His avocation was photography all during War Time. He was proud of his country. He was an award winning photographer. Many photo clubs exhibited his works. He still continued to play music. He didn't want me to become a professional musician, because it wasn't a steady income. Actually, he wanted me to come to work in the shipyard and it was my mother who wanted me to go to college. I worked at Sears over the Christmas holiday one year and that cured me of manual labor, so I decided to go to college. My parents divorced in the middle 50's for one reason or another, I don't know the reason it could have been money or his drinking. But he didn't drink to be drunk. He did drink beer and he did hang out with his friends. He went to work everyday. An accomplishment? He stopped drinking and smoking on the same day. So he had the willpower to do what he wanted to do. He liked to travel and he loved his grandchildren. He took hundreds and hundreds of photographs of them. The kids called him "PopPop ". They went to the libraries, to museums, we would have dinner together, he would buy them books and books and books. He instilled in them, the love of knowledge and the love of reading. So he was a teacher to those kids. He got sick in the early 70's developing a severe case of psoriasis which the doctors had never seen before. In fact they took pictures for the medical journals. Lasted for about a year, went into remission. After that he enjoyed life again and travel. Then he developed a heart problem..slight heart attack...some neurological damage He was admitted to Hahnamann Hospital. He went into a rehabilitation home and stayed about three months then he went AWOL. At that point, he lived with me the last five years.He developed Alzheimer's and was sort of incommunicative. He didn't want to go out..he knew me, he knew Loretta and she took very good care of him. He knew the kids. He knew who we were, but he didn't do much. On December 1980 we were on our way to Florida and dad had checked into the hospital for an evaluation that would take a week. We got to Miami on a cold night and on December 25th, and called to see how he was and were told he had passed away. We repacked and drove back to Philadelphia. We had him flown to Ashtabula for burial there in the Maunus Family Plot.

I don't remember anything about Grandma Maunus [Sanna Eliina Minni Maunus, wife of Jacob Edwin Maunus, Jr.], she was never a part of my life,but I do remember Grandpa Maunus. My grandfather came to visit us every summer and while my dad was working at the shipyard, we would get on the Pennsylvania Railroad and go to Pittsburgh, change trains, get on the New York Central and go to Ashtabula. Cars were coal burners of course. Once in Ashtabula, we would walk to grandpa's house. Jake had a wooden leg.He had diabetes and had to have it removed. I was shocked as I had never seen a wooden leg before. However, we got used to it. We would read the Cleveland Plain Dealer, see my dad's old buddies, go down to the Harbor, visit local VFW, romp in the cornfields, visit the Elks, see all the soldiers home from the war, go fishing down at the lake, go swimming; nothing but great memories with my grandpa Maunus We did this until I was sixteen, then he passed away and then there was no need for me to go to Ashtabula anymore.

I enjoyed being with my cousins -Jerry and Katherine's kids, Aimo an their kids...Aimo had a little grocery store and a dairy queen and he was the business man.

The Pascoe's always had a boat, and Cedar Point was there too. Aunt Marie and Uncle Milt seemed to be more well off than the rest of us. They had more material things, more money. Richer. Better business sense. Jerry worked in a factory. Aimo had a struggling business. Edna was married to Homer Clark. Ina was married to Bud Brown who had just gotten his chiropractic license. Everyone of them was nice to us, but Homer and Marie had more things to do. They were more active, the others were homebodies. Sandusky was nicer than Ashtabula, more sophisticated.There was the waterfront, fun boats, parks, things to do places to see. I enjoyed going there, the two boys were close to my age. We were closer than Jerry's kids. We played ball a lot, we could talk to one another.

About Finland? We had a lot of books about Finland, but we kids were never told very much about Finland.

Something else about my dad, Ted, even though he was noncommunicating and had trouble getting dressed, he could play the piano, his finger dexterity was still there, he could remember chords and could remember songs, but the selective memory, I don't know how that works, I'm not there yet.

Special about your dad? He was a guy that could learn anything. He had an aptitude for everything. Whatever he felt was good, he would do. I never heard him lie. I never heard him get into an argument with anybody. He was very proud of his son. He was proud of his grandchildren and loved them dearly. He did the best he could and money was not his god. Money was not his idol.

Special about your mom? She is a feisty woman! She is a fireball! What she is a troublemaker. Anybody that gets kicked out a casino at 80 years of age is a troublemaker. She is at a point in her life where I can't tell her anything. She is driving a 4000 pound car without a license, no insurance, no money in her pocket and she doesn't care. My mother is one of a kind. She was probably like Katherine, a hothead. She'll give you what she has. She is good hearted that way to her children. She lives for her son, she lives for her grandchildren, most people her age do. At her age she wants what she wants when she wants it. She has that privilege! She didn't raise me, my grandmother did and she feels a lot of guilt about that. I don't call her mom, I call her Monya and the reason for that is when I was a young boy growing up she was in show business and didn't want anybody to think she had a child. I called my grandmother, Bia which is Russian for grandmother. Sometimes she calls 50 times a day just to say hello. She will not go into a nursing home by my hand. The only way she will go is if she is unconscious. She wants to be independent.

The grandmother that raised you, Monya's mother, what was her name and what do you remember about her? Her first name was Esther. She died in 1950, when she was about 65 years of age. She had a heart attack at that time the doctor's said, indigestion and she died the next day in bed. I was broken hearted, she raised me. This is the woman who brought her family from Russia. This is the woman who was shot in the face with a bullet and her children fell on her body and protected her from being shot again. I have very mixed feelings about Russians. Although my father was Lutheran, and my mother was a Jew, I decided to practice her faith for personal reasons. Nothing to do with my father, perhaps I grew up in a city with more Jews than Lutherans and the culture where I lived was more Catholic and Jewish than Lutheran. So that whole culture thing got to me. My grandmother had a heavy Russian accent. She came to this country in steerage, like any other immigrant did. That is why Monya said they were sick as dogs because they were in the bottom of the ship. They landed here with my mother's sister, Sonya, ..by the time grandmother died she owned two apartment buildings because she parlayed money. She owned something, she bought something else. She did everything herself. She collected the pennies of rent that people paid. She would rent out rooms to other immigrants. The apartments weren't the Ritz Carleton, but they were buildings that had six apartments each in them. So we were never poor, we weren't rich, but here was a woman who couldn't speak the language, but she could count. They came through Ellis Island and to Philadelphia because of relatives. She was the typical Russian grandmother - babushka you know. No make up, sturdy woman, pleasant stock. They were farmers on the other side. My mother talks of living in a house and seeing the water on the lake. She was born in a wheat field. They gave birth in the field, picked up the baby, took it into the house, and went out again to finish working. Now, that some pretty tough people.

Pulling this all together, what would you tell your children, your grandchildren and anyone reading this manuscript? I would want them to know of the struggle and hardships that people faced at the turn of the century, during the Great Depression, during the First World War, during the Russian Revolution, the reign of Czar Nicholas, during the Second World War because those are the times your family lived through. Think of running from country to country in Europe. Think of struggling to make a dollar during the depression. Think of them struggling against influenza epidemics of 1917. Steerage passage in the bowels of a boat. Think of the Finns trying to escape Czar Nicholas's army..thinking of the hardships just to get to America. One generation gave so another could have. That is why whether you are a doctor, a lawyer or an Indian chief, you are what you are because of sacrifices. Now stop and think for a minute. I am the child of a first generation immigrant. My mother was born in the middle of a war in Europe and I am a college graduate with a Masters' Degree. My son is a doctor and my daughter is a lawyer. What other country can you find that in? It is incredible, isn't it? Read your history and you will know why you are what you are today. This is what made you. It is important to know who you are. That is the most important thing. You lose history. You repeat it again. Santiana - those who do not remember are doomed..."

Letter from Marie Maunus Pascoe, to her niece, Susan Maunus in December 1968...

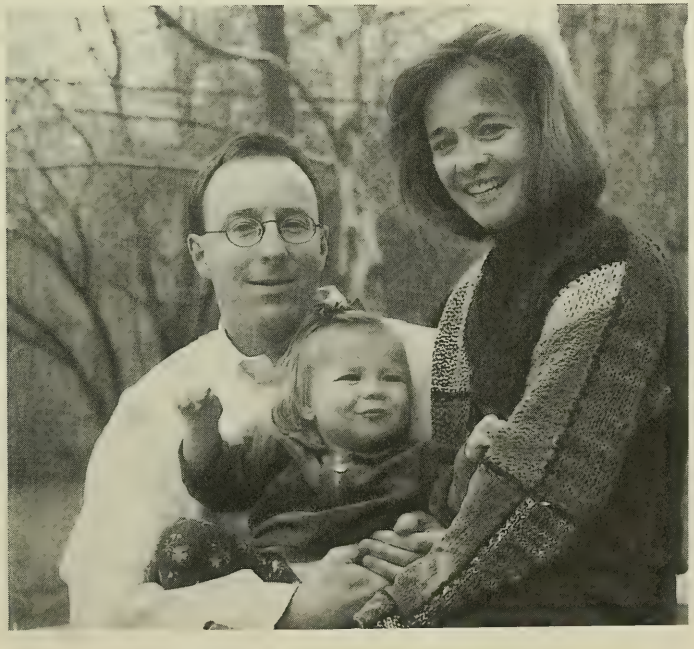
Dear Susan,

This head shawl belonged to your Great great Grandmother Helena Sophia Luuri Maunus. I know it is a least 60 years old. I used to go to church with my Grandmother when I was 6 (I'm 60) and I'm sure it wasn't new then. Women in our church used to wear shawls on their heads when they attended church instead of the fancy hats of today. In fact, I never saw my Grandmother with a hat on. I'm sure this was one of her precious possessions. I'm amazed it has held up so well. I've had it sealed for 30 years.

I think Howard's package & this scarf will be reminders of the simplicity of living of [illegible] gone days and perhaps reminders of the fact that there is simplicity to life if we search for it and it is not necessary to join protest marches. (Creation is proof of God's wisdom — Do you need proof of God — [illegible] light a torch to see the sun. You won't understand all above now — save the scarf & read it 20 years from now [illegible]

Howard Maunus was born June 6, 1961 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. I attended George Washington High School graduating in 1979 and went on to the Honors Program at the University of Delaware. Subsequently I transferred to Temple University in Philadelphia and graduated with a BA in Biology in 1983. In the fall of 1983, I began my medical education at Thomas Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia and received my MD in 1987. I completed my residency in Internal Medicine in 1990 at the Medical College of Pennsylvania and my fellowship in 1998 in Gastroenterology from the same institution. I took a position in Columbia, MD and remained there until 1998, when I moved to Palm City, Florida to assume another position as a Gastroenterologist.

I met my wife, Debbie Moskow, in Rockville, MD in June 1994 and we were married on June 9, 1996 in Columbia, Maryland. She was born in Baltimore, raised in Utica, New York and Kingston, Pennsylvania and attended Penn State University where she graduated in 1987. We have a daughter, Lauren Bess Maunus, named after her grandmother, Loretta, born November 1, 1997 in Silver Spring, Maryland.



(Howard, Debbie and Lauren Maunus)

Dear Howard— Dec. 1968

The shoes in the box were made by Gustaf Minni of Napuen Kylla, Vaasa, Finland who was Grandpa Ted's grandfather — your great, great grandfather. Grandpa Ted was his first grandson. They were made in 1906 and are hand made. Gustaf Menne was the mother of your great grandmother Susan Elaine Minni Maunus.

The bill fold belonged to your great great Grandfather Jacob Maunus and he brought it from Finland when he arrived in Harbor Ashtabula, Ohio in 1880.

I thought you would like to have them. Both show workmanship of bygone days.

Love Great Marie

Dear Maiyu:—

I believe I'll have to hire a private Sec. to keep track of all the different birth and wedding dates. Please excuse me for overlooking your birthday. I should of celebrated with a card at least. I'll jot down a few lines by Tony Wons.

Friendship is a magic Weaver
Weaving through life's tapestry Threads of thoughtfulness and Kindness!
Fadeless threads of memory;
Warm bright threads of understanding,
Sunny golden threads of cheer,
Making friendship's perfect pattern
Grow more beautiful each year.—

You must of been pretty much on the jump attending the many tea and high ball jamborees I wish I had been there to lift a few in your honor.

I'll shop around and see if I can get you some records by the Helsinki Chorus. the same on that toured the U.S. a few years ago. Did you ever get a craving for something that you can't get at the present we have no water the Water works intake pipe is full of needle ice so everything at present is shut off I even washed my face yet today. the reservoir is full but that is being held for emergency in case of a fire it would be hell if a big fire broke out and out of reach of the pumper. that could be hooked up from the river. Lucky I had a few bottles of beer in the ice box in case I get good + dry. I'm glad to hear that Milts mother + Dad are feeling better. I haven't heard from Marty since I wrote him the first of the month.

Better stock up on Washing powder just in case they start rationing meat as there will be a shortage of fats. Ive got a ½ doz packages so far it is something that will keep also wont be a bad idea to get a few extra bars of toilet soap. the Yanks sure have gone up Dont get much for a dollar anymore. its like a fellow said, "there is no more germs on a dollar bill, as they dont get enough to live on from a dollar" Well thats about all for now Best of regards from the folks back here. Wishing you many more happy birth days.

As Ever

Edna Susanna Maunus married Homer Clark circa 1939. To this union were born two children. David Scott Clark born November 24, 1944 and Richard Allen Clark born circa 1948. Among the personal belongings of Marie Maunus Pascoe, was an old Christmas card and at the time of this publication, the only "link" we have with Edna Maunus Clark.

David Clark married Marilee Oakes Wilson circa 1970. This author corresponded with Marilee Clark in 1977 who at the time was spending the summer in Palo Alto, California; and mentions when they return home to Baton Rouge, Louisana she will send to me family information...unfortunately that never transpired. She tells me that she and David had two children: Richard Lee Clark born September 10, 1973 and Susanna Elisabeth Clark born December 26, 1976.

Richard Allen Clark, brother of David Scott Clark, died March 3, 1970. Among the possessions of Marie Maunus Pascoe, in her own hand was this information - "...Edna and Homer Clark live at 46541 Norma Drive, San Diego, California. Homer is an attorney in San Diego having received his law degree from Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. David Clark received his undergraduate and law degree from Stanford University. Presently he is with the VISTA program in San Juan, Costa Rica. He married Marilee Wilson on Easter Sunday, 1970. Richard Clark would have received his degree from Stanford University in June of 1970. He died March 3, 1970 in Rome, Italy from injuries sustained in a motor scooter accident. Richard was attending Stanford at Paris at the time and was touring Europe between semesters. Edna Susanna is very active in the work at the Children's Hospital and at her church...."

This portion of an obituary was among the possessions of Marie Maunus Pascoe. It is all we have of Mrs. Sue Clark.

MRS. SUE CLARK

Mrs. Sue Maunus Clark of San Diego, Calif., died there recently.

Surviving are her husband, Homer G., a son, a sister, Mrs. Milton C. Pascoe of Sandusky, and two brothers, Ted Maunus of Philadelphia and Eugene Maunus of Ashtabula.

Funeral services and burial will be in San Diego.

Trying to find Homer Clark, this author called the Alumni Office of Ohio State University and they told me according to their records ".Homer G. Clark received his Bachelor Degree in Business Administration June 1934, his JD degree in June 1936 and that his last known address was LaMesa, California..he died April 1, 1993. leaving a widow, Helen W. Clark..."

Possibly a second wife? Don't know!

Dear Polly,

I am sorry to be so late in responding to your inquiries. We are spending the summer in California and it seems that the pace of people is very hectic. At the moment I'm sorry but I'm unable to answer many questions because we don't have our records - which are at home. Davis mother, Susan Clara Maunus, did give me an extensive record of the family and I will be happy to send on a copy to you just as soon as we return to Baton Rouge. That should be late August. Meanwhile Davis memory of dates is not too accurate. Perhaps Homer, Davis father, has responded with a complete set of dates. Our family:

David Scott Clark Nov. 24, 1944 wife Marilee Oakes (Wilson) Clark Aug. 26, 48 son Richard Lee Sept. 10, 1973 daughter Susanna Elisabeth Dec. 26, 1974

We appreciate your support and would help in any way we can when we can respond to any records. Sincerely, Marilee Clark

Aimo Gustaf Maunus , 6th child of Jacob Edwin Maunus Jr. and his wife was born April 13, 1916, Ashtabula, Ohio. His certificate of birth confirms civil information for us. Aimo Gustaf Maunus died Providence Hospital, Sandusky, Ohio June 2, 1970. Two obituaries, one from the Sandusky Register and the Ashtabula Star Beacon tell us information of the deceased and his life.

We are fortunate to have two letters from Aimo Maunus written to his sister, Marie Maunus Pascoe .

Dear Marie & Mill —

It has been sometime since I have heard from you people, and it probably is because I haven't written, sometime that is the reason, well any way — here goes. I am still on the Pacific Ocean but not in it, it may sound funny but its true. This present destination of ours looks like a grave yard to me, there isn't very much activity in one way but plenty in another. I don't know how long we will be here any more, I'm ready to move, you may get tired and mad, and become a sleepless wonder during a campaign, but about two weeks of this supposed, and I suppose you've read about it, these recreation periods I read in a Navy magazine where we were supposed to have a [illegible] that is out here somewhere, where you can hear the tinkling of ice, and beer bottles the clown that wrote that [illegible] because I wrote this [illegible] when this [illegible] was supposed to be [illegible] and the only bars I saw that long were sand bars, let alone thinking of ice and cold beer. Our beer usually is just about body temperature, Green and after some hand to hand combats your lucky if you come up with two cans. Sometimes conditions are better mind you I said sometime.

I read in one of Anns letters that Jerry was awarded the purple heart. I hope it is the last one he receives, as I expect he got away cheap this time. Anyway from the sound of the letter. I have written him a while ago back and should either receive a letter or personal call if he can't get time I'll try my luck on striking the right ood out here in these wilds. We are pretty much restricted as to the distance and time that we can go. I sure will be disappointed if we don't make connections well any way lets hoping.

I suppose you and your crew are steaming along in good shape I sure will be glad to get back again some day, by then you should have your new home in that immaculate condition that it is usually kept in By the way you didn't buy this new home because your going to need more room is it first wondering.

may have a chance to see him but all my trips to find him so far have netted me a bag of Cat eyes, a little basket (native) - and a confidential, we don't know, from every one I've asked, well maybe some day I'll see some air Corp. Private and he will probably give me the a coop.

Believe it or not I am just getting over a weeks cold - They are about the most miserable, agravating, type of cold you can have. They are known as the Tropical super heat Cold - about two days of it and your eyes look like your staring out of a barrel, They sure run one down in a hurry.

I suppose Monie will be out here shortly, at least I have a feeling that he will be. He probably will some day be on Okinawa; Well I suppose there will be a stretch shortly when mail to me & mail to you people, from the big IDAHO Spud will be pretty scarce for some time, I hope this will be the last, And then we head for the U.S.A. for good. Well It should be a little cooler for us climatically one day soon. Once we get out of this Coconut Belt.

Well I don't have much more to say now only that I am anxious to see you knew home It must be immaculate, So Milt didn't have enough time to work on his boat he will soon have all the help he needs and also all the crew. Well I guess this is getting to be more than I have a habit of usually writting. I better watch myself. — Cheerio.

Dear Marie & Milt –

I received your letter with the pictures of T. J. & C. a day or two ago. They are growing fast, and I must say I don't think I've ever seen any smarter or healthier looking kids any where. Junior there looks like a ton'n a half chain fell, he sure must be growing fast. I'll bet he was a load off your chest.

I guess that Jerry and I have been so close to each other a couple of times I swear I could feel him breathing down my neck, but we never did get to see each other. We probably would have, but he came a day late to where we were, we didn't move far, but far enough that it would confuse anyone especially when travel is as hard as it was in this place. I went out to see him twice, the last time I got a little information but not enough to know where he was at. I still

I hope that you people have good sailing for the summer, and Father Roscoe succeeds in winning a race or two, I would like to see him race once, is he a gentleman, or does he race to win. I'm beginning to think he races like a gentleman, why don't he try something new, like shooting little holes in the other guys sails or some thing.

Well I guess thats about all for now if it weren't for the chance of seeing Jersy I'm ready to steam any time, south sea Islands, coconuts, Palm trees. Oh how I would like to meet one of those song writers someday, and there was open season on them. whee! wouldn't that be a thrill of a life time Maybe soon it will be cool, and hot at the same time. So until I get back to the good old U.S.A. again I guess it'll just have to do, as she is. I hope every thing goes well and if you find time write. I'm pretty well posted by Ann's letters and she does write often. Well Cheerio.

Aimo Gustaf Maunus married October 8, 1939 to Anna Marie Faggionato born April 2, 1921, daughter of Angelo Faggionato and Louigia "Louisa" Scaggnetti.

(Aimo Gustaf Maunus and his wife, Anna Marie Faggionato)

In 1996, this author clipped from the local newspaper, THE SANDUSKY REGISTER, an obituary for Anna Maunus. Tucked it away among the keepsakes for the Maunus Family. In 1999, she made a local telephone call to the only EARLE listed in the phone book. Identifying herself as the daughter in law of the late Marie Maunus Pascoe, and seeking information. Many pleasant hours have been spent, by Rose Earle (Mrs. Milton), remembering her sister, Anna, her brother in law, Aimo Maunus AND she put me in touch with Tony and Michael Maunus to complete this family line. I am so grateful I made that call and that she graciously opened her heart and her home to me!

First son, David Michael Maunus born May 13, 1941 died at birth. Aimo and Ann adopted two children: (1) Anthony David Maunus was born September 18, 1947 in the province of San Mango Catanzaro, Italy and married Gayle Unckrich on August 17, 1973. "Tony" as he is called lives in Libertyville, Illinois. They had two children: Danielle Dawn Maunus born November 14, 1974 and Derek Anthony Maunus born December 13, 1975.

Anthony Maunus born December 13, 1975.

Mrs. Milton Earle, "Rose", shared smiles and tears with me as she recalled on Valentines' Day, February 14, 1999, the following information with this author ....Aimo was working on the boats when he met Anna, believe he was working on the freighter, D. M. Weir...Anna was only eighteen years of age when she married, Aimo, kissed him good bye at the iron gate at West Monroe and Jay Street, when Aimo got on the boat...Anna quit school, didn't graduate and worked for Bill Hummel at the Hummel Wine Company on Clinton Street..then World War II came along and Aimo went into the Navy..after the War, you could say that Aimo was an enterperneur, always was involved in some kind of business..started with a grocery store and lunch counter across from G. & C Foundry on West Monroe Street, then a second store at Tiffin and Mills (where Dick's Carry Out is now)...they lost their first baby David Maunus in 1941 and he is buried with Louisa Faggionato at Calvary Cemetery, Sandusky, Ohio...they adopted Michael in 1951 when he was three weeks old...Aimo and Anna then operated two franchises for Dairy Queen, one in Norwalk and one in Monroeville, Ohio...Aimo was a steam fitter and he worked on the boats as a side line...he loved the water...gave up the Dairy Queen's and Anna bought the bridal shop in Norwalk and gave a personal touch for bride's to be and loved the retail business..she sold the shop shortly after Aimo died and went to school to become a hairdresser and she worked at this for a couple of years in Norwalk, Ohio before moving to Bradenton, Florida, circa 1973..she worked for Eckerd Drug Stores in Bradenton until she was seventy five years of age...Anna did beautiful knitting and 'hand work'..she belonged to several civic and community organizations and her faith was Catholic, which she practiced everyday.. 'Tony' was five years old when Aimo and Anna adopted him..he graduated from Miami of Ohio..has been an employee of SEARS and he married Gayle..they have two children and one granddaughter..... 'Michael' was three weeks when they adopted him..he lives now in Sarasota, Florida, married and divorced with two daughters who live in Ashland, Ohio...gourmet cook and floral designer, one year he was the responsible individual who decorated the State of Florida's Governor's Mansion...Aimo and Anna met at Ferback's Rathskeller on Madison Street, in Sandusky, Ohio..Red Doerback played the drums at this night spot and a Mrs. Crawford played the piano..this was the place for young people to go and have a good time..the Faggionto's were originally from Bellevue of Italian ancestry and there were eight of us..me being the oldest and Anna was 6th down the line...I used to work for the Johnson's underwear company in Sandusky, Ohio for 10 cents an hour....the motel at the intersection of Perkins and Columbus Avenue used to be owned by the Faggionato Family and the property extended down to where I live now..in between the motel and my home were beautiful gardens (now a parking lot)..it was hard work for my family but we made a decent living....

It was a joy and a delight for me to be with Rose Earle many afternoons and she related to me that she hadn't looked through photo albums in years. She thanked me for making her Valentine's Day and I assured her that truly indeed had made mine. Providing me with names, and addresses and telephone numbers, generated more telephone calls and put me and my spouse, in touch with cousins that he had not seen for more than thirty years!

Telephone conversations and e-mail correspondence with Tony and Gayle have brought forth this information on their family - Tony was a graduate of Miami University in Oxford, Ohio in 1969. My employment began with Sears Roebuck and Company. He was in the executive training program when drafted into the U. S. Army. While he was in the Army, that is when his father passed away from cancer. Tony was only 21 years of age. It was really hard on the family because his dad was only 53 years of age and the family missed out on so many years. Tony was only in the Army for twenty one months with most of the time being spent as a company clerk in Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Fortunately, he did not have to go to Viet Nam even though Tony was drafted. After getting out of the Army, he went back to Sears to finish the training program. He had many positions with Sears over the years and moved his family around the midwest living in Ohio, Indiana, St.Louis, Detroit and presently in Chicago.

"Tony" Maunus met his wife to be in March 1972 Gayle Unckrich, born May 12, 1952, Sandusky, Ohio, daughter of John Unckrich and Ruth Marshall . A high school football buddy introduced them who was engaged to Gayle's next door neighbor. Married in August 1973, they celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary in 1998. No sooner than they were married, he was transferred to Evansville, Indiana, and they lived across the Ohio River in Henderson, Kentucky. This is where both of our children were born - Danielle and Derek, being thirteen months apart, it was like having twins! Danielle was born on November 14, 1974 an Derek was born on December 14, 1975. Danielle graduated from Illinois State University in 1996, cum laude in special education for the hearing impaired. She met her husband, Scott Miller, just prior to going into college the summer between her senior year in high school and her freshman year in college. Scott was in the U. S. Navy and had just started training at the Great Lakes Navy Base. He was training to work on the electronics portion of the the Navy missiles. He is from Fremont, California, a city near San Francisco. They maintained a long distance relationship during her entire college career. He was on the aircraft NEMITZ. They decided to get married during her junior year of college even though they would still be apart, October 12, 1994 in Bloomington, Indiana. Scott is now out of the Navy and working with an electronic company. Danielle was a special education teacher for two years before she decided to go into the business world. The job is now more secure and she is making a lot more money.On November 24, 1998, our first grandchild was born, Sierra Nicole Miller.

Scott, Danielle and Sierra bought a home in Gray's Lake, Illinois, just about twenty minutes from us. Gayle was fortunate enough to be able to quit her part time job and take on the responsibility of being a full time grandma and daycare provider for Sierra.

Derek has also done well. He was a great athlete during his early years and in high school. He played many sports, but soccer was his love. He played on the soccer traveling teams and we got to travel with the team and the other parents to many tournaments. We would take the whole family and make a mini vacation out of it. Derek decided not to play college soccer because of the time demands. A graduate of the University of Iowa in May 1998, he was a finance major. He got a good job in investment banking with Mesirow Financial in downtown Chicago. He has purchased a condo in Lincoln Park, downtown Chicago with only a ten minute bus ride from his work and only one block from his girlfriend. They met in college and have dated for about 2 ½ years.

After dad died, mom moved to Florida. Mom was living when Scott and Danielle married, but died December 1996. My brother, Mike Maunus still lives in Florida.

I am still with Sears and celebrating thirty years in May 1999. After all the moving that we did during the early years, it is nice to have been able to stay in place for the last fifteen years.

(Tony Maunus, Gayle Maunus, Sierra, Scott, Danielle, Kerry, Derek)

(2) Michael Thomas Maunus born July 16, 1951 in Toledo, Ohio married Phyllis Vercillo (b. May 29, 1951 in Toledo, Ohio) on September 2, 1972 in Ashland, Ohio. Issue of this marriage were two daughters both born in Ashland, Ohio - Amanda Beth Maunus born March 3, 1975 and Emily Susan Maunus born March 16, 1977. Michael presently lives at 445 S. Palm Avenue, Sarasota, Florida.

This is the discharge paper from the United States Navy for Aimo Gustaf Maunus, from among the personal belongings of Tony Maunus.

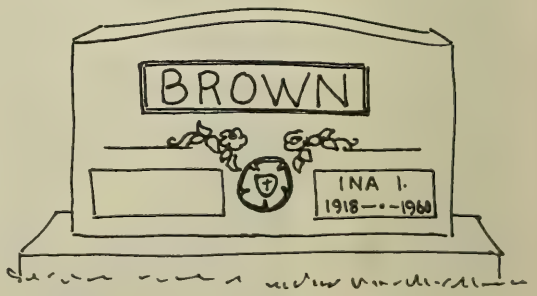
Among the belongings of Marie Maunus Pascoe was this old photograph of Jackson School in Ashtabula Harbor, Ohio. On the back in a child's handwriting was written Ina Maunus. Not sure which girl is "Ina" but, we think it might be the girl in the first row to the left of the girl with the arm in a sling.

MRS. HAROLD BROWN 1960

Funeral services for Mrs. Ina Maunus Brown, 41, wife of Dr. Harold Brown, were held this afternoon in the Volk-Richardson Funeral Home at Galion, the Rev. Phillip Auer, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, Galion.

Mrs. Brown, who lived in Sandusky while employed at Plum Brook Ordnance Works during World War 2, died unexpectedly Friday night in the hospital at Galion.

Surviving besides her husband are three daughters, Diane, Sue and Elaine, at home; three sisters and four brothers, including Mrs. Milton Pascoe and Mrs. Dorothy Shissler, both Sandusky and a number of nieces and nephews.



Dr. Raymond Harold "Bud" Brown and Aino "Ina" Irene Maunus were married circa 1940 in Amherst, Ohio. To this union were born three daughters: (1) Diane L. Brown (2) Sue Ann Brown (3) Elaine Marie Brown.

Among Marie Maunus Pascoe's possessions were written, "....at the time of Ina's death she was living at 222 S. Columbus Street, Galion, Ohio where her husband, Dr. Harold Brown, a chiropractor still resides. He has remarried. Two of her daughters are married, one living in Kent and the other in Galion. Elaine is a junior in high school and still lives at home. Ina Irene (Maunus) Brown died February 12, 1960 and was buried February 15, 1960 at Fairview Cemetery, Galion, Ohio..."

Diane L. Brown was born February 25, 1947 in San Bernadino, California. She graduated from Galion High School in 1965. She is also a graduate of Nova University in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and has her Master's Degree in Business from the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida. First marriage brought forth a son, David Stuetzer, born December 31, 1971 in Kingsville, Texas. David graduated from Riverview High School in Sarasota and is presently living and working in Boca Raton, Florida in the construction business. Diane divorced her first husband; and married Mel Young, in Sarasota, Florida on April 21, 1990. Diane and hers spouse now make their home in Boise, Idaho.

Diane remembers - ".....she thinks the last time she saw Tommy Pascoe was at her mother's funeral in 1960, so that has been 39 years ago...she does remember the beautiful rose garden that Aunt Marie always had and that she fertilized them with fish guts!.....

Sue Ann Brown was born June 9, 1950 in Chicago, Illinois and graduated from Kent Theodore Roosevelt High School, Kent,Ohio in 1968. Her first marriage ended in divorce. She then married Edward Shvorob whom she married on March 13, 1982 in LasVegas, Nevada. Edward had two children by a previous marriage and I consider them my children: (1) Sandra Shvorob was born May 15, 1968 and she married Harvey Powers on July 16, 1994. They have one daughter, Emma Powers born March 2, 1999.

Michael Shvorob was born December 30, 1970 and married Tracey -----and they have issue of two daughters: Cheyenne Shvorob born January 6, 1997 and Shelby Shvorob born June 17, 1998.

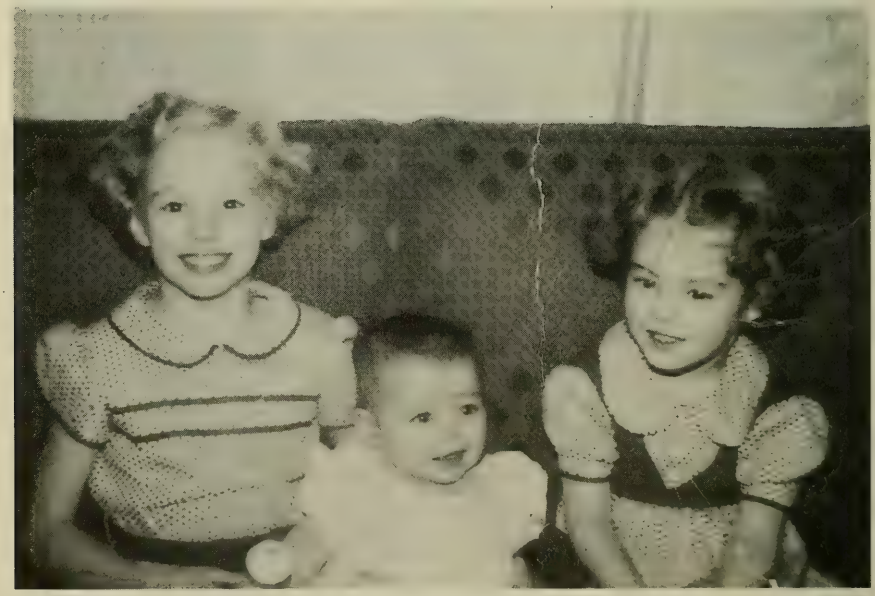
Sue Ann remembers - "....she was only about 9 years of age when her mother died and it was devastating for her....she remembers her mom, herself, Diane and Elaine going on a train ride to visit Aunt Catherine and Uncle Monty in Chicago....they went to the Chicago Zoo and a baby elephant put its' trunk around her neck!. I think I was about 6 or 7 years of age at the time....I do remember Pops telling us that Grandpa Jake lived with him and mom for quite a while when he was ill...do remember going to Aunt Marie's and Uncle Milt's house and she had rows and rows and rows of the most beautiful roses...they were fun people to be around...."

Elaine Brown was born in Galion, Ohio on January 3, 1954. She graduated from Galion High School in 1972. She married Tim Tischler in Galion on December 22, 1973 and they are both still living and working in Galion, Ohio.

The Brown Girls: Diane 7 years, Sue Ann 4 years and Elaine maybe 10months old.



Harold Brown did re-marry twice. His third wife was a sweetheart, Irene Braaf Foote, and is now also deceased. "Pops" died on November 7, 1999 at Diane's home.

Somewhere in Philippines
June 10th 1945

Dear Ted,

Received a letter from you the other day and was happy to hear from you. I am sorry I didn't answer sooner only there isn't much to write about.

I was glad to hear you plan on getting home this summer. I know Dad will be glad to see you. I hope that after the war we can get together for a good reunion. We've got the [illegible] and we will [illegible] [illegible] to go.

So you are getting along pretty good with your photography. Do you plan on making it a business or are you just going it keep it a secret? I hope when you get home you will have some pictures made of Kathleen and David.

The picture you made of Dad was sure a good one. Sue had lots of comments on it.

Well Ted things here are the same. The weather is rather than nice and when it rains it washes you out. We never seen it rain so hard as it has ever since. The weather at home must be pretty nice now. I'd sure enjoy if I had the chance.

Chris and Bud was sure lucky in getting together. I bet they sure tipped a few. I'd sure give a million to run into them. As yet I have'nt seen anyone I know or from the home town.

Well Ted I cant think of much more to write for now so I had better close. So far I have written 5 letters and still have my wife to write too. So for now I will close hoping this letter finds you well. Ta ta.

Love

Jerry.

The letter written on July 11, 1945 by Jerry Maunus, to his oldest sister, Marie Maunus Pascoe reads:

Somewhere in the Philippines

July 11th 1945

Dear Marie,

I first have to say I'm sorry I haven't written sooner. I have thought of you often and meant to write but just couldn't get started. There isn't much to write about that can be said. That is why it hard to write.

I haven't felt to good in the last month since the accident. I lost a lot of weight but have fully recovered now. I have gained my weight back plus a couple lbs I guess. I am a little nervous but guess I always was.

Katherine saw Tom and said that Tommy is is getting to be quite a boy.

Ah what are the he is so big to come to your kids. I miss won't have to send me some photos so I can see my little nephew. It is so hard to imagine they grow so fast. I know I can't picture my own son being as big as he is now. He was so small when I left. I can say Katherine has done a good job and I am very proud of her. I think everyone in the family thinks that she is swell. I have a good choice and we love you will all my [illegible]. I only hope that I can give everything she deserves.

Well Marie as you have probably heard Arnold was here but I didn't get to see him.

I tried every way I knew how to get to Trinl but just couldn't make it. I was very disappointed but disappointments here are many. Some day we will meet again and hope that day is soon. Things now are shaping up good but we can't let up. There can't and there won't be a let up till Japan is completely defeated. There is no peace for a fanatical race as they. Everyone owes it to those that gave their lives to see that the job is done to the finish. It means everyone. Not only us over here but those back in the home port as well.

Guess I had a little more fun over in it is getting late and I still have to write to my beloved. So in closing

I want you to know that I think of you all the time and hope this letter finds you all well. It's like when you find time as I hurry appreciate hearing from you.

Love

Jerry

A letter all soldiers received from General Pershing, as one reads it, you can't help but feel proud to be an American.

G. H. Q.
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES.

GENERAL ORDERS:
No. 38-A.

FRANCE, February 28, 1919.

MY FELLOW SOLDIERS:

Now that your service with the American Expeditionary Forces is about to terminate, I can not let you go without a personal word. At the call to arms, the patriotic young manhood of America eagerly responded and became the formidable army whose decisive victories testify to its efficiency and its valor. With the support of the nation firmly united to defend the cause of liberty, our army has executed the will of the people with resolute purpose. Our democracy has been tested, and the forces of autocracy have been defeated. To the glory of the citizen-soldier, our troops have faithfully fulfilled their trust, and in a succession of brilliant offensives have overcome the menace to our civilization.

As an individual, your part in the world war has been an important one in the sum total of our achievements. Whether keeping lonely vigil in the trenches, or gallantly storming the enemy's stronghold; whether enduring monotonous drudgery at the rear, or sustaining the fighting line at the front, each has bravely and efficiently played his part. By willing sacrifice of personal rights; by cheerful endurance of hardship and privation; by vigor, strength and indomitable will, made effective by thorough organization and cordial co-operation, you inspired the war-worn Allies with new life and turned the tide of threatened defeat into overwhelming victory.

With a consecrated devotion to duty and a will to conquer, you have loyally served your country. By your exemplary conduct a standard has been established and maintained never before attained by any army. With mind and body as clean and strong as the decisive blows you delivered against the foe, you are soon to return to the pursuits of peace. In leaving the scenes of your victories, may I ask that you carry home your high ideals and continue to live as you have served—an honor to the principles for which you have fought and to the fallen comrades you leave behind.

It is with pride in our success that I extend to you my sincere thanks for your splendid service to the army and to the nation.

Faithfully,

John J. Pershing

Commander in Chief.

Was it in finnish or was it english. If you did you haven't forgotten your mother tongue You are [illegible] OK in that respect. - In regard to the Ahtenpää's I haven't any inkling other than [illegible] it was [illegible] years ago when we received a [illegible] from the son John Jr. that his mother had died - Mrs. Mary Ahtenpää that is, and in reverse as grand ma called her; Ahtenpään Maija In other words the Old timers would put wagon before the horse to mention names. years as a result of a mine accident wherein he suffered a broken back of which he later succumbed.
His son John Jr. took care of him assisted by the Mother when she was still living and able, but old age caught up with her and in her waning years she didn't do much because of infirmities of old age, of which she later passed away. The letter announcing her death laid among the effects of old letters so I don't know what become of it. The possibility it may have been deptroyed or it may be between the pages of the old family Bible or Biblia as the old [illegible] called it.
I don't know if John Jr. Alterpää is still living, if so he must be well up in years. The family lived in Bessemer, Mich. If you write to Bessemer city Clerk of Records he might throw some light to his election board. I think so also if he was [illegible]

Post Office Box number but I dont remember the number. And I might add, this John Jr. was paid by the Mining company to take care of his father in all those years he must of been one of the old [illegible] and didnt give hoot as long as he got paid for it. Sort of a quiet type of fellow. Grandma called him
"Mörököllï," - could that mean taciturn in english, or an intro:
vert, one living unobtrusively minding his own business. - Now, about Adolph Tuuri. I have given him up as dead since we never heard from him since the civil war in Finland instigated by russia. Adolph was with the White army fighting the reds. The White army licked the stuffing of the reds, thus Finland preserved its Independence after that bloody battle. Your dad Wrote to him, but he claimed he never received any from him.
He even [illegible] him thru the finnish consul in Washington
D. C., of Alma (Grant) [illegible]
[illegible]

Last time I heard from Adolf was some [illegible] after the first World W[illegible]. This civil war in Finland occurred 1919-20 or thereabouts, so it must have been around that time when I heard fr[illegible] him last. His address at that t[illegible] was Kunigaan Katu № 13 13 King St). There was another old maid sister named Sanna she was a domestic and a reader that is she would read to sick and the [illegible] in the hospitals or wherever her services were in demand. Grandma told me on one occasion that she could read loud you could hear her for 14 blocks down the [illegible] street. I am running out of paper so I must cut this short You can send the suit along. My present waist line is 37 in. and to day
I weighed 175 lbs. sometimes it jumps to 185 — Mostly around 180. The last suit coat I bought was in San Diego Cal. was size 44 but it is much too big now so you can figure that it just about fits me. The pants length is 32
Glad to hear the boys are doing so good [illegible] can marvel about it, more power to them. You can be proud. More later. Regards [illegible] Sincerely — John

An obituary for a Charles K. Maunus, from the Ashtabula Star Beacon Journal, from November 30, 1972, page 24, would indicate his birth to be circa 1888? We know that our Jacob Edwin Maunus, Jr., was born 1885. Brothers? Cousins? Don't know!

The family has no knowledge of who they are, nor the relationship to us, but they would not have been kept all these years, if not important to the family!

TUURI Family

My late mother in law, has been the 'hand guiding me and the angel on my shoulder' in writing this book. I feel and have felt her presence many times. That which follows has been most difficult for me to compile as much was written in Finnish, translations done by Anna Liisa (nee Tuuri) Jarvinen.

In compiling, human errors are mine and mine alone, and I have done my best to come forward with the lines of descent.

As previously written, Helena Sophia Tuuri, married Jacob Edwin Maunus, Sr. Helena was the daughter of Henrik Tuuri and Maria Tammenpaa.

Marie Maunus Pascoe's belongings and records take the Tuuri Family back to the 1600's, but for our immediate needs, Henrik was born November 17, 1820 in Isokyro, Finland. Married 1st on April 17, 1843 to Liisa Niilontytar Reini and had two children: Maria (died as a baby) and Henrik (died when about 4 years of age). Henrik married 2nd on March 28, 1847 to Maria Jaakontytar Tammenpaa and they had 7 children. One child, Helena Tuuri married Jaako Maunuksala and moved to America. One child, Josephina gave birth to a son, Adolf Fredrik Tuuri married Elma Maria Rahkola.

Helena Tuuri and Jaako Edwin Maunuksala are ancestors of Marie Maunus Pascoe. Adolf and Elma Tuuri are ancestors of Anna Liisa and Ailia in Finland.

Orispari, 18 of March

My dear relatives,

Often with longing I think of you there far beyond many seas in a strange country and wonder how it seems to you. Are you happy there? Or does your heart every yearn for Finland? It would be nice to know. You no longer ever send us even a line. I heard that you will soon have two adult sons. I can't help wondering why they have not written to Ati. You know well how happy it would make us.

Answer soon.

You probably have heard from the Stenroos family that we are both in the patroon. Ati is an office worker and I am in the kitchen and we are feeling fairly well.

I am writing now to please Ati, since has been bothering me so ~~about~~ about it. I should like to ask if your sons have a bicycle and how much they cost there. Here every other boy has one and Ati too has begun to wish for one so very much. He wonders whether they might be cheaper there and if you might be able to help him a little and he could then pay you back little by little as he is able when he begins to receive more wages. Now he receives 15 marks a month. During these first years so much has gone toward clothing that we have plenty to get along.

Brother Jack's two grown daughters died of scarlet fever last year --one was 16 years of age and the other 17. This was a sad tragedy for them. Now only the eldest two are left, a boy and a girl. Sister Mary has three sons in America and her father; two sons are at home and also a daughter. Brother John is in Finland and lives at the lake as before. He has three sons and two daughters.

This year has been a rather bad year here. The poor are certainly having a hard time.

Sister Sanna lives in the city of Turu and has been there about 20 years already. This winter Heikki Murto died of lung disease. No doubt you remember him.

How many years have you been there? I must close now.

Sincerest regards from Ati and me. Fiina Tuuri

Letter begins, Dear Relatives in America....

Dear Relatives in America:

Engineer Rosenberg called us middle of April and sent very best regards from across the sea from the Maunus family from Marie and Milton Pascoe. Engineer Rosenberg was telling you there in America would have liked to get some information from relatives in Finland. When Edwin Maunus about 20 years ago visitee in Finland on concert trip wiht Humina Band, at that time we talked over our relatives that were still alive. All the older relatives have died including my Mother, Josephine who was your Grandmother's sister , her brother John Tuuri in Isokyro and a sister Sanna Tuuri in city of Turku and her brotner Jaska Esala, Ylistaro, Vasa Land.

I am oldest of Josephine's chilaren, 69 years of age. I'm still at Tampere in the lumber business. John Tuuri' has three boys and two girls living. Jaska Esala, 1 daughter Maja and she is in charge of Rintala House at Ylistaro. Next around Edwin's age his two cousins, my two daughters, Aili, and Anna Liisa, who are married and they have school age Children. John Tuuri's childredn are farmers in IsoKyro, and also are married. Maja Rintala's children are farmers in Ylistaro and the girls are married in different parts of Finland. Maja's brother Jack's children are farming in Ylistarros and one is in government service in Nokia.

In The war between Finland and Russia we were saved by some unbelieveable miracle as bombs were dropped close to our homes. Both of sonsin-law and all relatives were old enough were at the front and only one John's son lost a leg. That time was heavy for all of us and even now the burden is heavy on every day living.

We often remember the time when Edwin Maunus was here in Finland and we would be so happy if we could hear something from our own relatives and what tney are doing in America. I wonder if you know anything about my Aunt Ahteenpaa.

We were happy to hear from Engineer Rosenberg and altho' we live near each other I do not know him personally.

I presume some of you are coming here the summer of 1952 and see the olympics. We are hopeful that then we would meet and we would be glad to greet you as our guests. You could easily go and see the Olympics as it is only a three hour ride from Tampere.

Hoping we can soon hear from our relatives from far. Heartfelt regards from me and my whole Family.

A letter among Marie Maunus Pascoe's possessions dated May 3, 1951 from Tampere, Finland to a Professor Randel and signed by Hans Rosenberg....

Hans Rosenberg, Med.eng.

Tampere

Tampere May 3, 1951

Dear Professor Randel:

I thank you for your nice and kind letter April 21th. We here in Tampere are happy to know that you liked your stay in our town. The only thing I can say is, that you are always welcome here again!

Regarding your friend, Mrs Marie Maunus, now Mrs Marie Milton Pascoe living in Sandusky, Ohio, as I understood from your letter, I had good luck because Adolf Tuuri is still living here and I got him to the telephone. He was very glad to hear about Mrs Marie, remembered also Edwin's tour 1927 and his visit and promised also to write to here on the address above - which address I hope is right. However, Tuuris address is:
Metsäteknikko Adolf Tuuri, Puutarhakatu 23, Tampere - and maybe you could forward this address to mrs M.P. so she too could write to mr Tuuri. -

I thank you once more, dear Professor Randel, for the fine lecture you gave here - everybody enjoyed it very much - and I hope we will meet one day again - maybe in the States?! With my best

Marie - this came before I had mailed your letter

A letter from Adolph Tuuri, written in Finnish dated Tampere, 10.5.51, were among the possessions of Marie Maunus Pascoe.

Tampere 10.5.51.

Rakkaat sukulaiset.

Insinööri Rosenberg soitti meille huhtikuun puolivälissä ja toi terveisiä sielta kaukaa valtameren takaa Maunuksen sukuun kuuluvalta miss Maria Milton-Tascoelta. Insinööri R. kertoi, että te siellä Amerikassa olisitte halunneet saada joitakin tietoja täällä Suomessa olevista sukulaisistanne. Silloin kun Edwin Maunus noin 20 vuotta sitten kävi täällä Suomessa konserttimatkalla Humina-nimisen Amerikan-suomalaisen orkesterin mukana, me hänen meillä vieraillessaan kerroimme silloin elossa olevista sukulaisistaan. Sen jälkeen on vanhinta polvea kuollut m.m. Suomesta sinne muuttaneiden teidän esiäitienne (Sofian ja Maijan) sisar, minun äitini, Josefiina Tuuri sekä hänen veljensä Juha Tuuri Isosta-Kyrösta. Samoja sisaruksia on myös kuollut Sanna Tuuri Turun kaupungista ja veljensä Jaska Esala Ylistarosta.

Näitten sisarusten lapsista olen itse suvun vanhin (69 v.) ja olen edelleen Tampereella puutavarakauppiaana. Juha Tuurin lapsista elää 3 poikaa ja 2 tytärtä. Jaska Esalan perillisistä elää 1 tytär, Maija, joka on eläkkeellä olevana emäntänä Ylistaron Rintalassa.

Seuraavaa, nuorempaa, täällä käyneen Edwin'in ikäistä polvea, siis hänen pikkuserkkujaan edustavat minun 2 tytärtäni Aili ja Anna-Liisa, jotka ovat naimisissa ja on heillä jo koulukäisiä lapsia 5 kappaletta. - Juha Tuurin lapset ovat tavallisina ruumiillisen työn tekijöinä Isossa-Kyrössä ja myöskin naimisissa. - Rintalan Maijan lapsista on osa maanviljelijöinä Ylistarossa ja tyttäret naimisissa eri puolilla Suomea. Maijan veljen Jaakon lapsista on osa maanviljelijöinä Ylistarossa ja yksi on valtionvirkamiehenä Nokialla.

Suomen ja Neuvostoliiton välisessä sodassa säilyimme kuin ihmeen kautta kaikin hengissä kotiseudulle saakka ulotetuista pommituksista huolimatta. Molemmat vävyni, samoin kuin kaikki suvun asekuntoiset miehet olivat rintamalla ja vain yhdeltä Juhan pojista meni jalka sodan melskeissä. Se aika oli aarettōman raskasta aikaa meille kaikille ja yhä vielakin sotakorvaukset rasittavat talouselämäämme.

Olimme kovin yllättyneitä, kun ins. Rosenberg, joka on meille aivan outo, soitti ja toi terveisenne. Hän kyllä asuu hyvin lähellä meitä, vaikka emme häntä tunnekaan.

Toivottavasti pian saan kuulla uutisia sukulaisistani siellä kaukana ja lähetän heille kaikille sydämelliset terveiseni omasta ja koko perheeni puolesta.

Jaakko Esala (b 1906) Jr. was the sheriff's officer in Nokia. (He's now retired) Tom met him when he was in Finland 1962.

Josefina Tuuri had one illegitimate son, my father Adolf Fredrik Tuuri who was as a merchant here in Tampere. He took care of his mother during her whole life. She lived in our family (with my mother, father, my only sister Aili and I) until their death 1929, My mother Elma died 1959, and my father 1963 so that Tom met him here.

Unfortunately I can not more write to you of Tom's pedigree, but I hope that you would come here in the future to make some discoveries in this interesting thing (yourselves). Anyhow one branch goes until in the 16th century so it's not so slight.

My best regards to you all

My condolences on your brother-in-law's death!
I hope you feel good after all?

You can't understand how I wish I had a better knowledge of the English language! As you can see, my English is very poor and it takes time to write a letter. The conversation between us would be much easier for me, if I could use my own language. I have travelled a lot, but as a tourist in the group you don't need many words, it is enough with "how much", "please" and "thank you"! Anyway, the main thing is the connection, not the perfect language, don't you agree? And if there is anything you don't understand in my letters, please ask me, and I'll try to explain it.

I guess (hope!) that my Mother has told you many things about our family in her letters to Maiyu. To my shame I have to confess that I maybe listened but heard nothing when the parents told me something about the relatives. When I was young I always had something else to think or to do and afterwards I had the things with my own little family and with my job. Now when I'm older and more interested, it's too late!

I'm sorry that the only persons I can identify in the old pictures are my Mother and aunt Aili. Pirkko is the girl with the stripped sweater, as you thought. As a matter of fact, Maiyu and Tom gave the sweater and the necklace to Pirkko as a farewell gift!

There is something I remember when Maiyu was here. She often mentioned the city named Ashtabula. Maiyu often said "...in Ashtabula". I also saw that name on the old photos you sent me. Do you have relatives there in Ashtabula?

I'll send you now copies of the "Story of Tuuri family", which I've got from my Mother for many years ago.
It is unfortunately in Finnish and partly very old and strange language, so I only translated some important things (important in my opinion) and I hope it will help you.
(Don't you know any Finnish speaking people there in Sandusky? Ohio supposed to be the state with many immigrants from Finland!)
If you have some certain questions, please ask me and I'll try to find them out.

If you like, you can keep the letters my Mother wrote to Maiyu but it would be an honour for me to get your book!

I hope, that this letter doesn't tear up or get lost! I have the elementary knowledge of astrology and I know that when Mercury is retrograding (12.7.-05.08.99), letters can get lost in the mail, machinery can break down, computers can go haywire.
Don't you believe? Rubbish?

Now I have to rest for a while. The writing of this letter has been quite a job but pleasant!

I wish you and your family a very nice Summer!

Love,

Isonkyrön Hevonkosken kylän N:o 4 Tuurin talon omistajia vuodesta 1546 ja T u u r i n suku.

T a u l u I.

Pietari Thure, kymmenysveroluettelon mukaan isäntänä v. 1546 - 1566

T a u l u II.

Matti Pietarinpoika Tuuri, isäntänä vuodesta 1585 - 1600.

T a u l u III.

Matti Matinpoika Tuuri, isäntänä vuodesta 1606 - 1615.

T a u l u IV.

Pietari Tuurin miehenpuolinen suku päättyy tähän, mutta onko seuraava omistaja vävy vai kokonaan vieras edellisille, on jäänyt selvittämättä. Mahdollisesti hän on kuitenkin vävy, koska hän on ollut osittain samanaikaisesti isäntänä kuin Perttu Matinpoika Tuuri.

T a u l u V.

Perttu Martinpoika Tuuri, joka vuoden 1627 ruotuluettelon mukaan oli syntynyt 1579. Hän oli Tuurissa isäntänä vuodesta 1618 - 1661. Poika: Lauri. Taulu IV.

T a u l u VI.

Lauri Perttunpoika Tuuri, k. ennen v:ta 1664 - 1686. Laurin vaimo oli vuodesta 1650 lähtien Marina Pentintytär, joka oli Heikki Markuksenpojan leski. Heikki oli ollut sotamiehenä Puolassa ja tullut ammutuksi Stettinissä. Hän ei ollut kirjoittanut Marinalle kertaakaan koko kuuden vuoden aikana jonka hän oli sodassa. Kun rykmentti tuli kotiin, ei Heikkiä ollut mukana. Kerrottiin, että hän vielä eli, mutta eräs vanha sotilas kertoi nähneensä hänet kuolleena. Oikeudessa tutkittiin nimittäin, oliko Lauri Perttunpoika naimannut Marinan ennen Heikin kuolemaa. Vuonna 1665 Klemetti Perttunpoika Vähänkyrön Kalsilasta hiterin talosta haki tytärpuolensa Anne Erikintyttären äidinisän perintöä Lauri Perttunpojalta sekä äidin veljen Sipin perintöä 17 taalaria kopparahaa. Jäänisä oli kuollut jo 40 vuotta sitten. Annen serkuilla Britellä oli myös perintösaatava Lapsia: Jaakko ja Perttu. Taulu VII.

Jaakko ja Perttu Laurinpojat omistivat Tuuria yhteisesti v:sta 1690 - 1696. Jaakko Laurinpoika oli varakas isäntä ja vahva työmies, jotavastoin Perttu oli sairaalloinen ja huono työntekijä. Jaakko ja hänen vaimonsa Anna Laurintytär olivat lapsettomia, mutta Perttulla ja hänen vaimollaan Maria Filipintyttärellä oli ainakin yksi tytär Liisa, joka oli myöhemmin talon perijä. Jaakko ja Perttu kuolivat 1696, jolloin lesket jäivät keskenään taloa isännöimään. He olivat sukua keskenään, sillä Anna oli Marian äidin sisar.

Pertun Lenzi Maria meni naimisiin Mikki Erkinpojan [illegible]. Heillä oli [illegible] Tuurissa vuodesta 1696 vuoteen 1701. Erkillä ja Marialla oli yhteisiä lapsia, jotka kuitenkin kuolivat lapsina, koska heitä ei myöhemmin esiinny kirjoissa. Mikin ja Marian alettua isännöimään Laurin vaimolle annalle luvattiin syytinki talosta. 29.08.1707 maaherran päätöksellä Mikin tuli jättää talo vaimonsa tyttären Liisan ja hänen miehensä omistukseen. Mikki valitti että hänellä ei ole paikkaa, minne mennä perheensä kanssa, jossa on monta lasta ja sairas vaimo. Hän pyysi, että saisi asua talossa niin kauan, että saisi rakennettua itselleen asunnon. Vävy valitti puolestaan, että talo on jo määrätty antamaan Leski Anna Laurintyttärelle syytinki ja jos Mikki perheineen jää taloon elätettäväksi, niin talon varat eivät sellaista kestä. Mikki lupasi perheensä puolesta tehdä talon töitä elantonsa edestä. Anna Laurintytär kuoli 1711.

T a u l u VIII.

Liisa Pertuntytär Tuuri ja hänen miehensä Matti Jaakonpoika Killinen tulivat sitten isännäksi Tuuriin vuodesta 1707 lähtien. Matti kuoli kuitenkin isonvihan aikana, koska Liisan miehenä jo 1719 ryssänmanttaalin mukaan on Martti Mikinpoika. Martti vaikutti pitäjässä verotus- ja lautamiehenä. Matilla ja Liisalla oli yhteinen

Poika: Simuna. Taulu IX.

Tällöin he muuttivat takaisin Tuuriin. Simunan äiti Liisa Pertuntytär oli kuollut 20.09.1735 45 vuoden ikäisenä. Hänen isäpuolensa Martti Mikinpoika eli vielä 1738, mutta kuitenkin seuraavana vuonna luovutti isännyyden Simunalle.

Henrik Tuuri omisti kolmasosa kanttaalia (toista puolta) Tuurin talosta. Lohtakin syystä hän ei kuitenkaan pystynyt talosta pitämään ja myi sen 28.11.1811 Aapriel Kinnalle 555 riikintaalarin hinnasta ja myös, sellaisin ehdoin, että Kinnan ja Tuurin lasten oli mentävä avioliittoon keskenään. Sopimuksen rikkomisen varalta oli määrätty maksettavaksi korvauksena 277 riikintaalaria 17 shillinkiä janeljä runstyckia. National Genealogical Society

SUMMATION

Within these pages are the lives of ancestors and descendants, as Marie Maunus Pascoe and Milton Charles Pascoe had begun to gather many years ago, before her death in 1975 and his death in 1971. For trusting me to complete a project, she had begun, I hope in some small way this manuscript is what she would have wanted. I did my best and delighted in being the catalyst that generated telephone calls, snail mail, e mail, internet access to Finland and places all over the United States in getting relatives in touch with one another over the years. In some instances, those who had not seen or heard from each other in more than thirty plus years.

Are all the facts correct? Probably not, but I leave that for another generation to decipher and dissect and bring to full circle. This volume was not intended to prove lineage for a historical society or place a name with a particular society, it was and is intended to "record" our family! My quest was to put into print what had been given to me, and truly make this a present of Christmas in the year 2000. It is done.

I wish with all my heart, I could have accomplished this when Milt and Marie were a part of the family, but God's gift of time never afforded me the opportunity to know Milt and Marie's precious time with me (and I with her) was so very brief.

With a legacy our ancestors have left us - family names to honor and cherish; the spirit and belief in God's Master Plan for each of us; and the hope and belief of tomorrow, we have much to be grateful for and blessings beyond compare.

Even though there is much wrong in our world, with the birth of a baby, God has given us that hope and renewal for another generation to carry on. We are truly blessed being a part of "this family", "this legacy of love" and to carry forward that gift for others we will never know. Our family is like all others - joys and hardships, accomplishments and defeats, dreams and promises, marriages and divorces and we have all given back to the society in which we live. Our talents are a matter of record in a greater book. May this Christmas in our year of millennium, 2000, be one of special significance to you and your family. Thank YOU for participating in this project, for providing me to share with others, your family line and sharing with me the intimacies, to bring this book "alive" and filled with love for our families and each other.

Much love and Merry Christmas, everyone!

Boats Help to Keep Family Closely Knit

By Elizabeth Kardos

For several years "Nancy Lake," whose real name is Maria Sophia Pascoe, was a well-known radio personality in the Sandusky area. She called on me when I still had my school and made a recording of a program with me. I was impressed immediately with her intelligence, wit and straight forward personality. I have seen her many times since when speaking in Sandusky.

ELIZABETH KARDOS

Maria and her husband, Milton, who has an insurance business, are graduates of Denison University. Maria's background is Finnish and she often speaks of her early life in Ashtabula and the Finnish customs her family followed. During holiday seasons she still practices customs of Finland and other countries to help educate their sons, Charles, James and Tom.

For years Maria taught school, full time or on the substitute list. She loves children and feels it is her civic duty to help out in the teacher shortage, even taking special courses at Western Reserve University to keep informed. Civic-minded as she is she's also active in the College Club and the P.E.O. Sisterhood and is co-chairman of the Erie County Mental Health Association.

Capable as she is, she carries on all these outside activities without sacrificing the smooth running of her home. She schedules family commitments on a bulletin board on which is the question, "Have you done something kind for someone today?"

Elizabeth Kardos Lectures

TUESDAY, 8:30 p.m. - Western Reserve Women's Republican Club, The Cuyahoga County Republican Women's Club, and guests, the Ohio Federation of Republican Women's Organizations, Hotel Carter.

THURSDAY, 8 p.m. - Career Day, Bay Village High School.

The family has one common interest, fishing and boating. On Sundays not even bad weather keeps them on land. They go sailing if it's at all possible. They own a small fishing boat and a sailboat which they use in races. They catch enough fish to stock their freezer. This common interest in boating and fishing has kept the family closely knit and has given them many friends with mutual interests.

The three sons also have always had many outside interests. The oldest, Charles, is at Hobart College, where he is active in the Air R. O. T. C. James is in college studying music. He has a fine voice and plays both clarinet and saxophone. Tommy is still in high school and is active in the Boy Scouts.

Because her husband is so busy, Maria plans all the family vacations. Last summer she decided that the sons were old enough to be away from her so she encouraged them to go on a fishing trip with their father and without her. Two days after they arrived at their destination two of the boys became ill, one of them seriously. They kept the news from "mother" until they returned home. Then they announced that never again would they go on a trip without her.

Maria, whose hair is graying, is a busy woman, an ideal mother and an appreciated citizen. I'm proud of the whole family and am happy to call them friends.

Elizabeth Kardos will answer your questions. Please write to her at the Plain Dealer, Cleveland 14, O., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Please do NOT telephone, because a written reply is much more satisfactory.

Pascoe, Richard From the Ontario Genealogical Society, Woodstock, Ontario, Canada, courtesy of Mary Liley is this photograph. The resemblance to our ancestor, Charles Pascoe is remarkable! She went on to tell me that Richard Pascoe was in the British Army for twenty years from the documents previously sent to you and that his petition for 100 acres of land, he was only given five acres of land, which was the majority for the Petworth Emigrants. Mary also stated that the Voters List for Woodstock in 1855 lists Richard Pascoe, Jr., on W. Riddle Street and Richard Pascoe, Sr., on West Riddle Street.

Saint Peter's Lutheran Church - This article was given to me by Jeanette Schwab on 091899 about our home church celebrating its' Centennial. This was in the Bellevue Gazette Newspaper, dated Thursday, July 9, 1959 on page 5. We knew that our ancestor, Anton Scheid, gave the land to build the church along with two other members, but it is still delightful to read in print the spelling of the surname as Scheidt.

St. Peter's Lutheran Church Will Celebrate Centennial

Members of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Sand Hill Rd., Pontiac, O., will celebrate the one - hundredth anniversary of the founding of the church July 15 - 19.

The Rev. R. M. Ground is pastor of the church and the anniversary planning committee are Mrs. Ralph Schied, chairman, Miss Ortrude Linder, and Russell Schild.

The St. Peter's was organized as a congregation on May 1, 1859 with the Rev. Wilhelm Schmogrow in charge. Services were held in the school house nearby.

Formal organization of the congregation took place at 10 a.m. July 18, 1859, with membership in the German Evangelical Lutheran Church based on the Augsburg Confession.

Three members, Anton Scheidt, Philip Rohler, and Philipp Knoll, offered land for the building of the church. The site chosen was that offered by Scheidt, and he with Jacob Schug, and Wilhelm Scholl were named as the building committee.

On Oct. 3, 1858, the cornerstone of the frame building was laid, and pastor Schmogrow, who was responsible for getting the congregation organized, was called as the first pastor, remaining until 1874. The original building, still in use, was constructed with a tall spire, which was replaced by the present bell tower following a wind storm several years ago.

The Rev. Kenneth Priebe, Columbus, O., president of the Ohio District, will preach at the morning services July 19 at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. E. W. Bensch, a former pastor of St. Peter's, will deliver the evening sermon at 8 p.m.

Following the morning service a planned picnic dinner and supper will be served by the women of the church with the afternoon given over to visiting with former members and friends.

A musical program will be presented at 3 p.m. in charge of Mrs. Robert Schild, Attica, O. Organ selections will be played by Mrs. Ted Buck, Bellevue, a former member of the congregation, and Mrs. Schild will present violin and vocal numbers.

A memorial service will be observed at the opening of the centennial Wednesday, July 15, at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Norman Kurtz, pastor of the Lyme and Groton Twp. Lutheran churches, and the Rev. C. C. Wannemacher, Galion, O., will be the ministers.

Members of the local St. John's Lutheran Church and area Churches have been invited to attend the services.

The Scheids celebrate in a big way

The occasion was the 85th birthday of Alice Scheid, Scheid Road, Huron, given by her children, David and Sue Scheid, 115 E. Monroe St., Sandusky, and Bill and Phyllis Scheid, Scheid Road, Huron.

More than 100 guests boarded the G.A. Boeckling, at the foot of Jackson Street in Sandusky, to congratulate the honored guest. What a beautiful setting that was. Of course, with a florist in the family, flowers were everywhere on the boat and the cake was gorgeous.

But, the natural setting was the focal point. Sailboats cruised lazily in the sunlit bay; a freighter passed, Cedar Point was in the background. The strains of Guy Lombardo's orchestra playing "Auld Lange Syne," had everyone humming.

Then, just after Alice cut her cake and the group sang "Happy Birthday," 4-Hers from Wayne County, returning from camp on Kelleys Island, released balloons of every color as they docked, just across the parking lot from the Boeckling.

Alice was taken to her party — much to her surprise — by a limousine sent by Rita and Lee Baumeister. She said she was "floored" when the driver appeared at her door. Her great-grandchildren were just as thrilled as she was as they accompanied her on the luxurious ride into Sandusky.

She was greeted by friends and relatives from every walk of life, from all over the area. Traveling from Indiana for the occasion were cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Clauser and their daughter, Mrs. Rollin Jump; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fettel and Mr. and Mrs. Linn Fettel.

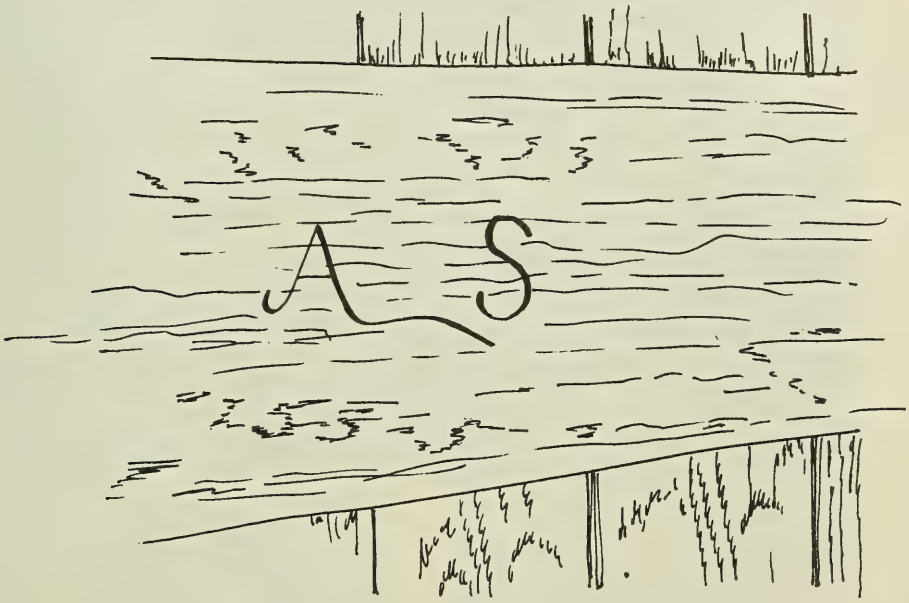
Scheid, Anton Sketch of the faint initials on the front door of the home place.



What follows are two photographs which hung in the bedroom of Dorothy Scheid Southard, daughter of Henry Scheid and Louise Mowery, grand daughter of Peter Scheid and Catherine Heuser, and great grand daughter of Anton Scheid and Catherine Maus. On the backs of the frames was written, "for Henry". The photograph of the woman obviously was taken early in life, but I ask the reader to go to page 330 and look at the photograph of Catherine Maus. Noticed by myself and other family members are these features: eyes at the same slant, the right eyebrow with the same raised curve, mouth line same accounting for droop of age and same for the nose. The photograph of the man, we have no one in the family to identify - but why would Dorothy (who was 100 years old in 1999!) have these two photographs side by side on her bedroom wall IF not family and not related in same way? Obviously the gentleman in this photograph is older, no doubt about that. We know that Anton was 6 years older than Katherine Maus. His son, died when Anton was 51 years of age. He moved his family to the US, two years later and he was only 64 years of age when he died. We know it is not Peter and Catherine Heuser Scheid, their photos are on page 402 of this manuscript; and, also confirmed historically by Hewson L. Peeke in his volume, History of Erie County, Ohio, published in 1916 on the template between pages 1088 and 1089. Peter lived at the home place in Pontiac, Ohio until he married and it seems as if he stayed closer with his family. Mitzi Denzer believes if there was a picture to pass on, he [Peter] would have one and pass it on. So, that leaves us with two possibilities: (1) is this Henry Ludwig Scheid, later in life and his wife, Louise Mowery, earlier in life ? Or (2) is this "our Anton Scheid later in life and his wife, Katherine Maus, earlier in life?" We will never know, but would like to believe, it is our Anton Scheid!

dear Girls - Amelia, Marie + Anna.
Am so sorry that I can't be with you to-day but it just so happens that it is at my bad day and my nerves are not of the best so don't dare to go. Poor Mumsy is at rest and so I hope you will console yourselves that you have done and have done your best. It seems strange, but it surely is true that at its best life is only a struggle after all, and we never reach our goal until the fight is over, and I often think it more of a case for rejoicing, than mourning when we are allowed to enter the valley of peace + understanding that we call Death. For there we shall understand + be understood + there shall be no more sorrow nor tears, but we shall dwell in His house forever. How I should love to see you with love and sincere thoughts Cousin Minnie

Received on December 22, 1999 was the following information, since the "draft" had already been sent to the publisher, this author could not edit and properly place in the addendum in alphabetical order, but wanted the inclusion of information to be recorded.

Richter, Helen Caroline (nee Miller) was born November 2, 1915 in Sandusky, Ohio, was provided a normal, happy childhood with an older sister, Kay and a younger, brother, Jim. Typically middle class, our father managed a printing plant and mother managed a large household. After graduating from high school, despite limitations imposed by the looming depression, Caroline entered Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, in the School of Education, with a major in Art. Her senior year was interrupted by lack of funds, so she detoured into the job market. Her family had moved to Ashland, Ohio, so she joined them there, determined to work for a year then transfer to Ashland College, a small Church of the Brethren institution. After graduating from there, she became the Art Supervisor of eight Ashland Public Schools and established an Art Department for Ashland College. When her parents moved to Coronado, California, she changed her location to Sandusky Public Schools, Sandusky, Ohio. But not long after Pearl Harbor she was on her way to California, to be "where the action is."

As a technical illustrator for Ryan Aeronautical in San Diego, she saw plenty of action! As a soloist in her church, her voice was heard on a Sunday morning TV broadcast and some military religious engagements . So it was, on Mother's Day in Balboa Park, that she met a young Navy Chaplain,Thomas James Richter (b. December 3, 1913) on his first tour of duty, from Allentown, Pennsylvania. The courtship was short, it was 1944, and culminated in a simple wedding ceremony on July 13, 1944, in a Lutheran Church, with only her family and his friends . As a dedicated Navy wife, she had much to learn about her husband's obligations to God, Country and the Chaplain's Bureau in Washington, D. C., which decided the direction of their lives. They were together for the most part, except for a few separations called "sea duty": from San Diego to Philadelphia; Atlantic City to Cape May; Puerto Rico to Boston(Master's Degree at Harvard); San Diego to Long Beach; Pt.Mugu to Yokohama, Japan; Philadelphia to Norfolk; retirement after thirty years to Placentia, California. He had accepted a call to First Lutheran, Fullerton, California.

During all this roving about, our daughter Mary Richter and our son, Peter Richter joined the family, both of whom adapted to the Navy life and enjoyed many exciting experiences caused by frequent relocations. Mary Kathryn Richter was born, February 21, 1946 and graduated from Nile C. Kinnick High School, Yokohama, Japan in 1964. She has attended Tokyo University of the Sacred Heart and Barat College, Lake Forest, Illinois. She was an American Airlines stewardess and is presently employed at GTE Airphone Marketing in Oakbrook, Illinois. She married Gary Thrasher on November 23, 1968. He was born September 30, 1942 in Roanoke, Virginia and graduated for Virginia Military Institute in 1964 and was promptly sent to Viet Nam. As a structural engineer he has been employed by American Bridge and Walgreen Drug Stores. Mary Kathryn and Gary Thrasher have two children: (1) Kimberly Thrasher born August 29, 1973 and graduated from Schaumburg, Illinois and graduated from Schaumburg High School, the University of Iowa in Iowa City, Iowa. She went into the ROTC Program there and then on to the U. S. Army, and is now a Captain at Fort Bliss, Texas. She married Christian Plunkett in 1997; (2) Brian Thrasher was born February 20, 1976, also in Schaumburg, Illinois and a graduate of Schaumburg High School. Brian has just completed serving his county with the United States Marines for four years. James Peter T. Richter was born July 3, 1951 and graduated from Fork Union Academy in Virginia in 1970. A graduate of the University of California at Fullerton, in 1975, he obtained his Master's Degree from the University of California at Long Beach. He is a licensed Social Worker. His pride and joy is his only daughter, Alissa Richter born November 23, 1981 who lives with her mother. After they were grown and gone, the empty nest syndrome sent Caroline back to college for an elementary degree so that she could go back to teaching, which she did for many years with great enthusiasm. Retirement was a decision we never regretted. Tom's advancing leukemia finally took him "home" on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1997, but not before he had lived life to its' fullest. Now Caroline's major interests are Daughters of the American Revolution (D. A. R.), P. E. O., the local Japanese community, and her church. She has two cats to keep her company, and many memories of a life dedicated to one who served the Lord.

Parker, Katharyn M. Photograph is of Katharyn "Kate" (nee Miller) Parker with white hat on; her mother, Rhea (nee Scheid) Miller with black coat dress on; and daughters/granddaughters, Katharyn and Caroline taken circa 1915 or 1916.
